Double Taxation of Iron Ore Properties Not Likely.

No Change in Present Method of Taxation Practically Assured.

Legislative Junket Comes to an End—Bovey Visit.

"I feel safe in assuring you that, so far as the committee is concerned, there will be no change in the present method of taxing the iron ore properties of Northern Minnesota," said Senator L. O. Cooke of Kellogg, Wisconsin county, in speaking relative to the tax of the iron ore properties of the state. The committee on the iron ore tax question, of which Senator Cooke is chairman, met today in the legislative building. The committee is composed of Senator Cooke, Senator McCarran, and Representative Bovey. The committee has been working on the iron ore tax question for some time. The committee has been holding many meetings and has been receiving many suggestions from the iron ore owners. The committee has been working on the iron ore tax question for some time. Double Tax Not Likely. Despite the assurance of Senator Cooke, there is likely to be some little discussion among members of the committee when it comes to making the report, but the chances seem much against imposing double taxation upon the mines. The probable solution of the difficulty will be an increase in the valuation of the mines for the purpose of taxation. While a few of the members of the committee appear to favor double taxation, it is believed such an

HARVARD WILL PLAY FOOTBALL

According to the Statements Made Public by President Eliot.

Boston, Feb. 26.—Football will be played at Harvard university next fall, according to statements by President Charles W. Eliot, which were made public today. The recommendation of the special investigating committee which was appointed last year to make a report on the general subject of athletics, has been awaited with some curiosity by the undergraduates, in view of the stand taken by President Eliot in regard to football and other intercollegiate sports. In the interview made public today President Eliot is quoted as saying: "No one for a long time has proposed to stop intercollegiate athletics at Harvard. Last year some people wanted either to stop football or change it. Football has been changed as far as I can see, it will go on as usual at Harvard next fall. The special investigating committee which was appointed some time ago, has rendered two reports, a majority report and a minority report. As yet I have only seen the majority report. Football has not been singled out for special consideration any more than any other branches of sports. When asked if he intended to reply in any way to President Roosevelt's recent speech at the Harvard union, when football was upheld, President Eliot said he did not. "I have always criticized the abuses of football," he said, "and do yet I think you will find my positions with reference to sport or rough sports are not essentially different." President Eliot said he expected to make public his minority report in about ten days in which he is expected to have much to say concerning athletics.

THE POSTOFFICE BILL PASSED BY THE SENATE

Carries Increase of Pay for Carriers and Clerks—Must Go Back to House.

Washington, Feb. 26.—The senate yesterday passed the agricultural appropriation bill, carrying nearly $10,000,000; the postoffice appropriation bill, carrying $210,000,000; the pension appropriation bill, carrying $145,000,000; and the bill authorizing the establishment of an agricultural bank in the Philippines. The principal fight over the agricultural bill took place on the Beveridge amendment, requiring the packers to pay the cost of administering the meat inspection law. This amendment was defeated on a point of order. Mr. Beveridge secured the adoption of an amendment, which would increase the earnings and inspection to appear on the label of the can containing meat products.

The postoffice bill was passed in an hour and fifteen minutes. Amendments adding $1,388,750 for the extension of the pneumatic mail service, and requiring postal cars to be lighted with electricity, were adopted. Mr. Lodge secured the passage of the Philippine agricultural bank bill. An amendment to this bill, offered by Senator Cullerton, declaring the intention of the United States to abandon the islands as soon as a stable independent government should be established, was defeated. The senate also passed a bill granting a service pension to army nurses. Those who are disqualified to earn a livelihood, and have reached the age of 62 years, are to receive $12 a month; at 70 years, $15, and at 75 years, $20.

ACCUSED OF COWARDICE

Charges Made Against Gen. Stoessel Now on Trial.

Secret Report on Defense of Port Arthur Made Public.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 26.—A copy of the secret report on the defense of Port Arthur, which is the basis of the indictment on which Lieut. Gen. Stoessel, Lieut. Fock, who commanded the Fourth East Siberian division at Port Arthur, and Maj. Gen. Reiss, chief of staff of Gen. Stoessel, are standing trial for their lives before the supreme court-martial, has been obtained by the Associated Press.

It is of the greatest interest as explaining the decision to try these three officers and not prosecute the other defenders of Port Arthur. The report, which was written by Lieut. Gen. Smirnov, the actual commandant of the fortress, is sensational in the extreme and categorically accuses Stoessel of cowardice and incapacity and finally of the deliberate, treasonable hastening of the surrender to save his

WOULD HAVE DATE ON ALL SEALED GOODS.

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 26.—A bill was today introduced in the house to regulate the sale of any article of food contained in sealed packages, cans, bottles or packages providing that there shall be placed or stamped on the outside of such packages in plain letters the true date of packing and sealing of such package and then the article contained therein.

BILL FOR PROPOSED SEMI-CENTENNIAL EXPOSITION INDEFINITELY POSTPONED

Retains Its Place, However, and May Come Up Later.

The Hinton Bill Killed But Is Later Resurrected.

New Normal School Bills Will Come Up on Floor.

St. Paul, Feb. 26.—(Special to The Herald.)—The senate committee on finance voted this morning, 11 to 6, to indefinitely postpone the bill providing for a semi-centennial exposition on the fair grounds next year to commemorate the fiftieth anniversary of the statehood. The committee softened its action, however, by recommending that the bill retain its place on general orders that it may be discussed and acted upon by the senate.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

The senate in committee of the whole killed and resurrected again the Hinton bill prohibiting candidates for election.

JEROME FINISHES HIS CROSS-EXAMINATION OF EVELYN NESBIT THAW

ABE HUMMEL, Noted New York Lawyer, Who Was a Witness in the Thaw Case on Tuesday. Hummel Is at Present Under Indictment for Alleged Criminal Practices.

Concluding Questions on Thaw's Manner When Meeting White.

Mrs. Thaw Said He Acted Like Person in a Fit.

Abe Hummel Examined But Testimony Is Unimportant.

New York, Feb. 26.—District Attorney Jerome today finished his long cross-examination of Mrs. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, at the trial of her husband on the charge of having murdered Stanford White. Mrs. Thaw had been under the district attorney's fire for nearly five court days. His concluding questions had to do with what the witness observed as to Thaw's manner when he would chance to meet White. She said he acted as a person in a fit. Mrs. Thaw said her husband would remember the meetings and talk of them. From Christmas, 1903, until he shot White he believed the architect had set the Monk Eastman gang upon him, and he constantly feared White and said he was being persecuted by him. Mr. Jerome called Abraham H. Hummel to the stand today to question him regarding the affidavit Evelyn Nesbit is alleged to have made against Thaw in his office. Beyond the fact that the girl went to the lawyer's office and that he dictated to a stenographer while she was there the district attorney was powerless to bring out anything more because of the continued objections of Mr. Delmas, Justice Fitzgerald upheld the objections.

POISONED HIS FAMILY

Solicitor for Correspondence School Confesses to the Police.

Infatuation for Another Woman Caused Awful Deed.

Denver, Feb. 26.—Benjamin C. Wright, solicitor for the International Correspondence school of Scranton, Pa., is held a prisoner in the city jail here on a charge of murder, having confessed to Chief of Police Michael Delaney last night in the presence of witnesses, that he poisoned his wife Cora and his daughter Genevieve, who were found dead yesterday in their home in this city. Infatuation for Stella Good, for whom the police claim to have learned Wright had neglected his family, is supposed to have been the motive of the crime.

According to the statement of hospital physicians, Wright himself had taken no poison and was shamming yesterday when he seemed to be unconscious. The contents of his stomach were examined and no poison was found. Wright did not disclose last night the nature of the poison given his wife and child, but it is known they died in agony. Stella Good left the city yesterday for Colorado Springs, and the authorities of that city have been asked to arrest her. She had been arrested several times on charges of theft. Wright is a son of Hiram Wright, a cigarmaker of Chicago.

MEYER ARRIVES FROM HIS EUROPEAN POST.

CANNOT TRACE THE ROBBERY

Officials Begin to Think Affair is Result of Error.

Chicago, Feb. 26.—The government officials who are working on the disappearance of $173,000 from the treasury in this city today declared that they were unable to trace the theft to any one person, and they have formed the strong opinion that the disappearance is the result of a theft but a clerical error. Capt. Porter of the secret service, who has charge of the case stated today that he believed the matter will be straightened out before night. He would not say that he abandoned the theory of a theft, but other officials connected with the treasury declared that the idea of an error was receiving far more consideration than that of a possible robbery.

A MARKED IMPROVEMENT IN HARRIMAN'S MEMORY

As Attorney Kellogg for Interstate Commission Shows Him Checks and Papers.

New York, Feb. 26.—When the interstate commerce commission resumed its sitting today, Commissioner Prouty was not present. Mr. Harriman entered the room and walked directly to the witness chair. Mr. Kellogg, with a bundle of documents in his hand, stepped to the cleared space in front of the witness and plunged directly into the examination. Mr. Harriman testified yesterday that he did not know whether he had an interest in the Laclede Construction company, which had built the St. Louis, Peoria & Northern railway, and when he took the stand this morning, Mr. Kellogg produced a contract relating to the Chicago Terminal Transfer showing that Harriman, George K. Gould, James Stillman and Jacob Schiff were the owners of the company. The witness said the document was no doubt correct and that possibly he had acted in fixing the price of the road when it was sold to the Alton. Mr. Kellogg also produced two original checks to show that Kuhn, Loeb & Co. had been managers of the Alton syndicate and the witness, who had been unable to remember yesterday, said that Kuhn, Loeb & Co. undoubtedly had been the syndicate managers. After reciting a statement of the Chicago & Alton railroad showing the interest charges, Mr. Kellogg asked the witness if he thought it was right to put on the public the large issue of common stock which never would and never could pay a dividend. "Did we ever tell the public it would pay a dividend?" asked Mr. Harriman, quietly. He continued: "No dividend was ever promised, and in addition the public got the services of the Chicago & Alton at 30 per cent less in 1906 than they paid in 1898. The road also enabled the commercial concerns located along its

THE POLICE COURT GRIST

"Mr. and Mrs." Bradford Arraigned on Petty Charges.

Erick Pykkko is Arrested on Complaint of Domestic.

In spite of her protestations that she was married to Bernard L. Bradford, and Bernard's assertions that this was true, "Mrs. Bradford" was arraigned in the municipal court this morning, charged with drunkenness, as Lizzie Mitchell.

Leo Marquis told the officer that she had robbed him of $3 by picking his pocket while in the Metropolitan hotel, but there was no testimony that could have been given by her on this charge, she pleaded guilty to a charge of drunkenness, and paid a fine of $27.

E. L. Bradford himself was arrested himself at the same time, and was arraigned on a charge of vagrancy. Bradford has been in court a number of times before, charged with petty larceny and other small crimes.

Bradford pleaded not guilty to the vagrancy charge, and his trial was set for this afternoon.

Charged with trespass, Eugene Cote was arraigned this morning before Judge Windom and dismissed. The judge stated that they had found the boy occupying a room rented by L. G. Emery, ex-manager of the "Spalding hotel," to which he had gained admittance through a window. Cote claimed that Emery had told him he could occupy the room, but did not explain very clearly why he gained admittance through a window. The janitor of the place tried to get Cote out first, and then sent for a policeman. Cote refused to come out, even for an officer, arrested, so arrest followed. Mr. Emery is in Minneapolis at present, so he could not be on hand to state the facts of the case, and Judge Windom decided the evidence was not sufficient for conviction.

Charles Dahl, after stealing various articles of clothing from some of his companions, got into trouble yesterday while trying to "hook" some of the stuff on the Bowery and was arrested in one of the pawn shops there. He pleaded guilty to a petty larceny charge this morning, and was sentenced to thirty days in jail.

At 2 o'clock this afternoon, Erick Pykkko, who runs a Finnish boardinghouse at 606 West Michigan street, will be given his hearing on a serious charge preferred by Minnie Savolainen, a 12-year-old girl, who was in Pykkko's employ. The girl claims that Pykkko came into her room after she had retired and attempted an assault. She threatened to scream, and he left, after which, she says, she locked herself in until morning, when she at once left the boarding house.

SETTLERS ARE IN LINE

Two Men Begin Long Wait Before Land Office.

Will Spend Two Weeks in Hall of Federal Building.

With two weeks of waiting before them, before the new towns are opened to entry on March 11 and 12, the first men in the line, which will be formed, have taken their positions at the entrance to the Duluth land office in the federal building. They intend to hold their places against all comers.

The towns which will be opened are those of township 63, range 22 and township 63, range 21, and the first notice that they were to be thrown open was received at the local land office about two months ago. The opening has been well advertised since then and many inquiries concerning the land have been received at the land office.

The men who are the first in line, although both are going to file for claims at the opening, are acting in partnership and when one is absent the other will watch his place. They are both settlers on the land and are thoroughly familiar with the quality of it. They say that there are many other settlers already upon the two towns and there will probably be several contests after the opening.

As far as the land itself is concerned the settlers claim that it is very valuable as there are several million feet of timber. The timber is mostly of the poplar variety and makes an excellent soft lumber. The land is also said to be the best in Northern Minnesota as far as agriculture is concerned. As soon as it is cleared it will prove to be a great farming country.

The towns are situated about thirty miles north of Hibbing and are partly in the famous Little Fork country, which is already becoming a great agricultural country. The Little Fork district has already been more or less opened up and railroad branches will increase the value of the land during the present year.

The officials at the land office had not been expecting much of a rush to file for claims on these two towns, but as the first applicants are already in line the prospects are that many will want to file.

J. ADAM BEEBE.

Washington, Feb. 26.—The conferees of the two houses on the rivers and harbors appropriation bill reached an agreement at 2 o'clock today. The bill, as it will be reported by the committee, will carry $8,463,422, as passed by the house.

The appropriation of $200,000 for the Chicago river was reduced to $100,000. Other amendments authorized the removal of the north river bridge and provide for supervision of the power companies at the Soo canal locks, Michigan.

DIRECTORS IN SESSION

Denn-Arizona Officials Are Holding Meeting in Duluth.

Copper Market Has Better Tone Toward the Close.

Directors of the Denn-Arizona Copper company are in session this afternoon in the office of John G. Williams in the First National bank building. It is not expected that the body will transact any business of great import, as the matter of the new smelter for Denn and Shattuck-Arizona will probably not be decided until the annual meeting of the last named company, which will probably take place in St. Paul Wednesday.

Although the matter has not been definitely decided, the annual meeting of the Shattuck-Arizona company will probably be held tomorrow or Thursday afternoon in St. Paul, when the announcement of the new smelter at Bisbee is expected to be made.

The copper stock market had a better tone toward the close today. North Butte had an advance. There were rumors of a strike in the offices of the brokers, but up to the hour of going to press no word of it had come from Butte.

own life and in defiance of the decisions of two successive councils of war. The report is biased in the extreme, breathes the most bitter personal enmity and shows that the high officers of the Port Arthur garrison in the darkest days of the siege were not at all other's throats. The indictment is summed up in conclusion by Gen. Smirnov as follows: "A series of unpardonable blunders outside the fortress due to the ignorance and lack of military capacity and martial prowess of General Stossel and Pock brought about the investment of the fortress several months earlier than necessary and after the investment a desire for interference in the defense with unfortunate results. Finally, at the last period of the siege Stossel usurped my authority with the assistance of General Pock and Holes and committed treason in surrendering suddenly and prematurely. I regard our defeat at Mukden as a direct result of this treason."

line to increase their business threefold. "Then the Chicago & Alton reduced its rates much faster than the Union Pacific," asked Mr. Kellogg. "The Union Pacific has nothing to do with this. We are now considering the Chicago & Alton," was Mr. Harriman's reply. Mr. Kellogg asked what the total fixed charges of the Chicago & Alton were. Mr. Harriman scanned some papers he held and proceeded to read the amounts, with frequent interruptions from Mr. Kellogg. His totals did not seem to agree with those of Mr. Kellogg, and this led to several brief colloquies.

Mr. Kellogg was endeavoring to show the difference in the charges between the old company and the reorganization, and having done this he passed to the matter of the Chicago & Alton's bond issue of 1899.

Mr. Kellogg asked Mr. Harriman if there was anything to show that the syndicate was in any way obligated to take the bonds of the Alton before September, 1899.

"Does any record of such obligation exist anywhere?" he asked. The witness knew of no such record, but said he was certain the syndicate members were bound to take the bonds at 65. "You'll have to seek that information elsewhere," he said to Mr. Kellogg.

Mr. Kellogg continued the attack on the issue and sale of the Alton bonds, but the witness declined to be drawn into the defense with unfortunate results. Finally, at the last period of the siege Stossel usurped my authority with the assistance of General Pock and Holes and committed treason in surrendering suddenly and prematurely. I regard our defeat at Mukden as a direct result of this treason."

UNIVERSITY CLUB PLAN

Being Followed in Twin Cities Will Appeal to Duluthians.

Many College Men in This City Would be Eligible.

A project was launched in the Twin Cities this week with considerable success which will appeal to a large number of college bred Duluthians. It was the formation of a University club, open to the graduates of any and all colleges in the country and maintaining rooms, or a clubhouse of its own, on as pretentious a scale as possible.

The project was taken up with enthusiasm by the Twin City alumni, and a club will probably be organized in both St. Paul and Minneapolis.

In Minneapolis are to be found several active and enthusiastic college and university alumni associations, and others might be formed, as there is no lack of material, so representatively is Minneapolis a university town. Dartmouth, Amherst, Harvard, Princeton, University of Wisconsin, Michigan, Pennsylvania Columbia and Minnesota, all have organizations there, and each will join in the university club plan if approached, so the members of the committee have been led to believe.

Suitable and accessible leased quarters are deemed sufficient for the start of the club, and later it is expected to develop a move for a distinctively University club building.

Duluth boasts a small number of college bred persons among her population, and quite a flourishing Minnesota club is already in existence here. There is every reason to believe that a project like this could be taken up here and receive most enthusiastic support from all concerned.

The three clubs, in Duluth, St. Paul and Minneapolis, could exchange courtesies, and the Twin City plan is planning to do, and a college alumni would be sure of a warm welcome in whatever of the three cities he should visit himself.

In Seattle is a beautiful University club, Salt Lake has an exclusive one, in Chicago the University club is the strongest in the city, as it is in Cleveland. New Orleans has a beautiful University club. Kansas City has one, and the University club in New York has a beautiful building. No commercial spirit will be shown in such a club, as it is in so many others, forming cliques. In every city the University club is the best of the kind, on the social side, and it stands for pure politics, good government, an other civic advancement.

Neglected Colds Threaten Life.

(From the Chicago Tribune.)
"Don't trifle with a cold," is good advice for prudent men and women. It may be vital in the case of a child. Proper food, good ventilation, and dry, warm clothing are the proper safeguards against colds. If they are maintained through the changeable weather of autumn, winter and spring, the chances of a surprise from ordinary colds will be slight. But the danger of light cold will become severe if neglected, and a well established ripe cold is to the germs of diphtheria what honey is to the bee. The greatest menace to child life at this season of the year is the neglected cold. Whether it is a cold or adult, the cold is a danger, the very best treatment that can be adopted is to give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The greatest popularity and immense sale of this preparation has been attained by its remedy for colds and ailments. A cold never returns in pneumonia when it is given. For sale by all druggists.

FAMILY TIES ARE STRAINED

Complaints Are Filed in Several Actions for Divorces.

Several divorce cases noted for trial at the coming March term of the district court were filed with the clerk of the court yesterday afternoon.

Lars P. Juvick has asked for a legal separation from Anna Juvick on statutory grounds and for alimony. He claims in his complaint that he is 35 and his wife is 23 years of age. They were married at Fargo, N. D., Aug. 1, 1901, and the alleged desertion occurred May 15, 1902.

Juvick claims that his wife took up her residence in a house of ill-fame at Eveleth and that she is now an inmate of a similar house at Chisholm. He alleged that she has committed a statutory offense with divers men whose names are not known to him.

Alex Colombe has asked for a decree of divorce from Annie Colombe on the ground of desertion. They were married at Houghton, Michigan, Oct. 15, 1899, and the desertion is said to have occurred Oct. 1, 1902. Colombe is 28 and his wife is 24 years of age.

William Sauers, who has asked for legal separation from Anna Sauers, alleges that his wife committed a statutory offense with one Edward Criss at the Sauers' home on Michigan street, between Seventeenth and Eighteenth avenues west, and that Mrs. Sauers has been living with Criss since April 15, 1906, in a tenement house on Third and Second streets, between Fourth and Fifth streets, Superior, Wis. According to the complaint Sauers is 26, and his wife is 23 years of age. They were married in Kenton, Mich., April 15, 1896, and have three children.

The father has demanded the custody. Desertion is the charge that Margaret Gunn makes against Frank Gunn in her claim for a divorce. They were married in Eau Claire, Sept. 7, 1891. Mrs. Gunn claims that she is 30 years of age, and that her husband is 40 years old. There are no children.

JEROME FINISHES HIS CROSS-EXAMINATION OF EVELYN NESBIT THAW

desired. Mr. Lyon asked that the court instruct him precisely as to what papers are required.

Justice Fitzgerald made an order directing Mr. Lyon to send all papers.

Mr. Hartbridge rose to make the statement that before writing to Mr. Lyon that he did not want papers later than the given date, but it was in conversation with Mr. Jerome and the latter said distinctly that he did not care for letters and papers after date of June 25, last.

"It is very unfortunate that we have these continual misunderstandings," remarked Mr. Jerome, "replied Mr. Hartbridge hotly, 'but it is a fact that I wrote to Mr. Lyon relying on your statement.'"

Justice Fitzgerald said he had no authority to issue an order to the witness, who is now out of the jurisdiction of the court.

"Unless he returns for cross examination," said Mr. Jerome, "his testimony will have to be stricken out and with it the will and the codicil of the defendant."

After further argument, Mr. Hartbridge declared the court's time was being wasted, for if the district attorney would let him do what he wanted, he would do it. Mr. Jerome directed that Abraham H. Hummel, the lawyer, with Mr. Jerome, be sworn in and sworn to do what he wanted.

Hummel was sworn and took his seat in the witness chair.

The court stenographer, seated in front of the stand, all but hid the little witness from general view. The top of his head and shoulders occasionally seen nodding to and fro.

Mr. Jerome's first question was: "Did you ever see a man in an epileptic fit?"

"I have seen cats," there was considerable laughter.

"Well did Thaw act like that?" Prompted by Mr. Jerome, he said his body had been seized and he clapped his hands and his eyes rolled.

The next time they saw white was when he entered a box opposite them in a theater. At this time Thaw again became excited, his eyes rolled and he stared.

"Whenever he saw White, Thaw's conduct was the same."

"At this time did he carry a pistol?" This ended the diary reading, and Mr. Jerome turned to the witness.

From the time you first became intimate with Mr. Thaw in 1903, until the shooting of Stanford White, June 25, 1906, did you ever see anything in his condition that was irrational?" asked Mr. Jerome.

"Do you know Evelyn Nesbit Thaw?"

"Yes."

"When did you first see her?"

"Some time in 1901 or 1902."

"Where?"

"I don't remember exactly."

"Was it at your office?"

"Yes, the first time."

"You knew her before that?"

"Yes."

"Did she go to your office on Oct. 27, 1902?"

"She was there late in the year 1903, I don't remember just when."

He was shown the photographic copy of the last page of the famous affidavit, which Mr. Hummel said refreshed his memory; that he could state positively that the date on which Evelyn Thaw called at his office was October 27, 1903.

Mr. Delmas objected several times to the use of the photograph, but the court allowed the questions.

"Did Miss Nesbit have a conversation with you in your office?" asked Mr. Jerome.

"Yes," said Hummel.

"Did you dictate to a stenographer while she was present?"

"Yes," said Hummel.

Mr. Delmas again objected, saying the purpose of the cross-examination was to contradict Mrs. Thaw and he could not properly interrupt her cross-examination for that purpose.

Mr. Jerome argued the point at some length, particularly in reference to Mrs. Thaw's statement that collateral testimony was not permissible in testing the credibility of a witness.

"If I could prove Stanford White was in Europe," he declared Mr. Jerome, "that would be a collateral fact and would not be allowed to put it in evidence, but if she told Thaw in Paris that she loved him, that would be a material fact, and I should be allowed to put it in."

The affidavit contains the allegation that Thaw had been present when she told him there was no truth in the statement about White and refused to sign affidavits.

"I am not endeavoring to impeach the witness," protested Mr. Jerome, "but I want to prove the existence of an original affidavit, and to introduce the copy and intelligently continue my cross-examination."

Justice Fitzgerald overruled the objection and Mr. Hummel said he did dictate statements in the presence of Miss Nesbit.

"On the next day," asked Mr. Jerome, "did you see Stanford White?"

"Yes."

A document was shown the witness and he was asked if it was not a carbon copy of the paper returned to Mr. Delmas at once objected and was sustained by the court, it being held that the question was an attempt to introduce collateral facts brought out on cross-examination.

Mr. Jerome asked Hummel several other questions, where he gave the paper to Miss Nesbit, what became of it, and when she next went to his office, but objected.

Mr. Hummel was thereupon excused temporarily.

Archibald Snyderker who was a clerk in Hummel's office, next was called. He said he knew Evelyn Nesbit.

"Did you on October 28, 1903, see her sign a paper?" asked Mr. Jerome.

"Yes," said Snyderker.

Mr. Delmas objected to the question, the court ruled with him and Mr. Snyderker was excused for the time being.

Mr. Delmas having successfully blocked for the time being all testimony regarding the alleged affidavit, Mr. Jerome asked that Mrs. Evelyn Thaw be recalled.

When she was taken to the stand, Mr. Jerome handed her a paper and asked if from first to last it was in her handwriting.

"Yes," she replied, "it was in my handwriting."

Mr. Jerome then asked her to read an examination of the paper, smiling occasionally as she read.

Just as she was about to read the paper a diary, while Mrs. Thaw was reading, Mr. Jerome handed her a packet of letters from Mr. Lyon had been received. The letters were addressed to Clerk Penney.

Mr. Delmas objected and asked that the letters be read and turned over to the clerk. Mr. Jerome handed the packet to Mr. Penney. Justice Fitzgerald ruled that the letters be read.

They were sent on under a stipulation that they should be brought within the jurisdiction of the court.

Mrs. Thaw said the paper she had examined was all in her handwriting.

Mr. Delmas allowed the witness to answer this question he took the diary and began to read it to himself from start to finish.

Nearly 40 minutes was thus occupied, and Mr. Delmas objected, saying that Mrs. Thaw said she kept the diary while at school in Pompton, N. J., in 1902, and that she had never seen extracts from the diary. One was as follows:

"De Mille said to come in, and I jumped with the ability of a sourette."

Another read: "She has a son, but I must say it is a nice piece of work."

Mr. Jerome then read this: "My room here is neither large nor small. There is a white, virtuous bed, I took a nap, and the last thing I remember was wondering how far I am from Rector's."

Rector's really not a proper place for an innocent young person, but I had always a weakness for it."

When the stenographer turned to another page and read: "I hereby swear never to read another. But the one nice thing about Thaw is that she is not really an Angel, one of those persons who go to the good of the world."

"When one comes to think it over it is good to have lived. A girl who has been good and never had any scandal about her is fortunate in more ways than one."

"I am very susceptible and I'll soon be a weakling for good."

Mr. Jerome said that there appeared three exclamations and a pen sketch of a man. This ended the diary reading, and Mr. Jerome turned to the witness.

From the time you first became intimate with Mr. Thaw in 1903, until the shooting of Stanford White, June 25, 1906, did you ever see anything in his condition that was irrational?" asked Mr. Jerome.

"Yes," said Thaw, "I saw White several times. He was a very nice man, but I don't know what you would call it. He cried and sobbed, and bit his nails and talked rapidly."

"Did you ever see a man in an epileptic fit?"

"I have seen cats," there was considerable laughter.

"Did you ever see a man in an epileptic fit?"

"I have seen cats," there was considerable laughter.

"Well did Thaw act like that?" Prompted by Mr. Jerome, he said his body had been seized and he clapped his hands and his eyes rolled.

The next time they saw white was when he entered a box opposite them in a theater. At this time Thaw again became excited, his eyes rolled and he stared.

"Whenever he saw White, Thaw's conduct was the same."

"At this time did he carry a pistol?" This ended the diary reading, and Mr. Jerome turned to the witness.

From the time you first became intimate with Mr. Thaw in 1903, until the shooting of Stanford White, June 25, 1906, did you ever see anything in his condition that was irrational?" asked Mr. Jerome.

"Yes," said Thaw, "I saw White several times. He was a very nice man, but I don't know what you would call it. He cried and sobbed, and bit his nails and talked rapidly."

BRYCE IS PRESENTED

New Ambassador From England Delivers His Credentials.

Usual Felicitous Speeches by King's Representative and President.

Washington, Feb. 26.—The Hon. James Bryce, the ambassador from Great Britain to the United States, was presented to the president yesterday afternoon by Secretary Root. The ambassador was attended by the members of the embassy staff and the president by Col. Charles S. Brown, well and Capt. Fitzhugh Lee, his military aides. The presentation took place in the blue room and the usual felicitous speeches were made. Upon being presented, Mr. Bryce spoke as follows:

"Mr. President: I have the honor, by command of the king, my august sovereign, to deliver to you a letter accrediting me as his ambassador to the United States of America. When he entrusted to me this high mission, his majesty directed me to assure you of his earnest wish that the cordial relations which happily exist between Great Britain and the United States should be maintained and strengthened, and has impressed upon me the duty of doing whatever may be in my power for the attainment of this end. No one can be more sensible than I am of the responsibility which such a commission imposes, and however unusual to so great a task, I feel myself to it, it shall be my constant effort to discharge it in the spirit which my predecessors, all distinguished men, and true friends to the United States, sought to fulfill their duties."

"It has been my good fortune to have been frequently in this country as a private traveler and student of its institutions, to have been received in it with unfailing kindness, and to have learned not only to admire the untiring energy and the intellectual order of its inhabitants, but also to appreciate their devotion to the cause of moral and social progress, and their passionate desire to make the lives of the people worthy of the material blessings which provident Nature has bestowed upon them with so beautiful a hand. Observing how much they have in common with the nation from which I come, and how similar are many of the problems which lie before each for solution, I am led to believe that each is interested in the fortunes of the other, and that their reciprocal goodwill will be for the true benefit of both."

"I may perhaps be permitted to add that, in expressing my sincere respect for you personally, I am expressing the sentiments of my sovereign, and of his subjects, and that the cordial relations which exist between the two countries, and the important missions with which you are charged, you will find agreeable the task of contributing to the maintenance and strengthening of these relations, and the good will which happily exists between the people of the two countries."

"The responsibility which rests upon me in this regard, rests no less upon the officers of this government with whom you will have intercourse. Our two countries being inspired by the same cordial purposes, I doubt not that your mission will be as successful as I trust it will be agreeable to me. You come among us, Mr. Ambassador, not as a stranger, but as one whom our people know and esteem through long previous acquaintance with your labors as a student of the high destinies of self-governed communities, and as a friend of moral and social advancement in the paths trodden by your country and by ours. The aims of the Anglo-Saxon race, ever established throughout the world, are akin to the furtherance of the great principle of representative government and of that community of material interests, whereby the most complete stability, individual development and national prosperity may be achieved. In coming among us you but transfer your life work to new fields of practical opportunities like those for which you have labored earnestly and honorably through a useful lifetime, and I trust the continuance of your efforts in the mission to which you are called will be to the congenial to you as they are acceptable to us."

"For yourself, Mr. Ambassador, I speak a no less cordial welcome by a community than your distinguished predecessors received. I beg you to convey to your honored sovereign my cordial wishes for his personal welfare and for the prosperity of his country and his people. The ambassador and the members of his staff were in uniform."

WILL RETAIN SWING BRIDGE
Superior Interests Decide to Improve Lamborn Avenue Structure.

At a meeting held in Superior last evening, between a council committee and property owners, it was decided not to abandon the Lamborn Avenue bridge over Howard's pocket, leading to the shipyards. The committee will recommend to the council of Superior that the approach be repaired and filled in at an expense of about $300. It is estimated that the cost of installing a steam or concrete bridge over the bridge will be about $100,000. If a motor is installed to swing the bridge the expense will be increased about $400 more. It is estimated that two of the four now employed on the bridge to swing it would not be needed and that this would be a saving of about $1,000 per year. It is probable, also, that the committee there was not sufficient evidence to show that he used a knife on the Indian, but he was fined $15 and costs for third degree assault. Shelton and two Indians were in Roberts' saloon and had some words. They were put out and when they came outside the fight started and the Indian was cut over the eye with a ring that Shelton had on his finger. Peter King and Elian Caesar came down from the woods Saturday night and went on the island to have their checks cashed. They were in Roberts' saloon and in the morning Caesar said he lost $30, and that King had his money, but at the trial yesterday, before Judge Skene, the evidence was not strong enough to bind King over, so he was allowed to go free. Ben Keller came down from his father's camp Sunday to visit his mother. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Leisel left for St. Paul yesterday, and will be gone for about four days.

DECIDED ON A TECHNICALITY
Supreme Court Avoided Decision on Validity of Indian Marriages.

Washington, Feb. 26.—But for the fact that the case of Mary L. Kalyton vs. Agnes Kalyton was decided on a technicality, the supreme court of the United States would have been compelled yesterday to deal with the validity of marriages and divorces among Indians in accordance with their own customs. The case comes from Oregon and involves the contest of a sister of Mr. Kalyton, a Cayuse Indian, against the right of his daughter Agnes to land allotment on the Unalakleet reservation. The contest being based on the fact that Kalyton and the child's mother lived as husband and wife according to Indian custom. The Oregon state supreme court upheld the legitimacy of the child and awarded to her the father's property. Justice Harlan, who delivered the court's opinion, dealt with all these questions, but failed to decide them because he held that the Oregon court was without jurisdiction. He therefore practically dismissed the case. If the points are to be decided by the supreme court it will be necessary to institute proceedings in the federal courts of Oregon and bring it up through that channel.

RECOVER JEWELS.
One Woman and Five Men Nabbed in New York.
New York, Feb. 26.—Jewelry to the value of $10,000, the police say, was recovered when detectives arrested Miss Amelia Russell, 21 years old, who was taken into custody in a West Sixty-fourth street boarding house. It is alleged that the valuables were stolen from boarders in a number of rooms in the house. George Chartis, Howard Johnson, Charles Brown, John Degman and Joseph Albertini were also arrested in connection with the case. On one of the men were found pan tickets, showing that $2,000 in cash had been collected from various pawnshops. Police officials reported that much of the jewelry had been identified by persons who have recently suffered severe losses in this line. The arrests of the young woman and Chartis were made in the woman's room. Chartis, according to the detectives, broke down after his arrest and told of many robberies. He is 26 years old. He declared that under the leadership of the Russell woman he had robbed so many places he could not keep track of them.

LEAVES HER HUSBAND.
Former Wife of Congressman Buckman Quits Second Spouse.
Sauk Rapids, Minn., Feb. 26.—Married, committed to an insane asylum, and the principal in a case of desertion, are the features of the strenuous life which Mrs. John Brown, formerly Mrs. C. B. Buckman, has led during the past two or three months. Mrs. Brown left Sauk Rapids last Saturday evening ostensibly for Little Falls, but the fact is that she has gone for good and will not return to her husband.

She has gone to Everett, Wash., with her daughter, Mrs. C. W. Walling, and it is said they will make their home there. Mrs. Brown claims there is a feud between her and her husband, and that she was not mentally right when the ceremony was performed.

BOY ENDS HIS LIFE.
Chicago, Feb. 26.—A friend to tell his parents that he had been reprimanded by his teacher and laughed at by his classmates because of his inability to master the English language, Paul Herk, a Bohemian boy, 14 years old, committed suicide last night by shooting himself in the heart with a revolver. In his pockets were found two notes, one of which told of the cause.

SKIN DISEASES AND THE GENERAL HEALTH
Statistics Gathered by Specialists Show There Is No Connection Between the Two.
How little skin diseases proper are connected with a patient's general health is shown by statistics gathered recently by a number of specialists in skin disease. These—Dr. Leclaire, Dr. Dennis, Dr. S. Bristol, and Dr. D. D. Prescription—have been covering four years, and have compiled 480 cases of skin disease. Of these, 92 per cent were less than 5 per cent, were the patients afflicted with any other ailment. The other 8 per cent were perfectly healthy, no fever, no heated blood, nothing but the itching and burning of the skin. The recent conclusion of specialists that skin disease is purely an external disease, actually treated externally, and not crowding the stomach with nauseous and useless drugs.

The experiments of Dr. Dennis were further strengthened by a microscopic examination of the blood of the patients. In the 487 cases of normal persons no impurities were found. It is considered remarkable that while conservative German physicians and scientists conceived the recent discoveries, a great many doctors in this country adhered to old-fashioned notions. "Cure the skin through the skin" is now the acknowledged motto of the best skin specialists. "But how?" has been the question. "Read this!" "Last spring an eruption broke out on my wrists and extended gradually up the arms to the shoulders. It was very annoying and itched constantly. I consulted a physician, who gave me an internal medicine as well as a salve to rub on the affected portions. The treatment relieved me somewhat, but did not permanently cure, the eruption proving to be very stubborn."

"When I decided to give Dr. D. D. Prescription a trial, I immediately after applying I noticed that it helped me, and after the use of seven or eight bottles I was ENTIRELY CURED. I am 42 years of age, and have been a sufferer from skin disease for many years. I am now cured. S. Bristol, 633 Broadway, Chicago."

"Most doctors say that while using Dr. D. D. Prescription to cure the skin, it is best to wash with Dr. D. D. soap, hence practically every drug store who handles Dr. D. D. Prescription keeps Dr. D. D. Soap. We vouch for the remarkable merits of Dr. D. D. Prescription, and surely would not recommend it so highly for all forms of skin disease—from eczema to barber's itch—if we were not so CONVINCED that it will do the work. A pamphlet on skin diseases will be given away at our store to those desiring further information. If few drops STOP that itch AT ONCE! continued use cures any form of eczema, psoriasis, salt rheum, dandruff, ringworm, or other kindred skin diseases. Lyeum Pharmacy, Duluth, Minn. RESCUED A BARREL.
Woman Wanted Police to Save Man on the Ice.
Not willing to risk being censured for a lack of activity in the rescue business, the police department did their share yesterday by rescuing a barrel near the ship canal.

The report that a man was carried out on the ice last week has the people along the lake shore pretty well stirred up, and they are continually watching the ice for more human forms waving arms. "The police got in their work yesterday at the request of a woman who called up Chief Troyer and said that a man had fallen near the ship canal and was in danger. She said he was not getting up. The woman asked the police to investigate and even though Chief Troyer was quite positive there was no man in danger, he said he would send some one to the rescue. The man in a helpless condition near the canal was found to be a barrel which had floated out through the canal."

HUNDREDS OF JAPS

The Nippon Maru will leave at Honolulu. No orders were received from Washington by the local immigration officials relative to the debarring of Japanese on the Mongolia from the California shore, and after a perfunctory examination they were allowed to land.

REUNITED AT GIRL'S BIER.
John Moorehead and Son Reconciled by Death of Miss Moorehead.

Pittsburg, Feb. 26.—A reconciliation has taken place between John Moorehead, Jr., the millionaire iron manufacturer, and his son, John Alston Moorehead, former Yale halfback, who was disinherited and cast off by his father ten months ago, because he married his mother's French maid and afterward spent his honeymoon in the sanatorium as a direct result of the death of Anne Katherine Moorehead, who lost her life in the wreck on the Harlem branch of the New York Central railroad a week ago. For the first time since he was turned from home, young Moorehead met his father at the bier of his sister, and after a brief meeting, he was forgiven and restored to his former place in the family. After leaving the sanatorium, the young man, against the wishes of his father, went out once to his wife, and as the result was disinherited.

Meeting Mrs. Katherine Thomas Feeney, on the road she said: "Tom, you had better buy twenty acres of my land." "How much do you want for it?" "Two thousand dollars." "Tomorrow will you make the deed?" "All right, I'll take it," answered Feeney, and the deal was made.

Omega Oil
For Rheumatism

A good doctor says that while people are using Omega Oil for Rheumatism, they ought to drink two or three glasses of water at night and two or three more glasses in the morning. The Oil goes in through the pores, destroys the acids which cause Rheumatism, and the blood carries the destroyed acid to the kidneys, where it is filtered out. By drinking plenty of water, the kidneys are well washed out, and in this manner the rheumatic poisons are removed from the system. You have probably noted that in all sickness the simplest treatments do the most good. Nothing is simpler than drinking pure water, and rubbing the body and muscles, and joints with Omega Oil. 10c., 25c., 50c.

TREASURE FOUND

In Mexico by Shepherd Is Valued at More Than $4,000,000.

Austin, Tex., Feb. 26.—A dispatch from Durango, Mex., says that there is much excitement there over the discovery of hidden treasures to the amount of more than $4,000,000 near Corral de Majon, on the Hacienda El Ojo, in the Nombrie de Dios district of the state.

The government has sent fifty soldiers to the place to preserve order. The treasure consists of gold in ingots and coins and a large quantity of gold, together with a vast number of silver bars. The treasure is said to have been hidden at Corral de Majon by bandits many years ago.

At one time bandits were very thick and audacious throughout that district. Lines of communication were imperfect and it is argued that a treasure of this value might have been collected by a robber band and secreted without anyone being the wiser. A shepherd is said to have discovered the treasure, and to have told of his find, when steps were immediately taken to recover it.

At the time of the unusual accident, Goodwin was running at a rapid rate and when it struck the end of the train, the horse and rider were hurled into the air. Both Goodwin and the horse were killed by the impact with the train.

I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised and procured a box and used them. From the prompt, satisfactory results obtained, I can speak of them only in the highest terms of praise. ## DOCK WILL BE BUILT Council Finally Calls for Bids on Ramsey Street Structure.

Retiring Aldermen Make Farewell Speeches to Fellow Members.

In all probability the long discussed and hotly debated Ramsey street dock question is finally settled. At the meeting of the city council last evening, on a recommendation by the committee on harbors, parks and roads after considering the estimate of the city engineer, the board of public works was directed to advertise for bids for the structure and approach, and while there is a chance that on account of the contractors setting their prices too high the project may still fall through, in all probability the much talked of city dock at West Duluth will now become a reality. The city engineer estimated that the cost of dock and earth filled approach, including the expense of rip-rapping the earth approach on the bay side to keep it from washing away, at $250. The dock will be located at Portage street, between West and Ramsey street.

The retiring aldermen were asked for speeches and with the exception of Alderman Schaefer they replied. Alderman Barnes made the longest talk of the three. He had served, he said, in the city council for eight successive years. When he started out the Fifth Precinct of his ward was a western town section, and the other end of the ward was a strong temperance region, and Mr. Barnes said he did business with both ends and has been doing it ever since. He expressed his sorrow at leaving the council after so many years of continued service. "I don't ever devote one iota from the law as it appears in the statute books. If you do, you'll be a traitor to the trust imposed in you," was Alderman Barnes' parting advice to his fellow council members, and stirring applause, starting from Alderman Moore's corner, followed this declaration.

Alderman Lyb, thanked the council members for their support and friendship during his term, and the city clerk for his kindly assistance. He said the "equity" for all hands has been his motto, and he requested that Alderman Moore be appointed to succeed him as chairman of the special street committee.

On a motion by Alderman Moore, the city attorney was requested to draw up an ordinance providing that the brewers and distillers of the city should pay an annual license fee of $50. Alderman Moore stated in support of his motion that he had introduced it with a view to increase the city's revenue, the need for which was plainly shown by the list of projects which the conference committee had to turn down on account of lack of funds.

There is a state law in operation in Wisconsin providing for this tax, and providing that it shall be paid into the treasury of the various cities. With the exception of Alderman Schaefer, who voted against it, and Alderman Barnes and Lyb, who were excused because of their retirement before next meeting, all of the council voted in favor of the resolution, and Attorney Foster will submit a bill to the ordinance to the next meeting of the city council.

As requested by Alderman Lyb, the city attorney submitted a bill providing for a license for a horse-drawn carriage and for a horse-drawn carriage on all street railway lines in the state, carrying with them all privileges of power attached to the regular 5-cent rate, and also providing for the repeal of all laws pertaining to the use of such vehicles. Whether the passage of such a bill could affect the conditions here, where the company holds an ironed franchise given by the legislature, is doubtful. The Twin City company have granted a temporary injunction preventing enforcement of an ordinance of similar nature there, where the franchise makes no provision of this kind.

On a motion of Alderman McEwen, the street car company was ordered to submit to the city council a complete report of the number of cars in operation on each of its lines, the number of cash fares collected, the number of transfers, the total number of passengers carried, and the number of trips taken by each car. This was introduced in order to determine just what quality of service was being rendered by the company to its patrons.

In connection with the movement inaugurated at the last meeting for the enforcement and collection of the tax of $5 per car on all cars operating in West Duluth under the old village franchise, which since 1897 has not been collected, Alderman Barnes introduced a resolution requesting the street railway company to file with the city clerk a list of cars used daily on the West Duluth line since 1897.

Alderman Barnes said that the city attorney had advised him that this was the best way to go to the collection of the tax. City Attorney Foster said that he anticipated no trouble in collecting the tax as the street car officials had expressed surprise that the provision was in the franchise, and had had certain things pointed out to live up to all its requirements.

By a motion by Alderman Moore, the Duluth Edison Electric company, the Duluth Telephone company, and the Duluth Electric company will submit to the council a statement of their plans for the coming year, and will state when they expect to complete the work of renovating the wires from East Superior street as arranged for last year.

The board of public works was directed to circulate a petition for the paving of Second street from Seventh avenue east to Thirteenth avenue east, with a 20-foot roadway.

The situation at St. Paul during the mad dog scare there recently, when the health department officials were powerless to enforce the muzzling of dogs on account of having no ordinance to back them up, caused some investigation here and a motion was introduced last evening on Dr. Murray's recommendation, empowering the health officer at any time to enforce the muzzling of all dogs in the city.

The council also endorsed a bill for submission to the state legislature compelling all druggists to report sales of poisons immediately. This has been a city ordinance for some time and has been enforced with much strictness. It was thought best to submit it to the legislature.

Princess Nabawisic Marries Medicine Man of the Huron Tribe.

Newberry-Selmon are inhabitants of the Upper Peninsula of Michigan afforded opportunity of witnessing the marriage of one of the royal birth, but such a chance came when the Princess Nabawisic became the bride of Amable Ance, the last great medicine man of the now almost extinct Huron tribe. The marriage ceremony was performed at Pine River, a small Indian settlement twenty-five miles from St. Ignace, by the venerable Father Gengler, a Jesuit missionary.

The princess is a historic personage. For almost half a century she has proved herself a friend to the missionaries who have labored among her people. In her wedding was lacking in savage splendor for the Indians of the Lake Superior region long since discarded native costumes. However, many of the ancient customs and rites were observed. Before the vows were uttered the couple bent themselves to the Indian graveyard and over the grave of the princess' father they plighted their troth. Then followed the ceremony of the bride and groom, who they invoked in turn the north wind, the east wind, the south wind and the west wind to shower them with their choicest gifts.

After the religious ceremony came the marriage feast, at which were served all the delicacies of the forest. Then came the ancient Indian songs and dances, in the course of which the medicine man for the time threw off his years and led in the intricate figures with remarkable grace and abandon. Then followed more feasting and drinking.

Marquette—The Central Michigan Land company, a Chicago concern, which owns 2,900 acres of Michigan land, made unit for farming because of the innumerable stone stupas, started a small factory at Nolan, Roscommon county, a year ago for the manufacture of turpentine. Since that time the plant has not only produced some thousands of dollars' worth of turpentine, but has acres of heretofore useless land. The company is now putting in another plant to double its capacity and two other companies have placed orders with a Bay City company for turpentine-making machinery. The turpentine is made in much the same way that wood alcohol is extracted from hardwood stumps. It is estimated that the thousands of stumps which cover the state are now worth, for the turpentine they contain, nearly as much as were the trees thirty or forty years ago.

Menominee—Frank Beyers, watchman at the Connor Lumber company's camp at Laona, while trying to extinguish a blaze in the roundhouse, had his clothes burned from his body and was so badly injured that he died a few hours later.

Manistique—Because he is still in the land of the living, Pearl Purdy, of Sturgeon Bay, Wis., considers himself an extremely fortunate man. He is one of the divers employed by Capt. Coffey of Manistique in salvaging the cargo of the wrecked steamer Micoli on Big Summer Island. Purdy had been exceedingly narrow escape from death while at work in the hold of the vessel. He fell while engaged in getting buried who sank under the space under the boiler and engine, and was so badly injured as to shut off his supply of air and to make it impossible for him to signal. Frank Isobel, who was the unfortunate man's tender, quickly realized that something was wrong, and the crew promptly drew the submerged man to the surface feet foremost. Isobel, in imminent danger of his life, leaped into the water and cut the lines. Purdy was unconscious when rescued, but his blood was pouring from his mouth, nose and ears. A tug brought Purdy and Isobel to Manistique, where the diver was given medical attention, and the following day found him at work again.

ASSOCIATION IN SOUTH AMERICA

Y. M. C. A. Raising Funds for Support of Its Representative.

The Duluth Y. M. C. A. association is just entering upon a campaign for funds, to raise its share of the money which goes to support the field secretary and his assistant in the far off city of Buenos Ayres, Argentina. The campaign is known as the Shuman campaign and is conducted by the Shuman committee who hopes to raise the sum of $800 for this work in South America.

Six years ago, B. A. Shuman, for two years general secretary of the Duluth association, was sent to Buenos Ayres as the representative of the Minnesota associations. Mr. Shuman found the South American city to be a great field for the Y. M. C. A. work and organized an association there. This association grew and prospered six months after its first organization. It moved into new quarters, which can accommodate a membership of 700.

Three years ago funds were subscribed for the salary of a secretary to be sent from the United States as the associate of Mr. Shuman and C. J. Ewald was chosen for the position. During the past year a Spanish branch has been organized in another part of the city so that at present there are two branches of the main association—one for English speaking men and one for those who speak the language of the country.

The association at Buenos Ayres now has a total membership of 626 and during the past year the citizens of the city have successfully raised $200,000 for the erection of a new and larger building. The building committee is composed of some of the most prominent citizens of the Argentine capital and the success of the work is assured.

Last year the members and friends of the Duluth association contributed $800 toward the salary of Mr. Shuman in the South American field and a like amount has been pledged for this year. B. X. Wheeler is the chairman of the Shuman committee and the other members are T. F. Upham, George Wilson, John Brown and Alvin Bousfield.

DANGEROUS TO NEGLECT A COLD.

The danger of neglecting an ordinary cold cannot be too strongly emphasized, especially at this season of the year. The natural effect of a cold is to cause the lungs to become sore and thus render them most liable to develop acute diseases, as pneumonia, for example.

At the first indication of a cold steps should be taken to check it at once. This can readily be done by following these simple directions: Procure from the nearest drug store a half-ounce vial of Virgin Oil of Pine (Pure), two ounces of glycerine and a half pint of good whiskey. Mix well in a bottle and take a teaspoonful every four hours. A noted authority on lung trouble prescribes this formula, and claims it will break up an ordinary cold over night, and will cure any cough of a curable nature.

The necessary ingredients are inexpensive and can be purchased at any good prescription drug-gist. Care should be exercised to use only pure ingredients and to this end, it is better to purchase each separately and mix them at home. Virgin Oil of Pine (Pure) is put up for dispensing only, in half-ounce vials, each vial securely sealed in a round wooden case with an engraved wrapper showing the name—Virgin Oil of Pine (Pure), guaranteed under Food and Drug Act of June 30th, 1906, a serial number 451, prepared only by Leach Chemical Co., Cincinnati, Ohio—plainly printed thereon. The oils sold in bulk and the many cheap imitations of Virgin Oil of Pine should be avoided.

VERY SUDDEN DEATH.

Frank Vanburan of Cass Lake Dies From Heart Failure.

Cass Lake, Minn., Feb. 25.—(Special to The Herald).—Frank Vanburan, an old resident of Cass Lake, died suddenly at his home early yesterday morning. The deceased awoke at about 5 a. m. and, calling his wife, requested her to read a newspaper for him. After Mrs. Vanburan had been reading several moments, she stopped and asked her husband a question. Receiving no reply, she approached closer to him, and again repeated her question, but got no reply. She shook him, but he did not recognize her actions. Physicians were at once called, but the man was pronounced dead, the cause of death being heart failure.

Mr. Vanburan had been in failing health for some time, but his sickness did not prevent his attending to his business. The funeral will be held from the Catholic church, Wednesday morning, and the remains interred in the Cass Lake cemetery.

WEST DULUTH FINDS GOLD
NEAR SKIBO

Joseph Gauthier Makes Rich Strike on His Homestead.

The Samples Assayed Well in Gold and Silver.

Joseph Gauthier, a well-known West Duluth citizen, claims to have a rich strike of gold upon his homestead, on the Duluth & Iron Range road.

The samples, which were brought back by Mr. Gauthier showed an assay of $165 gold and silver per ton.

Gauthier located on the property, which is about twenty miles north-east of Skibo, several years ago, and has for some time been prospecting for iron ore. Considerable float ore was found, but not enough to pay to work it for the iron. During the last winter Gauthier and several companions have made a thorough investigation of the claim, and have succeeded in locating what they believe is a valuable gold vein.

After his return with his samples, last Friday, Mr. Gauthier took them to Charles F. Joyce, chemist and assayer, at Duluth, and yesterday the latter announced that the samples would run $165 per ton. He stated that there was some silver, but that the most of it was gold. Mr. Joyce said this morning that such a find was an unusual one for Northern Minnesota, and founds of the same nature had been made in the Rainy Lake region.

In case the strike of gold is found to be extensive on Mr. Gauthier's claim, and in the vicinity, a company will soon be formed to work the mine. Several business men of Duluth have already offered to furnish money for mining purposes if the gold and silver can be located in any quantity.

CO-OPERATIVE STORE.

Plans for One in West Duluth Progressing Favorably.

At a meeting of the Swedish Finns, who are pushing the project to establish a co-operative grocery store and meat market in West Duluth held at Waasa hall, an organization was perfected and an election of officers held.

Directors who will have charge of the establishment of the store were elected, and other officers were also chosen. The directors will have active control over the operation of the business after it is established. The list of officers and directors who were chosen has not yet been given out.

It is the plan of the Swedish Finns to establish the co-operative store in some building which will be centrally located where it will be handy for the people to trade. All articles of merchandise which are placed on sale will be offered at the lowest price possible and only enough profit will be made to pay the running expenses.

The promoters hope to establish the store as soon as possible, and one of them said this morning that it would be doing business by May 1.

Paid for Groceries.

Thomas Foubister has been awarded $175 by the city council for damage done to a stock of vegetables and fruit which were stored in the cellar of his grocery, 5602 Grand avenue, by the breaking of a sewer pipe some months ago. Mr. Foubister originally claimed $664, but City Attorney Bert Fesler, accompanied by William Lynch and John Loe, made an investigation and decided that the city should pay $175.

The majority of those who attended

"The District Leader" last evening, took a chance on it. The show came heralded as "a musical play with a plot," but the few who kept in close touch with theatrical affairs, saw the names of Miss Harrison and Joseph Howard in the cast, and they felt they were not running much risk of a disappointment in attending.

The District Leader is a fresh, sparkling, little comedy, with some very catchy music, a rather interesting plot, bright lines, and a very clever voice which is heard to excellent effect in the catchy music which permeates the play. Miss Harrison is a very clever young lady, with plenty of energy and vivaciousness.

The stage reporter as portrayed by Alvin K. Foster, has a most picturesque flow of language, and pulls off some rather amazing feats of strategy, but no fault is to be found with his work.

Albert Denier as Ezra Whittle from Tennessee, N. J., and Frank Weed as "The Man Who Bets" furnish some clever comedy. Mr. Weed giving a very funny imitation of a partially intoxicated man, which does not suffer from the usual fault of being overdone.

The members of the chorus were exceptionally pretty and well drilled, and the scenery was new and attractive.

Unfortunately "The District Leader" played but one night here.

GOOD BILL AT THE BIJOU.

Howard Brothers, Expert Banjoists, Head Vaudeville Program of Merit.

The Howard Brothers, the well-known and popular banjo experts, head a vaudeville bill of unusual excellence at the Bijou theater this week. They use twenty-five banjos in their act, and one of their many enjoyable stunts is called "The Flying Banjo."

The Risleys are clever acrobats, and last evening's audience was very appreciative of their efforts. George Landers is the monologue man of the week, and he manages to make good with his gags and puns. Ida Howell, shrewd comedienne, also works alone, and she makes a favorable impression with her clear, rich voice.

Colonia and Mexis have a rifle-shot act, but it is well done and gives a spice of variety to the program. Eugene Silver is warbling "Without a Wedding Ring" this week, aided by the colored slides. The moving pictures are interesting.

KNOWN AS GLOBE TROTTER, S. W. Combs, the manager of "The Little Duchess" company, which will appear at the Bijou this evening, is better known in the theatrical world as "The Globe Trotter."

He was also manager of Emma Abbott on her Australian tour, and took the "Flying Potters" under his protecting wing on their trip to South Africa.

He is one of the most interesting figures in the theatrical world at the present time.

THE STRONG MAN, Vulean, the strong man with the Colonial Belles at the Metropolitan this week, follows out very simple rules of living to keep up his great strength while on the road. Some people have an idea that a professional strong man must continually exercise, lift weights and punch bags in order to keep up the work. Mr. Vulean does nothing of the sort. He only lifts weights and all that sort of thing while he is on the stage. He says he gets plenty of that kind of exercise while working in his act. But he does take brisk walks every day. The Colonial Belles will give a matinee for ladies Thursday.

Wind From the Northwest Brings Frigid Weather Again.

Brisk northwest winds which are blowing over the city this afternoon are bringing a cold wave to Duluth and vicinity which will arrive some time this evening. The weather man expects the temperature to be about 10 below by tomorrow morning.

The northeast winds of last night gradually everted to the north this morning, and by this afternoon had got around to the northwest and colder temperatures will result. The temperature has been falling steadily since this morning and by this evening the mercury will be hovering around the zero mark.

Mr. Richardson predicts that the cold wave will last through tomorrow after which it may begin to warm up again.

The coldest place on the weather map yesterday was Port Arthur, Canada, where it was 8 below, while New Orleans with a maximum of 78 degs. was the warmest.

Butte, Mont., Feb. 26.—Returns to mid-

If the ultimatum of John D. Ryan, managing director of the Amalgamated Copper company, is carried into effect, in consequence of the demand for an increase, there will not be an Amalgamated mine in operation Tuesday night. A shut down of the mines would paralyze several dependent cities and throw 20,000 people out of work.

SUING FOR IRON LANDS

More Actions Are Started Against Ely Lake Settlers.

Several Valuable Tracts Are Involved in the Cases.

Two suits have been started in the United States circuit court, which involve the possession of several large tracts of valuable ore land near Ely lake.

Since the land near Ely lake has been found to contain iron, there has been considerable dispute over its ownership and the suits which have been started in circuit court are much the same as others which have been tried in the last few years.

William H. Murphy, Elsie H. Flinn, and Selwin Eddy are the principal plaintiffs in the cases, being the executors of the estate of S. J. Murphy, formerly of Detroit, who died in 1905. Other parties who are concerned in the case are George O. Robinson and Temple E. Dorr. The defendants in the first case are William H. Shea, Mary Shea and Elwood Raab. Judgment is asked for the possession of the lands in dispute and for $5,000 against the defendants for unlawfully withholding it.

The land in question in this case was originally owned by S. J. Murphy, George O. Robinson, E. H. Flinn and Temple E. Dorr, but after the death of the first named person it was managed jointly by the executors and S. J. Murphy's former partners. The land is situated near Ely lake and contains much valuable iron ore. The complaint alleges that William H. Shea, Mary Shea and Elwood Raab are at present in possession of the land and are withholding it unlawfully, wherefore judgment for the possession of the land and for the $5,000 damages is asked by the alleged rightful owners.

In the second suit which has been started, the same persons are named as the plaintiff and Malinda Tanner and Michael Cronin are named as the defendants. The land in dispute in this case is located near the iron pit at Sparks and extends to Ely lake. Judgment is asked in this case for the possession of the property and damages in the amount of $5,000.

An uncertainty concerning the survey of these lands is the cause of the many disputes. The department of the interior at Washington is at the present time considering two cases involving lands near Ely lake. In one there is a question whether or not the survey of the land has ever been completed, while in the other there is a dispute over the land which has been surveyed.

A case was tried some time ago which was much like the cases which have just been started. At that time an exploration company sued certain Ely Lake settlers for the possession of lands and lost out.

M. H. Stanford of this city is the attorney for Murphy, Flinn and Eddy and the others. No answer to the complaint has yet been filed.

ST. JAMES HOTEL CHANGES HANDS

Bought by Local Parties for Consideration of $64,000.

A deal involving the transfer of the St. James hotel property on the upper side of Superior street between Second and Third avenues west, was closed today, the seller being Jerome E. Maltby, a wholesale grocer of Cornish, N. Y., and the purchasers being A. C. Weiss and George W. Buck of this city. The transaction was made through the office of Stryker, Manly & Buck, and the consideration was $64,000, or on the basis of about $1,280 per front foot, including the building, which is a three-story brick building, which many years ago, and which would not little figure in affecting the ground valuation.

Mr. Maltby bought the property eleven years ago for $25,000. The property is described as lot 29, West Superior street.

NO BEER IN WORKING HOURS

But Manufacturers Upset a Long Established Custom of the Trade.

Orange, N. J., Feb. 26.—The Orange hat manufacturers have decided to put a stop to the drinking of beer in the factories during working hours and on March 1 will post notices in their several shops informing the men that they must hold their thirst in check until work for the day is done. Years ago it was the custom to allow the men in the shops to drink all the beer they wanted. Then a rule was made that beer should be drunk at certain prescribed hours. The rule will lift the numerous saloonkeepers in the neighborhood of the factories a hard blow. In some of the rooms where the process of making hats requires a hot temperature the men say they like the beer because it keeps them from getting overheated.

TAKEN BY SURPRISE

Sportsmen Did Not Expect Bill Suspending Chicken Shooting.

Planning to Ask for Tax on Each Bird Shot.

Duluth sportsmen are somewhat taken by surprise at the action of the house in passing a bill to suspend the shooting of prairie chickens and quail for two years.

Members of the Duluth Gun club, at the annual meeting held last week, prepared a petition to be sent to the legislature asking that a provision be inserted in the game laws, allowing farmers to charge a certain price for each prairie chicken or quail shot on their land.

The sportsmen thought that this would be a good means of protecting the birds and would prevent their indiscriminate slaughter.

The new bill means that there will be no chicken or quail shooting in Minnesota for two years to come. It has aroused quite a little opposition among local sportsmen, although they recognize the necessity for protecting the game, and a meeting will probably be called in the near future to protest against the measure before it passes both branches of the legislature and becomes effective.

HAPPENINGS IN THE DAKOTAS

Cowboy Breaks Up an Attempt to Lynch a Halfbreed.

NORTH DAKOTA.
Glenullin—News has been received of an attempt to lynch a halfbreed by a party of Russians, near Leipzig, in Morton county, about forty miles south of here.

The halfbreed and two or three Russians had been drinking in a blind pig. An altercation arose in which the halfbreed stabbed, and, perhaps, fatally wounded one of the Russians. The halfbreed attempted to escape, but a crowd of Russians pursued and captured him. The wretch was taken some distance out of town, tied to a small tree and the forty or more Russians, arming themselves with boulders, began to stone him. A cowboy from a South Dakota ranch rode up and attempted to interfere to save the life of the prisoner.

He fired into the crowd and wounded one man in the leg and roped another and dragged him for some distance. The remainder of the crowd came to the rescue and the cowboy had to flee to save his own life from a volley of stones thrown at him.

This diversion, it seems, eventually saved the life of the halfbreed, the counsel of older heads among the Russians finally prevailing. The man who was stabbed is still alive, but in a critical condition. Those who were injured in the attempt of the cowboy to save the prisoner were not seriously hurt and will recover.

Fargo—After making a national reputation fighting the manufacturers of impure food on the ridiculously low appropriation of $300 a year, aside from his salary, Pure Food Commissioner Ladd of this city is to be given $10,000 a year with $50 additional for traveling expenses. The legislature takes kindly to the work done by the commissioner and will back him up in the fight.

The legislature is to repeal the measure requiring counties to pay $5 for each insane person taken to the asylum at the time the person is taken and a similar amount every six months. The contention is made that as the property in all counties is taxed for the purpose of maintaining state institutions, the extra charge is unconstitutional. The asylum officials have made several efforts to enforce the law, but have been unsuccessful.

THE TRIAL OF THE STROTHERS
Culpepper, Va., Feb. 26.—At the trial of James and Philip Strother, jointly charged with the murder of William F. Bywaters, their brother-in-law, on the night of Dec. 15 last, in the circuit court today, Rev. W. J.

Ware, the minister who married Viola Strother and Bywaters, an hour before the tragedy, testified that the young bride lay ill in her bed. Mrs. Bywaters, he stated, cried continuously during the ceremony, while Bywaters was composed and answered the minister's questions in a clear firm voice. Rev. Ware stated that James Strother and Bywaters shook hands after the ceremony had been solemnized.

J. G. Lemon, the next witness, said business depression was general. The weather is such that the line will be kept open and normal traffic resumed within ten days. The line is sixty miles in length and four towns are served by it.

SOUTH DAKOTA.
Pierre—The total appropriations asked are more than $2,500,000. The total appropriation revenue is $1,500,000. A joint meeting of the appropriations committee to agree upon a general bill will be held tonight. No special yet reported or agreed upon. The deficiencies and general bill absorb the revenues. It was agreed in committee that Vermilion, Brookings and Aberdeen should each have $50,000 for new buildings. Aberdeen may get $10,000 additional.

Brookings—Alfred Nelson's hardware store was partly destroyed by fire, entailing a loss of about $1,500. The fire started in an upstairs room by a defective chimney and most of the second story was gutted. The blaze was discovered by the occupant at an adjoining building before it was fairly started, and this is probably all that saved a row of wooden buildings adjoining. The loss is partly covered by insurance.

he arrived at the Strother home soon after the shooting, and found Bywaters on the roof, just outside of the room where the two brothers had first begun firing. Bywaters, he said, appeared to be dying. Lemon stated that young Mrs. Bywaters was on her bed crying piteously. She called for brother 'Jim,' and asked him to forgive her for lying about her condition. During the recital of Lemon's testimony, James Strother showed great emotion, and tears streamed down his face.

St. Louis, Feb. 28.—Mrs. Teresa Dwyer of 411 Forest park boulevard, in her petition for divorce filed in the circuit court yesterday, alleges that her husband, Dr. Robert J. Mrs. Dwyer says that her husband, who is now in Europe, declared that she resented the attacks of her husband upon the honor of the United States and then arranged to sue for divorce.

AN INVESTIGATION

Washington, Feb. 26.—A thorough investigation is to be made by the immigration bureau of the alleged Italian padrone system, with particular reference to the importation of a large number of Greek boys into this country, who, it is said, are here in bondage. A number of special agents have been sent to New York, where they will work under the direction of a Greek inspector. This action is based upon numerous complaints from governors of states, mayors of many of the large cities, and other interested persons and societies. The charge is made that Italian padrones import Greek boys to New York city and then distribute them throughout the country to work as bootblacks, who, it is alleged, are required to work for nothing, save their keep, for the first year. It is understood that the Greek government is lending its good offices in an endeavor to break up the traffic in these boys. It is possible, also, that a special agent will be sent to Greece, in order to secure evidence against the men who are behind the padrone system, who are said to carry on their operations in New York.

Monster Dredge Will be Launched in Duluth Next Week.

Will Scoop Twelve to Fourteen Cubic Yards at Each Dip.

Are Let by the Duluth, Missabe & Northern Road.

New Structure is to be Erected at West Duluth.

The first part of next week the largest dredge in the world will be launched from Napoleon Grignon's shipyard at Sixth avenue west. The big craft has been in course of construction all winter and is now almost ready to be slid into her native element.

The dredge is being built by Napoleon Grignon for the Duluth-Superior Dredging company on contract, and she will cost when complete about $160,000. The big dredge built by this company last year, and now in commission on the power canal of the St. Lawrence River Power company at Massena, N. Y., was when built, the biggest dipper dredge afloat, but this new craft will be five feet longer. While she will have the same size dipper, scooping up from twelve to fourteen yards at a dip, she will have engines of 1,000-horse power as compared to the 500-horse power on the smaller dredge, and will be more powerful in every way. The dredge is built by the yard and is now in its extreme capacity when level full from two to four yards extra are usually included in every dipperful.

The hull of the dredge will be 120 feet in length, her beam will be forty-three feet and when in position for work she will draw about fifteen feet of water. The big dipper will dig to a depth of forty feet, and there is but one other dredge on the lakes, the one at work at Massena, which can dig deeper than thirty feet.

In connection with the dredge two large steel dump scows will be used, 150x40 feet each, with a capacity of 1,000 yards a piece, and these big crafts are now at the building at Manitowish. Dry Dock company's plant. The pocket doors of the scows will be operated by steam, a new department, which will be in operation by the end of the month.

The big dredge will be put in the water during the early part of next week, and while she is not complete as yet, will be ready for work long before the opening of navigation. As the Duluth-Superior Dredge company has considerable work to be done in the local harbor this summer, the dredge will be in use here for this year at least. The name for the big craft has not yet been decided upon, but she will be christened with all the formality of a big ocean liner.

The Duluth Social club is in the limelight and, as a consequence, it is rumored that a number of the well known men about the city are anxious as to the effect that it will have on the question of their being able to explain matters at home, that they may attend the meetings in the future and indulge in harmless and amusing pursuits that are supposed to occur in the club rooms.

Attention was directed toward the club and its alleged operations this morning when Jacob Matson, a Lake avenue saloonkeeper, filed a default judgment for $3,362.50 in the district court, against John G. Howard. The amount represents, it is alleged, Matson's losses and the winnings which he did not get after indulging in a game of poker for money.

The papers show that the summons default complaint were served on Mr. Howard Feb. 5, but that he did not make answer within the twenty days allowed by law, default judgment, then being taken by Whipple & Greene, attorney for Matson.

Jacob Matson claims that John G. Howard is in possession of two basement rooms in the Torrey building on Superior street, which he maintains are used for gaming purposes, where poker is played for money.

Mr. Matson claims that a number of persons known as the Duluth Social club have keys to the place, and that it is a resort for the members to play poker for stakes more substantial than for drinks and cigars.

BILL LOOKING TO WOMAN SUFFRAGE IS GENTLY PUT TO SLEEP BY THE HOUSE

Indefinitely Postponed After Numerous Bursts of Eloquence.

New Iron Ore Tax Bill Introduced in the House.

Duluth Men Summoned to Appear Before the Committee.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

St. Paul, Feb. 27.—(Special to The Herald.)—The house this morning, gently but firmly, put its foot upon a proposition to let the men of the state vote at the next general election on the question of extending the right of voting to women. The bill proposing a constitutional amendment, providing for women's suffrage, introduced by Representative Higgins, prohibitionist, was indefinitely postponed by a vote of 62 to 38, after it had been made the occasion for numerous bursts of oratory from believers on both sides of the question. Representative Hicks of Minneapolis said nobody wanted the bill, not even the women, and Representative Tighe of St. Paul wondered how he knew so much about what people want. As to the women not wanting it, he had no doubt that prior to the war the negroes would have voted, if they had had a chance, to stay in slavery.

Representative H. O. Borge of Lake Park and H. H. Jefferson of Bingham Lake, this morning introduced a joint tonnage tax bill, substituting it for others introduced by each. It provides that all "tonnage ore," meaning

$2,000,000 GIFT FOR WISCONSIN

Millionaires Plan to Present Great Site for New Capitol.

Madison, Wis., Feb. 27.—One of the most noteworthy public gifts in history will be made to Wisconsin when, if present plans are carried out, a group of millionaires purchase the business center of this city, wreck the present houses and hotels, and turn the whole tract of six square blocks into a park, the center of which will be the state's new $5,000,000 capitol.

The purchase of the land desired will cost approximately $2,000,000. All of the land needed, except two tracts, has been secured by the group. The price of that which has already been secured is $1,600,000.

DEFENSE OF BYWATERS

Will be Justification Under the "Unwritten Law."

Killed Brother-in-Law an Hour After Marriage.

Culpepper, Va., Feb. 27.—On whether James and Philip Strother, indicted for the murder of William F. Bywaters, their brother-in-law, on the night of Dec. 15, last, can clearly show justification under the "unwritten law," now hinges on the strength of the testimony introduced by the witnesses in their defense, begun with the opening of the circuit court here today. With the closing of the state's case yesterday afternoon, the defense announced that Mrs. Viola Bywaters, the bride of an hour, in the protection of whose honor the two brothers declare they killed Bywaters, would be their opening witness today.

Aside from the Strother brothers, the interest in the trial has centered largely in Mrs. Bywaters' presence on the witness stand. Her continued illness has accentuated this interest to such an extent that Judge Harrison was compelled to enforce the arbitrary rule of denying admission to the court to any except those directly connected with the proceedings of the trial. Instead of the limited space of the courtroom being occupied by friends of the Strother and Bywaters families,

LOWER FARE, NO PASSES

Senate Passes Two-Cent Fare and Anti-Pass Bills.

The Bill Creating County Boards of Education is Killed.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

St. Paul, Feb. 27.—(Special to The Herald.)—The senate, in a session lasting more than three hours, put through the Peterson two-cent fare bill and the anti-pass bill, rejecting all amendments that were offered, including the 25-cent compromise, the proposal of which was forecasted exclusively by The Herald.

The 2-cent fare bill becomes effective June 1, if passed by the house, and the anti-pass bill is effective as soon as it becomes a law, so that if the house takes prompt action, lawmakers who came down on passes will pay fare home—or walk.

Though both houses have passed 2-cent fare bills, the end is not yet.

The house passed a bill first, and many of its members are inclined to be worried because the senate did not accept the house bill and put it through instead of the Peterson senate bill.

Beyond doubt a 2-cent fare will go to the governor for his signature, which will be given promptly, but it has yet to be settled whether it will be the

KING OPENS NEW PRISON

Built on the Site of the Famous "Old Bailey."

London, Feb. 27.—The new Central criminal court, erected on the site of the historic old Newgate prison, commonly known as the Old Bailey, was opened today by King Edward, who was accompanied by Queen Alexandra. The function was a semi-state affair and considerable ceremony was observed. The streets traversed by the royal procession were decorated with bunting and lined by large crowds of people. The lord mayor and the sheriffs in their robes of state met their majesties at Temple Bar, where the lord mayor presented the king with the city sword, symbolical of handing over the defense of the city to his majesty while he remained within the boundaries. In a pavilion in front of the portico of the new session house an address was presented to the king, who replied and declared the building open. Their majesties subsequently inspected the interior of the courthouse, the corner stone of which was laid in 1862. It is an imposing structure with a frontage on the thoroughfare known as the Old Bailey, of 257 feet and 142 feet on Newgate street. The dome is 195 feet high and the whole building cost $1,500,000. This street corner, in the center of the city, has been the site of prisons since 1188, and for more than a century Newgate was the scene of all the public executions, until the private execution act of 1868 ended the gruesome spectacles.

HARRIMAN DECLINES

To Answer Many of Questions of Commission's Counsel.

Rulings by Board Make No Difference to Him.

New York, Feb. 27.—Just before adjournment, last evening, Mr. Kellogg of counsel for the government said that he had only a few more questions to put to Mr. Harriman, but that he would prefer they go over until today, as the hearing had already been prolonged until a late hour. Mr. Harriman at first demurred, but on Mr. Kellogg's assurance that he would only be detained a few minutes today, adjournment was taken with that understanding. Mr. Harriman took the witness chair at a little after 10 o'clock.

Mr. Harriman, in answer to Mr. Kellogg, testified that the Union Pacific had purchased the St. Joseph & Grand Island since last year. The price paid was $2,022,000, and the witness had owned the property and sold it to the Union Pacific. Objection was made to questions as to when he bought the stock of the St. Joseph & Grand Island and what he paid for it, and the witness declined to answer.

CASTRO MAKING GOOD PROGRESS

Venezuelan Legation at Washington Gets Good News From Home.

Washington, Feb. 27.—According to a letter received at the Venezuelan legation today from Dr. Paul, secretary of state, dated Feb. 16, the surgeons had made a complete examination of President Castro and found that he was making progress, the wound caused by an operation healing in a satisfactory manner. The information is confirmatory of the cable advices received at the legation several days ago.

The same letter gives the details of the killing of Mr. Paredes, the revolutionary leader, and his followers, the statement being made that after they were taken to an old fortress called the Casaca near the Orinoco river not very far from where they landed, they were killed. Two days later Paredes endeavored to bribe his guards to permit them to escape, and this the guards interpreted as mutiny "with terrible results for the life of Gen. Paredes and his men, and ended unhappily for the latter for their mutiny."

RAILROAD OWNERSHIP

By Government Will be an Accomplished Fact in Time.

Senator Patterson Strongly Advocates the Acquisition of Railroads.

Washington, Feb. 27.—Predicting that government ownership of railroads will be an accomplished fact within the lifetime of present members of the senate, yet not anticipating speedy action in that direction, Senator Patterson of Colorado today made an exhaustive presentation of the subject in advocacy of government ownership. Mr. Patterson's remarks were predicated on a bill recently introduced by him, providing for the acquisition of the railroads of the country by the government.

Regardless of the efforts of congress to regulate the railroads, "the power and purpose of the great railroad combinations have not changed," asserted Mr. Patterson. "They have increased in power and aggressiveness and in utter indifference to public rights."

The railroad rate law he regarded as presenting little promise of relief. This legislation, he contended, was for political reasons, it is claimed, interferes with the public famine relief, and prosecutes those who open free eating rooms. Similar protests are being made at Kazan.

The representatives from the Caucasus famine now include the districts of Mingrelia, Guria, Imeria, Yellabul and Erivan. Subscriptions are being organized here, and the dispatches announcing the opening of subscriptions in America.

SECRETARY TO HERMANN

Called to Tell of Details in Land Commissioner's Office.

Washington, Feb. 27.—On the resumption of the trial of Representative Binger Hermann of Oregon today for the alleged destruction of public documents, while he was commissioner of the general land office, Elliot P. Hough, former private secretary to Commissioner Hermann, was recalled to the stand further to describe the details of the work in the commissioner's office. Letters were submitted to him by District Attorney Baker for identification and for determination as to the manner in which they were handled in the office. Objection was made by the defendant to the introduction of matters of this kind under the guise of evidence, and the letters were among those which were copied in the letter press books alleged to have been destroyed by Hermann.

OUTBREAK IN SIBERIA

Strict Discipline Causes Convicts to Rise in Revolt.

High Political Offenders Have Been Placed in Chains.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 27.—Disorders have broken out among the convicts at the Akatui silver mines in Southern Siberia, on account of the strict discipline. One hundred and fifty high political offenders have been placed in chains, and many, including Mlle. Maria Spiridonova, who shot and killed Chief of the Secret Police Luzhenofsky, at Tambov, and other women, have been removed to prisons for the confinement of common criminals. Among the prisoners at Akatui mines are Sisonoff, the assassin of Minister of the Interior Von Plehve; Sikorsky, his accomplice, and Karpovich, who killed Minister of Public Instruction Bogolypoff, Feb. 27, 1901, and the leaders of many military uprisings.

The members of parliament-elect from Nizhni-Novgorod met yesterday and drew up a strong protest against the provincial administration which, for political reasons, it is claimed, interferes with the public famine relief, and prosecutes those who open free eating rooms. Similar protests are being made at Kazan.

The representatives from the Caucasus famine now include the districts of Mingrelia, Guria, Imeria, Yellabul and Erivan. Subscriptions are being organized here, and the dispatches announcing the opening of subscriptions in America.

Worried Greatly Over Disappearance of $173,000 From Sub-Treasury.

Chicago, Feb. 27.—George W. Fitzgerald, the teller in the subtreasury from whose cage $173,000 disappeared, has been given an indefinite leave of absence by the authorities of the subtreasury. It is said that Fitzgerald has worried so much since the shortage of the money whose writings touched the common heart of humanity. The best to relieve him from work until he has in a measure recovered from the nervous strain.

JEROME FAILS TO PHASE DR. EVANS, THE ALIENIST, BY CROSS-EXAMINATION

Many Objections by Delmas Are Sustained by the Court.

Mrs. Thaw Recalled by Jerome for Short Examination.

The Defense Expects to Conclude Its Side This Week.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

New York, Feb. 27.—Five minutes before court opened for the Thaw trial today Evelyn Nesbit Thaw entered the court room accompanied by Mr. Delmas, and took a seat at the end of the table occupied by the defendant's counsel, next to the chair occupied by her husband. While waiting for the trial to go on she chatted with Dr. Gracie Hammond, one of the defense's alienists, and Mrs. J. J. Caine, who occupied a seat close to her.

Immediately after court convened Mr. O'Reilly of counsel for Thaw led Mrs. Thaw and Mrs. Caine from the room. Mrs. Thaw did not get a chance to speak to her husband. Mr. Jerome then stated that he had overlooked a question on opening his cross-examination of Mrs. Thaw and asked that she be recalled for a few questions, stating that it was not merely a matter affecting the credibility of the witness, but a matter which he might wish to attempt to controvert on rebuttal, and he wished to lay the foundation for such action by calling her attention to the matter. Mrs. Thaw was therefore recalled.

By his first question Mr. Jerome inquired that he intends to call Howard Nesbit to the witness stand to contradict his sister. The prosecution is allowed to contradict traversable or material facts, but cannot controvert collateral facts. Mrs. Thaw was therefore recalled.

"Did you see your brother at Marlon, Mass. after your return from Europe in 1897?"

"I did not," replied Mrs. Thaw.

"Where did you see him?"

"In New York."

"Did you not tell him in substance that while you were abroad you had been brutally abused by Thaw, who had tried to induce you to tell lies about Mr. White to the effect that Mr. White had drugged and seduced you, which statements you then and there told your brother were false?"

"I did not."

"Did he not ask you if you feared violence, and you said you did and he said you should arm yourself for protection?"

"I remember no such conversation."

"Did he not say you should have a revolver?"

"He did not."

"Did he not buy you a revolver?"

"Didn't you give him money to buy you a revolver?"

"I did not."

"That is all," said Mr. Jerome.

Mrs. Thaw stepped down and left the room.

Dr. Charles Bingham of Pittsburgh, the Thaw family physician, followed Mrs. Thaw on the stand. Under the guidance of Mr. Delmas he told of seeing Thaw on Nov. 16, 1903, at which time he was

AMMONIA KILLS TWO

Two Firemen Meet Death by Fumes in a Cellar.

Several Others in Serious Condition and May Die.

New York, Feb. 27.—Two firemen were killed and eleven others rendered unconscious by fumes at a fire today in a basement of a building in Eight avenue. The condition of the others is serious.

The dead are:

ADAM DAMM.

HARRY F. BAKER.

Damm and Baker had carried a pipe through the basement and into an opening leading to a sub-cellar, when they called for water pressure. However, when other firemen reached them to assist in directing the hose upon the flames, Damm and Baker were not to be seen. Ammonia fumes poured up through the hole and filled the basement.

The fire had melted the coupling on the hose, and the hose was pulled up from the hole with difficulty. They died soon afterwards. Each of the rescuers succumbed on reaching the other air. Roll call revealed the fact that Capt. Bernard Carlock was down in the hole where he had gone in search of victims of the fumes, and he was brought to the surface. It is believed that he will not recover.

LATE DOINGS IN UPPER MICHIGAN

Brakeman Joseph Barry Crushed to Death While Coupling Cars.

Marquette, Mich., Feb. 25.—Caught between two cars as he was making a coupling, Joseph Barry, aged 26, of this city, was crushed to death last night. He was employed as a brakeman on the Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic railroad.

Sault Ste. Marie.—The authorities have discovered a scheme to defraud by the "washing" of quarter-dollar pieces with gold and passing them as $10 gold pieces. This was first noticed by banks, the resemblance being so close that the average person takes the money without examining. The gold quarters are being circulated in large numbers at stations along the railroad, but there is no clue yet to the guilty persons.

Sault Ste. Marie political circles have been somewhat agitated by a rumor that Postmaster William Webster would be an active candidate for mayor on the Republican ticket at the coming spring election. What gives credence to the story is the fact that on a number of occasions Mr. Webster has made the statement to friends that after he had retired from his position as postmaster he would like to finish out his unexpired term as mayor. Mr. Webster was elected mayor in the spring of 1897; in September of that year he was appointed postmaster, but continued to act as mayor until the time his commission expired. Mr. Webster is now postmaster.

Bessemer.—It is the understanding that the federal inspector who has checked up the accounts of Postmaster R. J. Bowden of Bessemer has found a shortage of $1,822, and that this amount has been paid over to the government by its bondsmen. The whereabouts of Bowden are unknown, although it is reported he is in Florida.

Gladstone.—Many citizens of Gladstone think that the waters of Little Bay de Noc should be closed to commercial fishing. They argue that the results frequently in accumulations of undigested material in the intestines that cause swellings and formations of gas attended by discomfort and even great suffering.

Unless the matter is corrected by changing the manner of eating and the composition of the food, a person may be forced to have an operation performed which might have been avoided. "Ten years ago," writes an Iowa woman, "my stomach began to bother me. After suffering a few months I went to our family physician and he told me it was indigestion and I kept getting worse until about six months later the doctor told me I had a growth in my stomach and an operation would be necessary. I was unwilling as to that, however, and so was left almost a wreck, too miserable at times, to live."

Shortly after that I happened to see a testimonial about Grape-Nuts food in our paper and decided to try it and I have kept at it. It may seem wonderful but today I can eat almost anything with a relish and no bad effects. Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Grape-Nuts, as a regular food, builds up the body by reason of its easy digestion and absorption, and because it contains all there is in fine whole wheat and barley, so thoroughly prepared as to meet the demands of Nature for a tissue-repairing and energy-making food.

Many a case of appendicitis has its beginning in starch indigestion, and many a case of indigestion has been cured by the regular daily use of Grape-Nuts. "There's a Reason." Read the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.

WEST DULUTH IS GOING TO SUPERIOR

Carlton County Business Is Being Diverted From Duluth.

Necessity of New Road to Wrenshall Is Apparent.

Asserting that the citizens of Superior are doing all in their power to divert the trade of the Carlton county farmers from West Duluth to their own city, F. B. McLeran of Carlton, secretary of the Carlton County Good Roads association, is urging West Duluth people to attend the meeting of the association on March 2, at Wrenshall.

Mr. McLeran has sent a communication to a prominent West Duluthian, who is interested in the good roads movement, in which he says that unless West Duluth people get busy at the next meeting of the farmers, the Superior people will stand a good show of getting the business of the Carlton county people.

He says that there will be a large delegation at the meeting from Superior, and they are going to boom the new road between Superior and Wrenshall.

The Superior people, he says, have already nearly completed this road, and have raised a sufficient sum of money to finish it this spring, and they will tell the Wrenshall farmers that the route to Superior is much better than the one to West Duluth, via Fond du Lac.

On the strength of this, he says, they will make an attempt to bring the farmers to Superior instead of Duluth.

In his communication, Mr. McLeran urges the West Duluth people to send a delegation to the meeting at Wrenshall, and says that a number of good speakers should be included in the party. The matter will be taken up before the West Duluth Commercial club at the meeting Friday evening.

MEETING OF FORESTERS.

Two Degrees Exemplified On New Members by Degree Team.

A regular meeting of St. James Court, No. 614, C. O. F., was held last evening at Gilley's hall and as there was a good attendance it was an interesting session. After the regular business of the order had been transacted Chief Ranger Martin gave a short talk on matters pertaining to the order.

The recently organized degree team, which has several new members and some new paraphernalia, was in evidence last evening and two degrees of the order were exemplified on a number of candidates. It is the intention of the degree team to visit other courts of the order in the city and confer degrees on a class of candidates.

Since the big initiation ceremonies of last December when a big addition in the membership was made, the members have taken renewed interest in the order and new recruits are constantly being secured.

Poor Show for The Dyspeptic

Poisoned Stomach, Clogged Brain, Wavering Ambition, Failure—Unless He Seizes His Opportunity.

There's no good reason for any man's remaining a dyspeptic—a burden to himself and family, when he should be a producer.

There's only one reason why he has become a dyspeptic and that is because he has overworked his stomach so that it cannot secrete the juices and work the muscles necessary to digest the food.

Failure Staring Him in the Face.

What the dyspeptic must do is to help the stomach out. It is full of a poisonous pile of fermenting, nauseating food. Instead of being assimilated and carried by the blood to make nerve and muscle and rebuild the waste tissues, it lies there inactive.

First, take an unrelenting cathartic and get rid of this food.

Second, get a 50-cent package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets from any druggist and take one at each meal and at bedtime. The tablet will do the digesting while the stomach remains inactive. Before the box is gone, your stomach will be vastly relieved if not cured. Why? Because Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets contain the very elements which your stomach possessed when it was healthy—pepsin, diastase, golden soil and others.

It was because your stomach kept losing its supply of these digestive ferments that you became dyspeptic. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets do the work simply, surely, and without injury. They are not a medicine, but the working out of a scientific principle upon the food you eat.

Hundreds of sufferers in far worse condition than you have been have been cured of dyspepsia by these wonderful little tablets. Forty thousand physicians in the United States and Canada recommend them.

If you are uncertain and wish further proof, send us your name and address today for a free trial package, which we will gladly mail you at once. F. A. Stuart Co., 74 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

RAILROADS NEW RATES ANNOUNCED

Minnesota Express Companies Agree to Big Reduction.

Milwaukee Road Cuts Out Further Wisconsin Improvements.

Seven express companies doing business in the state of Minnesota have announced their willingness to accept the revised schedule of rates proposed by the railroad and warehouse commission.

The schedule is a complicated table, but there is an average reduction under the present rate of about 25 per cent provided for. The companies accepting the schedule are the Wells-Fargo, American, Northern, Great Northern, Western, Adams and the United States.

The new schedule equalizes rates and wipes out many discriminations, but makes some everywhere, applying only to rates between Minnesota points.

Discrimination between different classes of business is corrected somewhat. The reduction is only 10 per cent on some lines, but is as high as 50 per cent on others.

WILL NOT BUILD.

Wisconsin Legislation Arouses Ire of Milwaukee Road Officials.

Some of the railroad companies are making the claim that they will not make improvements which were planned for Wisconsin this year on account of the persistence with which state and national legislation is being sought against the railroads.

The Milwaukee road has announced that the proposed extension of the line from Berlin to Wausau will not be built because of such legislation. Officials say that the new schedule of rates for railway companies to encourage in any new enterprises would now in progress would not have been made under the present conditions.

ELECTRIC RAILWAY

Connections Being Planned Between Park Rapids and Itasca State Park.

Park Rapids, Minn., Feb. 27.—If the plans of business men of this place do not mature, another year will see Park Rapids connected with the Itasca state park by an electric railway. The distance from here to the park is twenty-two miles, and the waterpower at Potato Lake, if harnessed, is amply sufficient for the generation of the required electric current.

It is believed by the promoters and business men generally that such a road would enormously increase the tourist traffic to the park. At present it is so inconvenient to reach Itasca park that few but the most determined visitors are able to undergo the hardships.

The plan, which would also make the proposal to establish a school of forestry here much feasible.

A fight ensued in which the latter received fatal wounds.

ACTIVITY IN COPPER GIANT

Good Ore is Being Taken Out of Both Shafts.

The following extract from the Tucson, Ariz., Star of Feb. 21, will be of interest to stockholders of the Calumet & Arizona and the Copper Creek mining companies.

"From Mrs. John H. Rose of Mammoth, the Star learns that there is great activity at the present time in the Bunker Hill district, located north of Mammoth. The Calumet & Arizona is working twenty-five men on the Copper Giant group of claims. The drill is down 1,000 feet, in good ore. On another claim the shaft is down 150 feet all in ore. The tunnel on the big reef of ore on the Copper Giant is likewise in ore. Ore has been found in all of the developments of the Calumet & Arizona. An adjoining group of mines is likewise being developed, with results similar to those at the Copper Giant camp. The Copper Giant camp is located twelve miles north of Mammoth, with a good road within two miles of the camp, which requires but two miles of traffic over a rugged canyon, which will be opened as soon as a good road is made, which joins the Calumet & Arizona being driven. Drifts in the shaft are being run on ore bodies. The Copper Giant camp is a perfect hive of industry. Good ore is being taken out of both shafts in large quantities. The tunnel, which it is expected will strike the ore body within 100 feet, is being worked night and day. The apex of the vein above the face of the tunnel will be about 500 feet. Shipments of ore will probably be made from the Copper Giant during next month."

Duluth people who purchased stock in the Calumet & Arizona five years ago at par, now worth twenty times par value, after having paid dividends for three times its cost now have an opportunity of buying stock in the Copper Creek mines at par.

Edwin Clark, representing the latter company, predicts as rapid an advance in price of stock in his company in less than five years.

The Copper Creek company made selections of over 500 acres, on which they have done a large amount of development work, equipping the mines with buildings, engines, pumps, air compressors, air drills, telephone line, etc., before the entrance of the Calumet & Arizona into this new district.

Mr. Clark is stopping at the Spaulding and will be pleased to meet anyone interested in copper.

ADMITTS NURSES WERE TOO ROUGH

Investigation of Complaint Against Nurses in St. Peter Hospital.

St. Paul, Feb. 27.—The state board of nursing has completed an investigation into the injuries sustained by Archibald Honeyman, a patient in the state hospital for the insane at St. Peter.

It has been alleged rough handling by the nurses of the hospital was the cause of Honeyman's injuries.

The board has received all the facts in the case, and Supt. H. A. Tomlinson of the hospital has instructed the nurses to be more careful with patients in the future.

On the night of Dec. 7 Honeyman was taken to the hospital. He was violent, and during the night trussed and attempted to attack a patient in an adjoining bed.

Honeyman could not calm the man, and called for help.

Other nurses came to his aid and the man was finally overpowered. He fought and struggled, however, and when the struggle was over it was discovered that Honeyman had sustained two broken ribs, a number of bruises, and a number of abrasions.

Dr. Tomlinson states in his letter to the board that the nurses were somewhat rough with the patient, but that they were not able to quiet him, as he fought desperately.

SECOND IN ONE MONTH

Another Cutting Scrape on Second Street in West Duluth.

Long Postponed Sheehan Trial is Held—Sentence Postponed.

With an ugly cut extending from one shoulder point across his back to his waist to attest that he was not the only participant in the scrap, Kid Komasa was arraigned in the municipal court this morning charged with disorderly conduct.

Komasa was arrested on a warrant sworn out by Mattak, the Finnish saloonkeeper on Raleigh street in West Duluth, which stated that he had participated in a general rough house in the saloon there Monday night in which knives were drawn, considerable property was hurled about, and the furniture and reputation of the saloon in question damaged to no small degree. The scrap was general but Komasa was the only one of the participants who could be located or whose name was known to the saloonkeeper or the police, so he was the only one arrested up to noon today.

This is the second serious cutting affair within a month in the Second street district, and that region is rapidly developing a most unenviable reputation.

Komasa pleaded not guilty to the disorderly conduct charge and his trial was set for 10 o'clock a. m. on Friday.

The case of the state against Wilfred Sheehan, after many postponements, came up this morning before Judge Windom. Sheehan got into a tussle with Hugh Brown one of his companions, in the kitchen of the Delicatessen restaurant early in January, and both boys had knives in their hands while wrestling. the floor Sheehan's knife entered Brown's abdomen, causing injuries which, for a time, were thought fatal. This is the first time that the injured boy was able to appear at the trial since the accident.

County Attorney John Norton withdrew the charge of second degree assault which the state had introduced against Sheehan, and substituted one of simple assault. The prisoner pleaded guilty to this.

The judge suspended sentence for six months, intimating that if during that time Sheehan showed a tendency to keep out of scraps of this kind he might be extremely lenient.

Charging him with trespass, Mrs. Jeanette Bechtel yesterday swore out a warrant for the arrest of Andrew Thompson, and Mr. Thompson was arraigned this morning in municipal court. According to Mrs. Bechtel's story, Thompson used to be a friend of the family but of late he has been coming to the Bechtel residence with altogether too great frequency and has made himself a general nuisance. Mr. Thompson pleaded not guilty to the charge, and his trial will be held at 10 o'clock tomorrow.

Erick Pyykko, the boardinghouse-keeper charged with indecent assault by one of his domestics was fined $11 and costs yesterday afternoon.

MANY CASES ARE FILED

Last Day for Getting Notes of Issue on Record.

Calendar for March Term of Court Goes to Printer.

As this was the last day for the filing of notes of issue for civil cases to be tried at the March term of the district court, there was quite a rush of attorneys to the office of the clerk of the court to get their cases noted before the calendar is made up and placed in the hands of the printer.

About a dozen cases had been filed up to this noon and it was expected that fully as many more would be filed this afternoon.

At the rate that the personal injury cases have been noted for trial the indications are that there will be a large number of that class of cases for trial during the March term.

Besides the personal injury cases there are many other suits of various nature, from divorce actions to damage cases.

Patrick Hines has started two suits against the Duluth, Rainy Lake & Winnipeg company and the Minnesota Land & Construction company. In the first case Mr. Hines alleges that during the summer of 1906 he hired out a contractor's outfit to the construction company, for which he was to receive $1 per day in compensation. He claims that by Jan. 1, 1907, the construction company had the outfit 111 days, for which it owed Mr. Hines $111, but which amount the company is reported to have refused to pay. Judgment is asked for that amount, with interests and costs.

In the second case Mr. Hines alleges that the railroad and construction company have converted into their own use and scattered along the railway line, a large number of articles of personal property belonging to a contractor's outfit which Hines claims to own. Mr. Hines claims that by reason of the conversion and detention of the property he has been damaged in the sum of $3,400. H. B. Fryberger represents Hines in both cases.

Edward Ahonen of Chisholm has instituted a suit against Herman Tetzlaff to recover judgment alleged to be due for the removing and converting to his own use a dwelling house situated at the foot of Chestnut street, Chisholm, valued at about $300. Ahonen demands $800 damages. C. R. Woods is his attorney.

The notes of issue in two divorce cases were filed today, the complaints withheld. The cases are Piroche Quinlan against George W. Quinlan and Augusta Johnson against William S. Johnson.

Herman Mattson demands $1,905.55 damages from the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha Railway company for a crushed foot and ankle, received in being run over by a flat car loaded with iron July 6 last. Mattson claims he was employed as a section hand in repairing the tracks and that he was riding with others on the flat car, when he was thrown off and under the wheels by reason of the speed of the car. His attorney is John Jensvold, Jr.

The Oliver Iron Mining company has sued for $40,000 by Tom Jackson, who claims that he was made partially blind by a premature explosion in some stripping work at Hibbing. Jackson claims that the man who fired the charges was incompetent, and was not a fit man to be in charge of explosive work. John Jensvold is Jackson's attorney.

Patrick H. Kelly, as administrator of the estate of Rikka Maria Kelly, deceased, has sued the Duluth & Iron Range Railway company for $5,000, on account of an accident at the railroad crossing, Sixtieth avenue west, in which Rikka Kelly is alleged to have been run over and fatally injured by a train, July 15 last. It is claimed that the train was running at high speed, and that no warning signal was given. John Jensvold is attorney for the administrator.

John G. Rose, administrator of the estate of Martin Jedlovski, deceased, has sued the Interstate Iron company for $5,000 damages, on account of Jedlovski's death by accident in the Lincoln mine, May 11, 1906. It is claimed that Jedlovski was buried and crushed under a quantity of ore and rock that was loosened from the walls of a drift by the blasting in the mine. A. Anderson, W. E. Whipple and W. E. Greene are the attorneys for the administrator.

Nestor Sahsten demands $5,000 damages from the Oliver Iron Mining company for injuries to his head, body and limbs, received while unloading a car in the Mountain Iron mine. W. E. Culkin and W. E. Whipple are Sahsten's attorneys.

As administrator for the estate of Charles Baum, deceased, John G. Rose has sued the City of Duluth and the Street Railway company for $5,000 each for the accidental death of Baum, Oct. 4 last. Baum's rig was struck by a car at Ramsey street and Fifty-second avenue west, and he was thrown under the car and killed. The administrator claims that Baum was unable to see the car approaching until it was very close to him, and that by reason of some excitement and filing the city had been doing, he was unable to turn his rig out of the way quick enough to avoid the collision. The administrator holds both the street railway company and the city responsible for Baum's death. S. A. Anderson, W. E. Whipple and W. E. Greene are his attorneys.

The Duluth & Iron Range Railway company has been sued for $10,000 by

W. S. Bell, who claims to have been injured by a train at the railroad bridge over the Cloquet river, Bell alleges that he was climbing upon the bridge, and assisting a companion to get on the structure, when he was struck by the engine and hurled into the water. He claims that the bridge had been in common use for workmen to cross the river, and that the engineer did not give a warning signal or attempt to stop the train. S. A. Anderson, W. E. Whipple and W. E. Greene represent Bell.

SUING FOR DAMAGES

Three Personal Injury Suits Filed in Federal Court.

Plaintiffs Ask Total of $13,000 for Their Injuries.

Complaints were filed today in the United States district court in three suits against the Cloquet Iron Mining company for damages for personal injuries. The cases were recently transferred from the district to the federal court and will be tried at the next term of federal court.

In one of the cases Martin Linden is suing the company for $5,000 for a broken ankle and other bones of the right leg, which the complaint alleges were caused by a fall from a ladder while Linden was working in the company's mine at Nashauk, last May 17. The ladder was situated in a dark shaft of the mine, and it is alleged the accident was due wholly to the negligence of the company in not providing a safe place for Linden to work.

Jalma Heino is suing the same company for damages, amounting to $3,000, for injuries claimed to have been received in the same mine last Nov. 27. He was passing along a new level in the mine, of which he knew nothing, and fell down a shaft, a distance of forty feet. Two ribs were broken and his eyesight badly impaired.

The third case has been brought by Charles Maki, who wants $5,000 damages for a broken wrist and severe injuries to his back and hip. The complaint in this case alleges that Maki was working in an open pit, and after finishing his work on Nov. 23, started for his boarding house and fell off the narrow path of the pit. He fell clear to the bottom of the pit, and the complaint alleges that the company is responsible, as there was no railing on the path.

Victor L. Power of the firm of Power & Power of Hibbing is conducting the three cases for Linden, Heino and Maki. The company has as yet filed no answers.

NO MISTAKE IN BOOKS.

The $173,000 Was Stolen From the Sub-Treasury at Chicago.

Chicago, Feb. 27.—Sub-Treasurer William Beldenweck announced today that Deputy Assistant Sub-Treasurer Bantz had completed his examination of the books of Teller Fitzgerald and had proved beyond a doubt that the $173,000 was stolen. There is no mistake in Fitzgerald's accounts, and the error can not be accounted for through any mistake in the bookkeeping. Mr. Beldenweck added:

"The money stolen was in large bills, and Mr. Fitzgerald was the only man in charge of these bills. We have, however, no clue to the person who took the money."

INCIDENT

IS CLOSED

County Board Receives and Files Letter From McManus.

Also Hears Several Tax
Petitions and Defers Action.

Aside from the receiving and filing of A. E. McManus' communication to the county commissioners relative to a resolution passed by the county board at its session held earlier this month, there was little of general interest in the proceedings of yesterday afternoon.

As has been previously stated, Mr. McManus denied that he made any disparaging remarks concerning the commissioners but that his criticism was directed toward "the system" in vogue under the present state laws for the expenditure of county road funds. Mr. McManus said he had no apology to offer and thought there was one due him from the board. He also gave some figures concerning the road appropriations for the past ten years and insisted that more good roads should have been built for the money.

After the communication was read, Commissioner Kauppi expressed himself emphatically as to his opinion of Mr. McManus' statements and suggested that the letter be put in the waste basket. Mr. Kauppi contended that the commissioners have acted to the best of their judgment in the expenditure of road funds and that St. Louis county has now more and better roads than the surrounding counties. He claimed that on account of the new county, the nature of the soil, forests, rocks, swamps and quicksands road building in this county has been attended with greater expense than it would be in a prairie country. He invited the members of the board to take a trip over the county roads and ventured the opinion that they would find it difficult to believe what had been accomplished. Mr. Kauppi remarked that Mr. McManus has built no roads and, therefore, does not know what he is talking about when he attempts to give figures as to what the roads should cost. He claimed that during the past season he spent four months away from his business looking after the road work personally, and that he was $300 out of pocket by so doing.

Chairman Patterson said that he had talked with a number of persons and found that they did not think favorably of the statements made by Mr. McManus. Mr. Patterson thought it was a waste of time for the board to pay any more attention to the matter.

So far as the county board is concerned the McManus incident is regarded as closed.

The board heard a number of petitions asking for the tax abatements but took no further action than to refer them to the county auditor for consideration. The meeting will be held the first week in March.

The board directed a dismissal of the charges against Charles Radquist and Tobias Gustafson on the payment of $200 and $200 respectively, in settlement of all claims against the young men.

Flower & French were granted a license to sell liquor in the township of French.

The county attorney was instructed to draw up a resolution to present the members in legislation from St. Louis county asking that the state appropriate $5,000 to aid the Duluth branch of the state laboratory. A communication on the subject was received from Dr. Bruken of the state board of health.

By resolution of Commissioner Kauppi, the board appropriated $150 for a bridge over the Swan river on the Nelson's creek on the Miller Trunk road.

Dr. Edward L. Tuohy of this city was appointed a board of health at a monthly salary of $20.

Mrs. Alice Pierce gave the board notice of an appeal to the district court from the dissolution of her claim of $25 for gravel taken from her farm for county road purposes.

TO SLEEP WELL.

There's a Way and There's a Reason.

Step is "Tired Nature's Sweet Restorer." It builds up and repairs the wear and tear of the day's work. Without sleep the human machine soon wears out.

A N. Y. City lady writes: "My husband and I were moderate coffee drinkers, both of us being so very fond of the beverage that we continued it long after we discovered that it was the cause of much suffering from sleepless nights and nervous exhaustion. We tried to give it up, first by reducing our allowance to one cup a day; then we managed to give it up altogether for a few days. But the craving returned and we went back to the coffee and the sleeplessness and nervous trouble.

"Then, reading the advertisement of Postum Food Coffee, I bought a package and began using it. My husband was skeptical and refused to try it. However, he noticed that I was sleeping better, and one morning declared that he envied me my good slumber. I told him I believed it was Postum that was helping me, and poured him out a cup to taste. He drank two cups and left his coffee untried and from that time has used Postum exclusively, and he cannot praise the miraculous power of Postum Food Coffee too highly. It has not only brought us sound, refreshing sleep, and taken away our nervous exhaustion, but we have found that usually all the breakfast we need can be made on Grape-Nuts and Postum Food Coffee. We have been following this simple morning diet for some time, and feel the best beneficial results from it. I shall be glad to verify these statements at any time, as we both feel that you are doing a lot of good in explaining to people the effects of coffee and how to easily be rid of them."

highway, and none the less so because constructed and maintained through the agency of a corporation, deriving its existence and powers from the state. Such a corporation was created for public purposes. It performs a function of the state.

Upon the fact that railroads exercise a function of the government," he said, depends the rights of the people with regard to the ownership and operation of the roads.

Mr. Patterson presented a table, showing the attitude of sixty-four counties towards railroads. In these government ownership obtains to a greater or less extent in fifty-nine, and is exclusive in twenty-nine. Private ownership obtains in thirty-six, and exclusive in five. This, Mr. Patterson said, shows that the construction and ownership of railroads is really the business of governments, as three-fourths of the democracies and two-thirds of the monarchies of the world own railroads.

The United States government, Mr. Patterson maintained, could acquire existing railroads by condemnation proceedings under the post road clause. He supported this contention also by supreme court decisions. Not only the roads, but their corporate franchises, he said, could thus be acquired by condemnation.

As to compensation, Mr. Patterson contended that the stock and bondholders of the roads ought to be paid full value for their holdings. The value of all American roads, he placed at between $11,000,000,000 and $12,000,000,000. His suggestion for financing the government's purchase of the roads was by a mortgage backed by government guarantee, which would work out by the government and bondholders exchanging their holdings for government bonds. He believed this exchange would be so attractive as to secure the government practically all private railroad holdings.

The idea that government ownership of the roads would result in a political machine by the combination of the employees was scouted by Mr. Patterson. At the same time he admitted that change should be made in methods of management. Rates should be fixed by the interstate commerce commission, a division of transportation should be established to conduct the actual operation of the roads. The reforms that would follow would be large economies to the freight shipper and reduction of the passenger rates.

It would permit of extending the postal system and establishing a quick express. It would guarantee the adoption of all known safety appliances and the best signal systems. Service pensions would be paid employees and new and needed lines could be built. Railway politics would be abolished and equilibrium of power between the state and the government and the people restored. Reforms in rate making by adopting the zone system, and in freight classification would result.

Government ownership need not, he said, prevent private construction of roads.

answer, and there was the usual formal refusal.

The witness said the St. Joseph & Grand Island was not a parcel and competing line.

Mr. Kellogg asked of whom the New York Central stocks acquired by Harriman said they were bought in the open market.

Were you or any of your associates interested in the sale at the time of the Union Pacific purchase pursued Mr. Harriman?

Mr. Milburn objected and Mr. Harriman declined to answer.

Mr. Kellogg asked the witness if it was not a fact that the $22,000,000 said to have been spent on the Chicago & Alton, $2,740,000 on the Chicago & North Western, and $1,000,000 loan from Kuhn, Loeb & Co., so that the expenditures on the line out of the new securities sold were about $18,000,000.

Mr. Harriman said that possibly the figures were correct. He simply knew that $22,000,000 had been spent on the line.

The witness was then excused and Otto Kahn of Kuhn, Loeb & Co. took the stand.

DEFENSE OF BYWATERS

as has been the case up to today, when Judge Harriman announced the court session, on the court officers, the official counsel and newspaper representatives were present.

Mrs. Bywaters will be accompanied to court this morning by her sister, Mrs. Edward L. Gaines, who has been with her constantly since the enactment of the Strother homestead, located four miles from Cupepper. Her severe illness has resulted in a witness position in the case.

Mrs. Bywaters' testimony has been expected to generally follow that given at the coroner's inquest last December, treating of her relations with Bywaters, beginning three years ago, when they were regarded as engaged lovers, up to the enactment of the tragedy which resulted in the death of her husband.

The scene in her bedroom when the marriage ceremony was being solemnized by Rev. J. A. Ware, the Episcopal minister who testified yesterday, was to be re-enacted in her own story, followed by her statement as to whether the fleeing Bywaters intended to leave her or not that night, as has been declared by her brothers, or whether in her mind he intended to give her the protection due from a husband.

Mrs. Bywaters will be questioned by Commonwealth Attorney J. A. C. Keith and Capt. Michael Wood, his associate, who rely solely upon their ability to shatter the justification plan made by her brothers, through her story to the jury.

When the morning session convened, the expectation was that her married sister, Mrs. Gaines, and James and Philip Strother, the defendants, would be called to testify either today or tomorrow.

very nervous and melancholy. He was sleeping and eating very little, and seemed very much changed from his former self. He was known to his friends in childhood, and he was formerly a buoyant nature.

On Aug. 17, 1906, the witness called on Thaw in the Toms and again saw him on Sept. 11.

He was not sleeping well and was nervous. He had delusions, and was that there were conspiracies against him, having as their object either his ruin or the ruin of an enemy.

Mr. Delmas was about to lay a foundation for the questioning of Dr. Bin-

Spring Medicine

The best is Hood's Sarsaparilla. It is the best because it does the most good. While it makes the blood pure, fresh and lively, it tones the stomach to better digestion, creates an appetite, stimulates the kidneys and liver, gives new brain, nerve and digestive strength. An unequalled list of cures—40,366 testimonials in two years—proves its merit.

Sarsaparilla—For those who prefer medicine in tablet form, Hood's Sarsaparilla is now put up in the usual tablet form. Sarsaparilla has been found to be the same curative properties as the liquid form, besides accuracy of dose, convenience, economy—there being no loss by evaporation, leakage, or leakage. Sold by druggists or sent by mail. U. S. Pat. No. 1,111,111. Lowell, Mass.

GUARANTEED under the Food and Drugs Act, June 30, 1906. No. 324.

IS AFTER NEW EXTENSIONS

McEwen Has Plan to Make Traction Company Build Lines.

The city council is going after the Duluth street railway company on a new tack.

Alderman W. E. McEwen is the originator of the new method of attack, and his plan is as follows: First, get an enumerator to report to the council the number of people who would be benefited by a street car service on the outskirts of the city; second, get the city engineer to make a map of the route, which would serve the most people; and finally, make the street car company go ahead and build the line.

Should the findings of the enumerator show that a line could be constructed on a reasonably paying basis, an extension on East Eighth street, and one on Piedmont avenue west to the boulevard, will be considered. A line to Proctor, running parallel to the tracks of the Duluth, Missabe & Northern, so as not to interfere with the franchise of the Duluth Belt Line Railway company, now operating in West Duluth, is also being planned. The long-discussed Lake avenue belt line, proposed by Thomas Leary twenty years ago, will also be thoroughly looked into during the course of Alderman McEwen's campaign.

Alderman McEwen said yesterday that he intended starting the ball in motion as soon as the council was thoroughly reorganized, and that with all the power they wanted available, through the Great Northern Power company, the city could give the kind of service demanded.

ENGINEERS TO DO WORK

President Makes Radical Departure in Building of Canal.

Work Will be Under Supervision of Army Officers.

Washington, Feb. 27.—By an order addressed to the isthmian canal commission yesterday President Roosevelt, as far as lay in his power, under existing law, transferred to the engineer branch of the army the responsibility for the further construction of the Panama canal. He also, in the same order, which took the form of a letter addressed to the chairman of the commission, Mr. Shonts, himself about to retire from all connection with the enterprise, formally recorded the abandonment, for the present at least, of the project of having the canal work done by contract on the percentage system. Another feature of the order was the announcement of the resignation of Mr. Stevens as engineer in charge of the Panama canal, which he is to resign at once, and will, it is expected, formally resign that office.

The intention of the president is that there shall be an entire reorganization of the commission, with the chief engineers of the engineer corps, its leading members, who are to have charge of the engineering, the canal shall proceed. The chairman and engineer in chief of the commission will be Mr. G. W. Goethals, and his associates will be Maj. D. D. Gaillard and Maj. William L. Slichter, both of the regular army. These officers are all comparatively young, energetic and members of the corps.

The reorganization is to become effective immediately upon confirmation and retirement of the old commission. Senator Joseph S. Blackburn of Kentucky, who retired from the United States senate on March 4, is to be made a member of the new commission. The nominations of the present commission now pending before the senate include Messrs. Stevens, Haines, Endicott, Jerrard, Gorgas and Jackson Smith. The president is desired in order to remove all doubts as to the legality of certain acts they have performed in connection with the making of contracts. The retirement of Messrs. Shonts and Stevens will leave two more vacancies, so that there will be two more retirements necessary to make way for the three new members. Senator Blackburn, as he told his colleagues today, the president is determined that the work on the canal shall proceed continuously and thoroughly and the "discontinuity" which has been the result of the resignations of higher officials will not be allowed to interfere with the work.

The president is unaware of the specific reasons which have been advanced in prompting Mr. Stevens' resignation. It surprised him very much, for as late as the middle of December, when he was here, Mr. Stevens made no mention of his wish to retire, and in connection with the making of contracts, the retirement of Messrs. Shonts and Stevens will leave two more vacancies, so that there will be two more retirements necessary to make way for the three new members. Senator Blackburn, as he told his colleagues today, the president is determined that the work on the canal shall proceed continuously and thoroughly and the "discontinuity" which has been the result of the resignations of higher officials will not be allowed to interfere with the work.

It is understood that Mr. Stevens is leaving the government's service to accept a position in connection with a great engineering enterprise in this country at an annual salary of $100,000. Mr. Stevens has now received from the government. His friends contend that he has, by a year and a half, personally expended with the work, removed all doubts as to the feasibility of the canal, and that the Panama canal in accordance with the plans upon which the work is now progressing. The organization of the new commission, they say, is excellent, and the president in his letter pronounced his satisfaction. Mr. Stevens is said to believe that he can now terminate his connection with this great enterprise without in any way jeopardizing its success.

For several weeks it has been rumored here that Mr. Stevens was dissatisfied with the plan of letting the canal work out by contract, but, as explained by a member of the cabinet, the president proposed to the president the adoption of this method of constructing the canal. One of the reasons advanced for the president for abandoning the project was that its author was about to leave the government. After Maj. Goethals and his army associates have been at the isthmus a sufficient time to become fully acquainted with the work to be done, they will submit a report on the situation to the president. If they feel that the work can be better done by contract than under the system now in vogue, the president will again be considered by the president, and he says in his letter pronounced his satisfaction. Mr. Stevens is said to believe that he can now terminate his connection with this great enterprise without in any way jeopardizing its success.

In Fire Which Destroyed Hocholager School at Montreal.

Montreal, Feb. 27.—Principal Maxwell of the Hocholager school, a Protestant school, which broke out yesterday afternoon in the Hocholager school of the Protestant school commission, which is located in a brick two-story building in the East end of the city and was attended by about 200 children whose parents are mechanics, living in the neighborhood. The fire started from the furnace and was first noticed by workmen employed nearby. The teachers were notified and the work of getting the children out of the building was begun. The kindergarten department was located on the second floor, and it was here that the loss of life occurred. The children were started out, but on reaching the landing found the lower hall full of smoke. Into this they refused to descend though the way at this time was safe. Huddled together on the stairway, first, they retreated to the rooms from which they had come. When the firemen arrived, and extension ladder was placed in position and a large number of the children were rescued in this way. Assisting in the work was Miss Maxwell, the principal, who was making its way upward and the smoke was growing so dense that even the experienced firemen could not stand it. Capt. Carson tried to get Miss Maxwell to go down the ladder, but she refused and evaded the attempt to detain her. She rushed back into the back part of the building in chase of other little ones. When the firemen were finally able to find their way to the back portion of the building she was found lying on the floor with a little one beside her. All those who perished died from asphyxiation. The building was unprovided with fire escapes.

The brothers followed each other in everything. Both served as judges of the county court, and both served in the state legislature. On the breaking out of the war both went into service for the Union as captains and came out as colonels. Each made a name for himself in the war and both were members of the Baptist church.

Those who took part in it were Mr. and Mrs. Freund, Kidney, the two young women and Pastor Holter of St. Paul's Lutheran church.

Miss Van Buskirk insisted that Kidney had asked her to be his wife and had given her a ring to seal his promise. Kidney explained that the ring was simply a gift. He declared he had always liked Miss Van Buskirk, but simply as a friend. The conference didn't wind up until after midnight.

Mrs. Freund, Miss Hattie's mother, said: When Miss Van Buskirk was here last night she said she loved Kidney because he was so pretty and worshiped the ground he walked on. It seems to me she is rather silly over him. We are very sorry all this has happened, and I regret the notoriety it has brought us. The wedding will take place tomorrow night.

MUSIC AND THE DRAMA

TONIGHT'S ATTRACTIONS.

THE LITTLE DUCHESS.

Is Quite Favorably Received on Its Return to Lyceum.

"The Little Duchess" with Countess Olga von Hatzfeldt in the title role was well received by a fair sized audience at the Lyceum last evening. The audience seemed very well pleased with the production, even though it was a disappointment to those who had seen Anna Held in the same comedy.

Countess Olga as Flo Herry, "The Little Duchess," does very well and is particularly the part of the bathing master sings well and Irving Brooks as the German comedian is perfectly funny. The members of the chorus are pretty and the singing at a whole sounds very well.

Some catchy songs introduced at intervals during the performance pleased the audience and the imitations done by "The Little Duchess" made a decided hit.

Although the costume is not what it was in the days of Anna Held's production of the comedy, the show is well worth seeing any evening. There will be an after performance tonight.

DRAWING GOOD CROWDS.

The Colonial Belles, with their splendid entertainment, have been pleasing large audiences at the Metropolitan this week.

On Tuesday afternoon the attendance was much larger than is usual at a Tuesday matinee and everyone enjoyed the show.

Causing much comment about town, so did its act. This troupe recently ended a most successful engagement at the New York Hippodrome. The Colonial Belles will give a matinee for ladies at the "Met" tomorrow.

ACT IS BIG HIT.

The Howard brothers with their novel act "The Flying Lancers" are the big hit of an excellent bill at the Bijou this week.

Flames and Water Ruined All Rest of Widow's Goods.

Philadelphia, Feb. 27.—After the firemen had pumped a couple of hundred gallons of water on the ruins of a little three-roomed house in Mureus place, Mrs. Anna Knapp, 65 years old, a widow, who lived alone in the house, went rummaging about the debris. Everything she owned had been reduced to ashes, she said. Not a thing remained of her few belongings.

But in turning over a heap of ashes, Mrs. Knapp came upon an object which caused the good woman to fall upon her knees in tears amid the ruins of her home and offer up a prayer. The object she had found was a Bible.

"It was the only thing which escaped the fire," said Mrs. Knapp. "At first I found it I went carefully over the ruins, but not another object escaped the flames. And the Bible was not harmed. The fire was everywhere. Then the water was turned on every point. But the book came through it all. It was not touched by fire nor was it wet by the water."

house bill or the senate bill, and there may be something of a reaction over this death which is absolutely no loss to the people, but apparently of much interest to the legislators.

The 2-cent bill was first considered by the senate yesterday, and the first thing that came up was the 2-cent amendment to the Peterson bill.

For a maximum rate of 2½ cents a mile, and required the railroads to issue 2000 Ohio the railroads said to issue 2000 mile books at 2 cents a mile.

any road in the state, and 50-mile books good on the road issuing them for the members of the purchaser's family. The 200-mile books were limited to one year, but there was no limit on the family book.

Senator Hardy, in moving the adoption of his amendment, said that the Wisconsin railroad and warehouse commission, which had been set up by the legislature, had put in nearly a year investigating the passenger rate of the railroads, and had come up with a report that a 2-cent rate would be unfair for Wisconsin, and he thought that it was unfair for that state to be certain was for this state.

Senator George P. Wilson of Minnesota made the principal talk for the amendment, directing his remarks principally against the 2-cent bill. He said the Hardy amendment was a compromise measure, and it should have careful consideration. It provided that the rate must be set within ten days, and if they did not there would still be ample time for the passage of a 2-cent bill.

The speaker said he was not interested in any capacity with any railroad, but he was convinced that the passage of a 2-cent bill would be a tremendous error. Two cents is not a reasonable rate for this state, and the legislature should not pass it. It might be a reasonable rate in New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio, where the population is dense, but it is a reasonable rate there it cannot be reasonable in Minnesota. It is a reasonable rate there it cannot be reasonable in Minnesota. It is a reasonable rate there it cannot be reasonable in Minnesota.

road committee they would not ask a 2-cent bill.

The pending bill applies to all railroads, and not all are situated alike. It might be fair for some and unfair for others.

Railroad men say they don't make a dollar out of passenger business at 2 cents a mile, and there is no reason to doubt them. If 2 cents is not a reasonable rate for any single road, it is unconstitutional as to all of them, and the roads will walk through it, as though it were an open door.

NORTHWEST HAS COLD SNAP

Temperature Today is Hovering Around Zero Point.

The temperature this morning was not quite as severe as Duluth people expected it would be, although a brisk wind from the northeast made the weather very uncomfortable. The government thermometer at 7 o'clock registered 4 below zero, and the temperature has remained about stationary all day.

Forecasters Richardson predicts that the condition for the next twenty-four hours will remain about the same as they are today. The wind this morning was from the northeast and was blowing at the rate of about thirty miles an hour.

The cold wave is very general over the Northwest, and in Canada is even more apparent than in the United States. Nearly all points in Canada and the northern part of North Dakota report below zero temperatures this morning.

There is an area of low pressure which is central over Utah, and if this should move northeasterly toward Minnesota, the cold spell will not last long.

The specialist agrees to perform such an operation on the baboon as will bleach the entire skin of the face and neck, tattoo rosy cheeks on the ape, reshape its nose, fill its cheek hollows, fill out and remove the scowling frowns in its forehead, raise slightly the corners of its mouth, modify its chin bones, increase its growth of hair and produce a decided "part" through the same, and reshape its ears.

HOLDS SKIDDOO TITLE.

Born Feb. 23, Weighs 23 Pounds and Parents Each 23.

Waterbury, Conn., Feb. 27.—By a collection of claims almost stupendous in the aggregate, Charles Augustus Bauby, born on Saturday afternoon, holds title as the original skiddoo kid. In him is concentrated the essence of skiddoo, beside which the vivid speech of the highway is as nothing.

Note the qualifications bestowed upon him at his advent: He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Bauby, each of whom is 23 years old. He was born on Feb. 23 and he astounded the attending physicians by weighing twenty-three pounds. His father rushed to the savings bank to make a nest egg and deposited $23 in his son's name. He told the treasurer that the new arrival had went twenty-three times within the first hour of his existence.

CHIPPEWA INDIANS

In Washington to Present Land Troubles to the President.

Washington, Feb. 27.—Chief Flatmouth, Simon Donga and five other prominent Indians in the council of the Chippewas, of Minnesota, arrived here yesterday. They came to present several grievances to the "Great Father" and Commissioner Leupp, of the Indian office.

The Indians claim that there are hundreds of thousands of dollars due their people for the sale of timber and their lands, and they want a distribution of tribal funds. Last summer they entered into a contract with Judge W. B. Matthews of Washington, to become their attorney, but the interior department has thus far failed to ratify their selection.

Women Who Wear Well.

It is astonishing how great a change a few years of married life often make in the appearance and disposition of many women. The freshness, the charm, the brilliancy vanish like the bloom from a flower which is rudely handled. The matron is only a dim shadow, a faint echo of the charming maiden. Few young women appreciate the shock of the system through the change which comes with marriage and motherhood. Many neglect to deal with the unpleasant pelvic drains and weaknesses which too often come with marriage and motherhood, not understanding that this secret drain is robbing the cheek of its freshness and the form of its fairness.

As surely as the general health suffers when there is derangement of the health of the delicate womanly organs, so surely when these organs are established in health the face and form at once witness to the fact in renewed comeliness. More than a million women have found health and happiness in the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It makes weak women strong and sick women well. Ingredients on label—contains no alcohol or harmful habit-forming drugs. It is made wholly of those native, American, medicinal roots most highly recommended by leading medical authorities of all the several schools of practice for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments.

For nursing mothers, or for those broken-down in health by too frequent bearing of children, also for the expectant mothers, to prepare the system for the coming of baby and make its advent easy and almost painless, there is no medicine quite so good as "Favorite Prescription." It can do no harm in any condition of the system. It is a most potent invigorating tonic and strengthening nerve, nicely adapted to woman's delicate system by a physician of large experience in the treatment of woman's peculiar ailments.

Bad Symptoms. The woman who has periodical headaches, backache, sees imaginary dark spots or specks floating or dancing before her eyes, has nervous distress or heavy full feeling in stomach, faint spells, dragging-down feeling in lower abdominal or pelvic region, easily startled or excited, irregular or painful periods, with or without pelvic catarrh, is suffering from weaknesses and derangements that should have early attention. Not all of above symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.

Neglected or badly treated and such cases often run into maladies which demand the surgeon's knife if they do not result fatally.

No medicine extant has such a long and numerous record of cures in such cases as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. No medicine has such a professional endorsement of each of its several ingredients—worth more than any number of ordinary non-professional testimonials. The very best ingredients known to medical science for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments enter into its composition. No alcohol, harmful, or habit-forming drug is to be found in the list of its ingredients printed on each bottle-wrapper and attested under oath as complete and correct.

In any condition of the female system Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription can do only good—never harm. Its whole effect is to strengthen, invigorate and regulate the whole female system and especially the pelvic organs. When these are deranged in function or affected by disease, the stomach and other organs of digestion become sympathetically deranged, the nerves are weakened, and a long list of bad, unpleasant symptoms follow. Too much must not be expected of the "Favorite Prescription." It will not perform miracles; will not cure tumors—no medicine will. It will often prevent them, if taken in time, and thus the operating table and the surgeon's knife may be avoided.

Doctor's All Agree. The most eminent writers on Materia Medica, whose works are consulted as authorities by physicians of all the different schools of practice, extol, in the most positive terms, the curative virtues of each and every ingredient entering into Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. In fact it is the only medicine, put up for sale through druggists for the cure of all diseases of the mucous surfaces, as nasal catarrh, throat, laryngeal, and bronchial affections attended by lingering, or hang-on-coughs that has any such professional endorsement—worth more than any amount of lay or non-professional testimonials.

Do not expect too much from the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It will not work miracles. It will not cure consumption in its advanced stages. No medicine will. Nor is the "Discovery" so good for a sudden attack of acute cough, but for the lingering, obstinate, hang-on-coughs, accompanying catarrh, throat, laryngeal and bronchial affections. In cases of chronic catarrh, it is a most valuable remedy, accompanied with wasting of flesh, night sweats, weak stomach and poor digestion with faulty assimilation, and which, if neglected or badly treated are apt to lead to consumption. The "Discovery" has proven wonderfully successful in effecting cures.

The formula is printed on every wrapper of "Golden Medical Discovery," attested as to correctness under oath, and you can't afford to accept any substitute of unknown composition for this non-secret remedy no matter what selfish interests may prompt the dealer to urge such upon you. In fact it is an insult to your intelligence for him to do so. You know what you want and it is his place to supply that want.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the original "Little Liver Pills" first put up by old Dr. Pierce over 40 years ago. Much imitated, but never equalled. They cleanse, invigorate and regulate the stomach, liver and bowels, curing biliousness and constipation. Little sugar-coated granules—easy to take as candy.

Dr. Pierce may be consulted by letter free of charge. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Medical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser (1000 pages) is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps for paper-covered, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound copy. Address Dr. Pierce as above.

JAIL GIRL FOR 45-CENT DEBT

She is Charged With Obtaining Groceries by False Pretences.

Gadsden, Ala., Feb. 27.—The sentencing of Miss Grace Robinson twelve days in jail and to pay a fine of $10, by W. D. Adams, a justice of the peace of Alabama city, has created a great stir here.

Miss Robinson is a refined and educated young woman, 19 years old, who resides with her parents in Alabama City. The charge against her is obtaining goods under false pretence, having bought 45 cents worth of groceries from a merchant in Alabama City.

The story she tells follows: "My mother, 8-year-old sister, father and myself moved to Gadsden from Ensley in October. My father secured a position at the steel plant, where he is now working. He is addicted to drink; he does not provide for the family. He is also cruel in his treatment toward me.

"In November last, while we were buying groceries from Mr. Boutwell, the monthly bill was not paid, and he notified us that we could get no more supplies until the bill was paid.

"A few days after my mother went to the store and informed Mr. Boutwell that there were sufficient checks at the house to pay him, and that she would send for more groceries. Mother sent me to the store and I bought some goods, amounting to 45 cents. When Mr. Boutwell called for the checks my mother informed him that they had already been paid to a furniture dealer whom we owed. My arrest followed on a charge of obtaining goods under false pretence.

"The young woman attended the girls' industrial school at Montevallo, where she worked to pay her way through the school, and she has also taught school in Mount county.

The jail officials are showing the unfortunate girl every courtesy, and have allowed her the freedom of the entire building and grounds.

WANT LAW AMENDED A PET CAT

Herring Should Not be Included in Closed Season Law.

Duluth Fishermen Are Dissatisfied With the Present Conditions.

Commercial fishermen of Duluth and other towns along the north shore of Lake Superior have taken a decided attitude against a law which has been in force during the last two years, which closes the north shore fishing industry for a month and a half, from October to December, and they will use their influence with the legislature to have the measure amended.

At a recent meeting of the men engaged in this business the law was thoroughly discussed by the members, and it was the sense of the meeting that it did not give the north shore fishermen a fair chance when it closes the fishing season for a month and a half in the fall. The fishermen will make an attempt to secure the co-operation of the Duluth Commercial club in getting the law amended, and the matter will probably be discussed at the next meeting of the latter club.

When the law was passed the legislature had for its purpose in closing the fishing season from the middle of October to December the preservation of the whitefish of Lake Superior, which are said to be decreasing rapidly in numbers. It was claimed that there was a closed season the whitefish and trout would have a much better chance to hold their own and there would be less of a decrease.

As there was no closed season on the south shore, in Wisconsin territory, the Minnesota law had little effect. The Duluth fishermen claim that there are few whitefish caught in the winter or fall months in the north shore waters and that very few would be caught even though there was no closed season.

The fishermen needed prompt attention for the entire repeal of the closed season rule, however, but are only asking that the measure should be amended so that it would not include herring. Whitefish and trout fishing is not good during the closed season anyway, and the fishermen are protesting their protest for herring there would be little danger of filling it with anything but the last named fish.

If the Commercial club will co-operate with the fishermen's association, the latter favoring the amendment, the law will probably be drawn up in the near future, and sent to the Duluth delegation at the state legislature.

PROVES IT IS STILL MIZZOURA

Gus Thomas Says No Legislative Act Can Change It.

St. Louis, Feb. 27.—Missouri is shaken from center to rim by the agitation over the pronunciation of the state's name. It is crowding Ann's age as a universal problem. Faultless and divided, age-long friends quarrel and argument rages day and night over the use or non-use of the double "z." Augustus Thomas, the dramatist, who wrote "In Mizouri," had his attention called to the proposal to regulate by law the pronunciation by eliminating the "z."

"In my opinion the movement was started by the women of the state," he said. "The legislature of Arkansas some years ago proclaimed by statute that the name of the state should be pronounced Arkansas, and the word of that law was probably just penetrated the Ozark range, and reached some of the more timid counties in Missouri. Despite the impulse of legislation, the same necessity for legislative action does not exist in this state of Missouri.

Arkansas was quiet for years, under the most liberal pronunciation of the name, until a Northern historian tried to make the word Arkansas rhyme with "apple sass," upon which attempt the local amour propre naturally demanded statutory legislation.

The word Missouri was pronounced by the older men of authority, including Senator Thomas Benton and Gov. Francis Pickens, and by Mark Twain in the days not long ago, and to white folks and when he was still partial to dark women, he was of the old school charts it was spelled with the double "z."

"The rising sound of the double 's' in its pronunciation came in with the Boston school teachers in the late '80s, and I remember deputations of parents protesting against the imported pronunciation.

"The true pronunciation of the name is safe from corruption by any logicians. It lies securely in the custody of native Missouri mythology and habits. The fair pronunciation of the lower teeth of a determined population produces the 'z' sound, and the 'z' sound is 's' for the third syllable is more agreeable than that of 'c' to the comparative sensibilities of the Irish citizen.

"I believe that the effect of the proposed pronunciation upon a true Missourian would recall an early editorial of the London Times, which read: 'The cattle information that the legislature of Wisconsin demonstrates against the queen's policy in Ireland has expected no little geographical curiosity.'"

Mr. Thomas was the first president of the Missouri society of New York.

HATPIN IN- A PET CAT

Nine-Inch Rod of Steel in a Feline for Days.

Animal Survives Queer Accident, But is Caused Inconvenience.

New York, Feb. 27.—Once again the old saying that a cat has nine lives has been proved to contain much truth. No other living thing could possibly live with a nine-inch hat pin in its stomach and throat stabbing itself to death at the first move. But Tabby, a large tiger cat belonging to the family of Alfred Mohr of 37 Ashland place, has defied death.

He swallowed a hat pin belonging to Mr. Mohr's daughter more than a week ago. He swallowed it head first, so that the point of the end protruded from the stomach into the esophagus.

One day last week Miss Mohr entered the house returning from an errand. She laid her hat upon a table and placed her hat pin on a tray beside it. Tabby, in a frolicsome mood, soon afterward jumped upon the table, and, espousing the hat faster, he thought to play with it. It was one of these affairs the head of which dangles at the end of a tiny spring. Tabby, pawed the pendant sparkle at the end of the spring, and, becoming excited at the gratification caused by the strokes of his right forward paw, grabbed the head of the pin in his mouth and made a jump to the floor.

But the point of the hatpin reached Tabby's throat. He was unable to swallow it, and he was unable to spit it out. He was unable to move his head, and he was unable to move his body. He was unable to do anything but lie there, and he was unable to do anything but lie there.

The miseries of Tabby became apparent this day, when he was unable to move. He was unable to move his head, and he was unable to move his body. He was unable to do anything but lie there, and he was unable to do anything but lie there.

Mr. Borenmann has the following to say of his plan:

"I have written a few articles on the subject of interchange of cars. Please allow me to rehash it again, the benefit derived from interchanging of cars are as follows:

"A shipper should be allowed the convenience to bill a loaded car to any destination he chooses or the shippers commission firm to retail to any point where he is able to better the price. For instance, to Fairbault, St. Peter, Winona or some large Eastern city. The railroad or railroads that this car travels over must furnish each other with a car to take the place of the loaded one. By interchanging the cars, it will grow into a business. Under the present style of selling our produce, we are compelled to sell them, they rehash and require an additional profit that rightly belongs to the grower, and after a careful study you will readily see that interchange of cars will tend to prevent monopoly, because it brings all the large terminals in a stiff competition with the small cities and villages, and in turn, the small cities and villages can ship its lumber, brick, machinery, oil, coal or any commodity that it wishes.

"I would like to see the old joint Western classification that was in force in the latter '70s and early '80s dug up and brought into use. With our present rate it would mean thousands of dollars in the pockets of our farmers and local merchants.

"As an independent shipper, for nearly twenty years, with my railroad experience, agent and operator, I am convinced that interchange of cars will give the small shipper an equal shot with the large ones. A line elevator company is not complete until it has fifty elevators strung out through the country with a large terminal elevator and commission business in connection at large terminals such as Duluth or Minneapolis. How out of place it looks for a lot of independent farmers' elevators to sell to these same companies terminals that they are in opposition with. The resolutions passed for by the independent shippers at their late state convention in Fargo should be considered and not reciprocal demurrage with such men behind the wheel as Mr. Marble, and if shippers and merchants will send petitions as private letters to members of the legislatures and congressmen for federal interchange of car and federal inspection, we will be a success and the trusts a failure."

HOKE SMITH FOR PRESIDENT

Georgia Congressman Place Him in Field as an Alternative Candidate.

Washington, Feb. 26.—Hoke Smith, governor-elect of Georgia, has been placed in the field as an alternative candidate for the presidency at the hands of the next Democratic convention. The occasion was a banquet given in honor of the former secretary of the interior at the Shoreham by Representative Bartlett, Lee and Hildwick of Georgia, at which all of the Georgia delegation in congress and a company of distinguished Georgians were present.

The speech nominating Governor Smith for the presidency was made by Mr. Bartlett. The nomination had a strong tie to the Georgia delegation in congress and a company of distinguished Georgians were present.

Mr. Bartlett said that if Mr. Bryan was not a candidate, it should be understood henceforth that the Empire State of the South had a candidate for the honor and that his name was Hoke Smith.

OLD SORES FED AND KEPT OPEN

BY IMPURITIES IN THE BLOOD

Whenever a sore refuses to heal it is because the blood is not pure and healthy, as it should be, but is infected with poisonous germs or some old blood taint which has corrupted and polluted the circulation. Those most usually afflicted with old sores are persons who have reared or passed out a life. The vitality of the blood and strength of the system have naturally begun to decline, and the poisonous germs which have accumulated because of a sluggish and inactive condition of the system, or some hereditary taint which has hitherto been held in check, now force an outlet on the face, arms, legs or other part of the body. The place grows red and angry, festers and eats into the surrounding tissue until it becomes a chronic and stubborn ulcer, fed and kept open by the impurities with which the blood is saturated. Nothing is more trying and disagreeable than a stubborn, non-healing sore. The very fact that it resists ordinary remedies and treatments is good reason for suspicion; the same germ-producing cancerous ulcers is back of every old sore, and especially is this true if the trouble is an inherited one. Washes, salves, nor indeed anything else, applied directly to the sore, can do any permanent good; neither will removing the sore with caustic plasters or the surgeon's knife make a lasting cure. If every particle of the diseased flesh were taken away another sore would come, because the trouble is in the blood, and the BLOOD CANNOT BE CUT AWAY. The cure must come by a thorough cleansing of the blood. In S. S. S. will be found a remedy for sores and ulcers of every kind. It is an unequalled blood purifier—one that goes directly into the circulation and promptly cleanses it of all poisons and impurities. It gets down to the very bottom of the trouble and forces out every trace of impurity and makes a complete and lasting cure. S. S. S. changes the quality of the blood so that instead of feeding the diseased parts with impurities, it nourishes the irritated, inflamed flesh with healthy blood. Then the sore begins to heal, new flesh is formed, all pain and inflammation leaves, the place scabs over, and when S. S. S. has purified the blood the sore is permanently cured. S. S. S. is for sale at all first class drug stores. Write for our special book on sores and ulcers and any other medical advice you desire. We make no charge for the book or advice.

PROTEST IS VIGOROUS

Clubs of State Will Join in Fighting Freak Bill.

Petition of Protest Being Circulated Among Duluth Motorists.

About forty of Duluth's motorists gathered at the Commercial club yesterday afternoon at the meeting of the Duluth Automobile club called to take action in connection with the bill which has been proposed in the state legislature, making some very undesirable restrictions in regard to speed, license requirements, etc., for auto owners and chauffeurs.

At the meeting yesterday it was decided to work with the St. Paul, Minneapolis and Mankato Automobile clubs in this matter, and a delegate will be appointed by the club to attend a meeting of the four clubs to be held at Minneapolis on Saturday of this week.

Meanwhile a petition is being circulated by Harry Merritt and Dr. Lee, members of the club, among all those interested in motorcars in this vicinity, protesting against the bill, and this petition will be given to the delegate to the joint meeting, and will be used in attempting to demonstrate to the legislature and especially to the representatives from the Forty-ninth, Fiftieth and Fifty-first districts, that their constituents are opposed to any such legislation as is proposed.

The joint meeting of the four clubs at Minneapolis will also be an opportunity to work in the legislature against the bill, and it is thought that a sufficient demonstration can be made to result in the defeat of the bill.

The objectionable measure contains some very stringent provisions and makes some requirements which, one of these demands the licensing of all chauffeurs, and also demands that each chauffeur shall at all times carry with him his license, and shall be fined if he cannot produce it, even though the certificate should be safe at home. The speed limitations required by the law are also very strict, more so than in any other state.

While most of the motorists are confident that the majority of the legislature will look upon the bill as undesirable, they do not intend to take any chances on having the freak bill pass.

MILTON AGAIN ON AT THE MET

Will Meet Kid Deno Friday—Kriedler Would Wrestle Peterson.

The wrestling fans will have a chance to see Milton at the Met again Friday night, when the "Little Wonder" will go on for a match with Kid Deno. Deno is a Duluth youngster who, while he has never been on before an audience before, is said to be all there, and is known for knowing the fine points of the game, and he has enough confidence in himself to back himself to quite a liberal extent.

If Peterson is willing, a heavy-weight match is also in prospect for the Met in the near future, as Kriedler is trying hard to get a match with Johnson's protegee. Peterson was pushed into the limelight by Martin Johnson during Frank Gotch's stay here. He stayed seventy minutes with Kriedler in his second bout, and the big West Coast wrestler is expected to have another chance at him in the near future.

MRS. THAW RECALLED

To the Stand for Re-direct and Re-cross Examination.

A Few Things Straightened Out and Witness Finally Excused.

New York, Feb. 27.—Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Thaw was recalled by Mr. Delmas, who offered her a letter and asked if the woman's name in it was not that of a prominent society woman?

Jerome objected, but said he was prepared to admit she was a prominent New York woman.

"You most prominently?" asked Mr. Delmas.

"Decidedly yes."

"And she holds a position in the best society?"

"Well," said Jerome dryly, "she is in the 40's."

Mrs. Thaw was then asked as to how much money of White's letter of credit, she drew for her mother.

"Did you ever receive any money from Stanford White except that which was received for?" asked Mr. Delmas.

"No," was the reply.

"You will please enumerate all the presents Mr. White gave you."

"Well, he gave me a red feather box."

"Never mind all that," said Mr. Jerome, "we will admit that there was nothing but articles of wearing apparel of small value."

"Now tell the jury all about the incident of the York hotel."

"Well, one day I met a girl on the street and she told me that Mr. Thaw was paying her down."

"I went back to the Grand hotel and packed up a few things, took my maid and got in a carriage. As we started out we met Mr. Thaw, and he asked me where I was going, but I would not tell him. I drove straight to the York hotel, as I was going into the restaurant I met a young man I knew, and he went into the restaurant and sat down. I followed him. After the theater we walked back to the hotel, and I asked the young man, who lived there, if he could get a room for me without registering. He did so, and I said good night, and there was no more to it. The next day I met Maizie Follette on the street and told her what the other girl told me."

"Maizie told me she was a bad woman and I should not believe her. And then I thought it wasn't true, and I went back to the Grand hotel."

"State to the jury all you know about the so-called cablegram to Stanford White from London," said Mr. Delmas.

"That is objected to," interposed Mr. Jerome, "I was stopped by Mr. Delmas yesterday from pursuing the subject."

"Mr. Delmas based his objection on the ground that the question was not proper cross-examination, but I testify against him without any objection, and he cannot be compelled to withdraw the remark," said Mr. Jerome.

"A witness memory may be refreshed with perfect propriety," said Mr. Delmas, "I withdraw the remark."

"And I withdraw the objection," concluded Mr. Jerome.

"When I met Stanford White, Mr. Delmas said she remembered nothing further about the cablegram than that it had to do with her mother and the American embassy in London who 'sneaked up to her bedroom'."

"Did you ever hear that you had been mentioned by the Garfield case?"

"Never," replied Mrs. Thaw. "I was not in the Garfield case."

"When did your friendship with Mr. Garfield cease?"

"When I met Stanford White, Mr. Garfield went to mamma and said I had had anything to do with Mr. White. He would have nothing to do with us."

"Mr. Garfield is dead isn't he?" interrupted Mr. Jerome.

"Yes sir."

Mrs. Thaw repeated the story of the return of the $50 which Thaw sent her in a bunch of flowers.

"Did you return this money of your own accord?"

"I put it up to the stage manager," she replied, "and he told me about it and he told me I should send it back at once."

The relations of Mrs. Thaw and George Lederer were inquired into by Mr. Delmas, who said that his conduct was "always that of respect and honor."

"You mentioned several young men whom you said were paying attention to you. Did these young men belong to families of high social position?"

Mr. Jerome objected.

"Then I must bring out the names," said Mr. Delmas.

Mr. Delmas did not press the point, but asked: "Were their relations always respectful and honorable?"

"Well, all they did was to ask me to parties and send me flowers."

"Was there anything improper in their attentions?"

"Nothing."

"Was the second operation performed on you in 1901 necessary as a result of the first?"

Mr. Jerome objected. He said these operations were not of a criminal character. He had tried to bring out their true character on cross-examination but Mr. Delmas had objected.

Justice Fitzgerald sustained the objection.

"That is all," said Mr. Delmas, and the re-direct examination was closed.

Mrs. Thaw began her re-cross-examination by asking:

"Did Stanford White continue to pay for Harvard Nesbit's schooling up to the time he was killed?"

"Till who was killed?" asked Mrs. Thaw innocently.

"Till White was killed?" replied the district attorney.

"I don't know."

"He continued at school until White was killed, didn't he?"

"I think so."

Mrs. Thaw was here permitted to clear up the transfer of the famous letter of credit to her mother. She said it had been given back to Stanford

White and he gave it to Mrs. Nesbit. She said she had not indorsed the letter when she gave it to Thaw in Paris. Mr. Delmas objected to any question being asked the witness about letters written by Thaw to Mrs. White, but Mr. Delmas based his objection on the ground that the question was not proper cross-examination, but I testify against him without any objection, and he cannot be compelled to withdraw the remark."

"Can you tell me whether or not the letters were written before June 25, 1902?"

Then ensued an argument between Mrs. Thaw and Mr. Jerome over an attempt by Mr. Jerome to have the attorneys for the defense stipulate, and the American of the American embassy in London who 'sneaked up to her bedroom'."

The stipulation eventually was made and Mr. Jerome announced he was through with Mrs. Thaw. It was 4:40 p. m. when the defendant's wife finally was excused.

Mr. Delmas and formally turned over to Mr. Jerome for cross-examination, and the American of the American embassy in London who 'sneaked up to her bedroom'."

This was agreed to by the direct examination of this witness has been completed," asked Mr. Jerome.

"It has," replied Mr. Delmas, "and I have mentioned it by cross-examination."

Mr. Jerome then asked that he be allowed to wait until tomorrow morning before he began his cross-examination of Mrs. Thaw.

At Mr. Jerome's request, Mr. Delmas stated that Dr. Charles G. Wagner married the actress or cross-examination immediately following Dr. Evans. It was also stated that Dr. Deconar and Dr.ingham would be examined by Thursday for their cross-examination.

NO TESTIMONY

Given Jerome by Mrs. Holman to Embarrass Her Daughter.

Pittsburg, Feb. 27.—Charles J. Holman issued a statement yesterday in behalf of his wife, mother of Mrs. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, concerning young Mrs. Thaw's early training.

Holman denies that his wife gave District Attorney Jerome a statement or that Mr. Jerome used a statement from Mrs. Holman with which to embarrass young Mrs. Thaw on the witness stand.

The statement is as follows: "From the time Evelyn was 5 years old until she was 8 years old she was sent to Sunday school. After that the family removed to Allegheny and she was sent to the Calvary Methodist Episcopal Sunday school for three years."

After that her father died and her mother removed to Cedar avenue, Allegheny. While living there Evelyn was sent to Sunday school with the children of the next door neighbors. Her mother removed from Cedar avenue, Allegheny, to Highland avenue, Pittsburg, and Evelyn went to the Baptist church in Highland avenue. She was always sent to Sunday school as long as her mother had control of her."

Her mother never left her daughter in care of any man at any time. The public has heard but one side of the story. They have no right to express an opinion. We expect nothing else from ignorance, but educated people are supposed to weigh the evidence of both sides of a story before giving an opinion. Furthermore, Mr. Jerome has no affidavit from Mrs. Holman."

Hunting for Trouble.

"I've lived in California twenty years, and I'm still hunting for trouble in the way of burns, sores, wounds, boils, sprains or a case like that," writes America Salve won't quickly cure," writes Charles Walters of Allegheny, Sierra county. No use hunting. Mr. Walters. It cures every case. Guaranteed by all druggists. 2c.

ROOSEVELT'S WIFE HAS SUED

Mrs. James R., Jr., Charges Him With Cruelty and Neglect.

New York, Feb. 27.—The escapee of James R. Roosevelt, Jr., are once more coming into the limelight, this time because his wife has begun proceedings against him for a separation on the ground of neglect and cruelty. Papers in the case have been drawn and will be served some time today.

Abraham Levy, counsel for Mrs. Roosevelt, refuses to confirm or deny that his client has begun this suit, but from other sources the rumor has been confirmed.

The proceedings grew out of a prank of young Roosevelt's last month, when a bookmaker charged him with stealing the bookmaker's book. The book was left in the house and the bookmaker took all the furniture out of the house that was said to have been stolen by Roosevelt, and put it in storage. Roosevelt's turn swore out a writ of replevin, saying the furniture was his, and finally got it back.

"Jimmy" Roosevelt's career has been marked by much newspaper notoriety. He shocked society six years ago when the fact came to light that Roosevelt had married one Sadie Melsinger, who was well known in the Tenderloin by the sobriquet of "Duchess."

He established her in a magnificent home on Riverside Drive, No. 34. There she has lived ever since. She gave up her former ways of living, and settled down to her life of respectability.

It is said his wife has endured many things, but the last straw came in January, when he was arrested for stealing a book. He was in jail for a week, and his wife was left in a 10th street, near Central Park West, where he had a bookmaker's place.

She took him to her apartment, near Central Park West. The next morning, however, she told him to leave. He went, and when he came back he found his wife had married a bookmaker, and he was left in a 10th street, near Central Park West, where he had a bookmaker's place.

UNITED STATES STEEL CORPORATION PROPOSES TO BUILD AN IRON AND STEEL PLANT IN CITY OF DULUTH

HOUSE RESOLVES TO DO LOTS OF THINGS PROPOSED BY DIFFERENT MEMBERS

Will Investigate the Finances of the University Regents.

St. Paul, Feb. 28.—(Special to The Herald.)—The house today passed several resolutions. Representative Brady of St. Paul offered a resolution providing for a committee of five to see whether the Standard Oil company has acquired complete or substantial control of the oil business in this state, and whether it is extortionate in its prices. Representative Adams so it over to tomorrow on a notice of debate.

Representative Christensen offered a resolution calling upon the house committee on insane hospitals to investigate certain published reports about cruelty to patients in the asylums. Representative Dorey said the bill was based on sensational newspaper reports and that the legislature could not follow up such things. W. A. Noland put the resolution over a day by giving notice of debate.

The house adopted Representative Mark's resolution providing for a committee of five to investigate the finances of the board of regents of the state university. Representative Rachie said he was principally interested in the way the university teachers are protected, and he said that the board of regents is an aristocratic body, and that it plays favorites with professors of its class. Representative Timberlake of Minneapolis said the board courts investigation and the resolution was adopted, 32 to 14.

TAXATION OF TRANSFERS

Of Grain and Stocks Favored by House Tax Committee.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

St. Paul, Feb. 28.—(Special to The Herald.)—After hearing arguments from Minneapolis grain interests against it, the house committee on taxes and tax laws yesterday afternoon voted to recommend for passage the Tighe bill imposing a tax of 1 cent for each $100 involved in transfers of grain and stocks.

Those who opposed the bill made three objections against it. In the first place, it provides for stamps to be placed on memoranda of sale, and this was objected to as inconvenient. Secondly, it was claimed that the tax would ultimately go to the shipper or producer of grain and the consumer of flour. Thirdly, it was pointed out that it would place a handicap against the Duluth and Minneapolis exchanges and in favor of exchanges in other states that do not impose such a tax, notably Chicago.

The bill provides for a tax of 1 cent on each $100 involved in any sale or agreement for sale, for present or future delivery, the tax going to the state. Stamps are to be issued by the state auditor and affixed to each memorandum of sale in proper amount. It becomes effective Jan. 1, 1908.

E. M. Magnusson, of Minneapolis, pointed out that the New York law taxing (Continued on page 7, fourth column.)

ONE MEMBER IS RETAINED

Admiral Endicott is to Remain on Panama Commission.

President Completes His Reorganization Scheme for Canal.

Washington, Feb. 28.—The president had a conference at the White House yesterday afternoon with Secretary Taft and Secretary Root regarding details of the reorganization scheme for the Panama canal work. It is understood that in addition to the changes in the commission, already reported, it has been decided that Col. Haines, United States army, retired, and Benjamin Harrod, civil engineer, both members of the present commission, shall retire. Admiral Endicott, who is the only remaining member of the old commission, will be retained, as the law requires that one civil engineer of the navy shall be included.

In view of the increased cost of living in their transfer to the isthmus, and the fact that they are to be called upon to undertake professional work of high grade, for which their predecessors have been liberally recompensed, Majors Goetz, Gallard and Silbert, who were named as members of the commission and engineers to conduct the canal construction, will be given salaries much in excess of the $4,000 a year they now receive. It is the intention to divide among them the salaries now paid to Messrs. Shonts and Stevens, aggregating $80,000 per annum. As the president has the power to fix the salaries of persons employed in this work, there will be no legal obstacle to this.

BIG DEAL IN COAL LANDS

Property Owned by Walsh and Traction Systems is Sold.

Danville, Ill., Feb. 28.—The Kelley Coal company was sold today to R. O. Hammond, J. K. Dering and Hugh Shirkie. It is stated the consideration was $4,000,000. The purchasers are members of the Dering Coal company. The property was owned equally by John R. Walsh of Chicago and the Illinois Traction systems interests, having been purchased from the Michael Kelley estate two years ago for $3,200,000. The property consisted of five shafts in this sub-district, with an average output of 2,000,000 tons annually, and many thousands of acres of coal lands. It is probable the Dering company at Clinton will be closed and the mines here increased in output to 3,000,000 tons per year. The property was hauled to the plant of the Illinois Steel company which consumes their coal.

The Testimony of Strothers Brothers Eagerly Awaited.

One is a Member of the Legislature of West Virginia.

All Parties to Case Are of Much Social Prominence.

Culpepper, Va., Feb. 28.—The expected story of the defense from the lips of the defendants in the trial of James and Philip Strother, charged with the murder of William F. Bywaters, their brother-in-law, at the Strother home, near here, last December, was the center of all interest in today's developments in that case. While the testimony of Mrs. William Bywaters, the young "bride of an hour," in defense of whose honor the fatal shots were fired by her two brothers, as her husband was seeking to escape from the house, created widespread interest; that of the two defendants, one of whom is a member of the West Virginia legislature, was also confidently looked forward to as one of dramatic interest.

The defense planned yesterday to bring the two brothers to the witness stand today, as early as possible, and this was the program when Judge Harrison convened this morning's session. The testimony was expected to conform, in its important and ma- (Continued on page 8, second column.)

CROSS-EXAMINATION OF DR. EVANS IS LONG DRAWN OUT, AND TRIES AUDIENCE

Few Spectators Remain in Courtroom Until Lunch.

Questions Are Largely on Thaw's Letters in Evidence.

The Defense Cannot Conclude Its Case This Week.

New York, Feb. 28.—District Attorney Jerome today continued his cross-examination of Dr. Britton D. Evans, one of the attorneys for the defense in the trial of Harry K. Thaw for the murder of Stanford White. The entire morning session was taken up with questions concerning details of certain of Thaw's letters which have been admitted in evidence. Dr. Evans would examine the letters closely from time to time, and Mr. Jerome was obliged to repeat some of his interrogations many times before securing what he considered a definite answer. Dr. Evans said the letters denoted insanity at the time Thaw wrote the letters but "that he would not always remain insane," the expert added.

There was only fifty spectators in the courtroom when the proceedings began today, and half of these had left by the time the luncheon recess was ordered.

The long drawn out cross-examination of Dr. Evans precludes the possibility of the defense concluding its case this week.

them again, and the witness proceeded to do so.

Dr. Evans finally stated that several of the letters bore no addresses and were therefore of little use in his attempt to discover whether the writers was of sound mind.

"Do any of these letters show that the writer was insane?" asked the district attorney.

"Some of them, in my opinion, shows signs of mental instability," Dr. Evans replied. "Do you mean insanity?"

"Not insanity in the sense that he would remain permanently insane," Dr. Evans went into a long explanation of the reasons for his theory that the letters showed mental instability. A letter written with a lead pencil by Thaw to Edwin Nesbit, he said, showed lack of a sense of the proprieties, a loss of the aesthetic sense and various other things which the doctor believes showed the writer was of unsound mind, in view (Continued on page 8, first column.)

Committee of Experts to Visit City Early Next Week.

Will Investigate Conditions and Make Report.

The Plant Will be Constructed on a Very Large Scale.

A steel plant for Duluth! That the hopes which Duluthians have held for years that this city would some day become a center for the manufacture of steel are now about to be realized, seems assured.

Thomas F. Cole, president of the Oliver Iron Mining company, returned from New York today, and stated that as a result of the united efforts of the officers of the corporation, located in the Northwest, the finance committee of the United States Steel corporation, on Feb. 19, unanimously adopted the following resolutions:

"Resolved, That it is the sense of this committee that a substantial plant for manufacture of iron and steel be constructed and operated in vicinity of Duluth, Minnesota, provided it is practical and will be reasonably profitable; and,

"Resolved, Further, That the subject matter be referred to a special committee, consisting of Messrs. Gary, Corey, Perkins and Frick, to make an exhaustive study of the question and to report facts at their earliest convenience to this committee."

Mr. Cole further said that the special committee had appointed experts to visit Duluth and make thorough examination of the whole subject, and they are expected here early next week. The committee of experts was selected from the officers of the manufacturing companies of the Steel corporation and it is hoped they will have an opportunity to meet committees from the Commercial club and other organizations of business men generally interested in the advancement of the state of Minnesota.

Duluth people do not need to be told that it will be their duty to give the committee every possible assistance in securing accurate statistics on the resources of the country adjacent to Duluth, or the markets which can be supplied from this port, and on any other matters that the members of the committee may desire light.

The Steel corporation has spent enormous sums of money in Duluth and on the ranges, and if it is decided that Duluth shall have a steel plant, it will be constructed on a scale in proportion to the other operations of the corporation in this section of the country.

For years the people of Duluth and the officials of the corporation stationed at the Head of the Lakes have been working to secure such a plant. The latter, on their recent appearance at the meeting of the directors in New York, placed the matter before the finance committee in such a light that it was decided that the claims of Duluth should no longer be neglected.

Members of the Duluth and West Duluth Commercial clubs and of the Duluth Real Estate Exchange recently compiled some statistics regarding the business of the city, and these will be augmented by whatever information the experts desire, when they arrive in the city.

The value of such a plant to the city cannot be estimated. Ever since the discovery of iron in Northern Minnesota Duluth people have been looking forward to the erection of a steel plant in Duluth in order that the city might gain the benefit of the manufacture of the raw product, instead of having it pass to Pittsburg and other cities of the East. Various difficulties have presented themselves, but it now appears that the hopes of years are about to be realized, and that at least a start will be made on the building-up of a great steel-manufacturing center in Duluth.

During the past year or two the Steel corporation has expended huge sums of money to keep pace with the ever increasing demands for its products. New blast furnaces, new rolling mills, new equipment for its railroads, new ore docks, and new and better facilities of every kind have been demanded by the ever growing business, and now it appears that Duluth will benefit in a most substantial manner from this progressive policy.

At this time it is of course impossible to go into details of the size of the plant. The mere announcement that it is to come is all that is available, and until the committee of experts makes its report, and it goes through the regular channels any attempt to estimate the extent of the improvements to be made will be mere guesswork.

IMPORTANT FOR DEFENSE

Is Testimony Given by Private Secretary to Hermann.

Washington, Feb. 28.—On cross-examination today Elliot P. Hough, formerly private secretary to Commissioner Hermann, when he was commissioner of the general land office and who is on trial for the alleged destruction of public records, Counsel Worthington succeeded in establishing a very important fact for the defense. Mr. Hough testified that when he became private secretary to Commissioner Lamerous he found in the private secretary's desk personal letter press copy books of the previous commissioner, Thomas H. Carter. He said by direction of some superior officer, whose identity he could recall, he sent those books to Mr. Carter by mail. On re-examination, Mr. Hough said he could not remember who gave him the order to send the books to Mr. Carter, but the order must have come from either the commissioner, the assistant commissioner or the chief clerk who were his superiors in the office.

TO IMPROVE THE SERVICE

Duluth Will Have Chief Mail Clerk and Woodland Carrier.

Old Spanish Warship May Replace the Gunboat Gopher.

Postmaster Guy Eaton, who has just returned from his Eastern trip, says that while he was in Washington the officials of the postoffice department practically assured him that a railway mail clerk would be stationed at Duluth in the near future.

Mr. Eaton, accompanied by Congressman Bede, had taken the matter up with the department officials, and had shown the need of a chief clerk here, and before he left it was almost certain that this would be made the headquarters for a chief clerk.

There has been considerable agitation by Duluth citizens for a chief railway clerk, as the business of the railway mail service has become very heavy during the last few years.

Another thing which Mr. Eaton took up with the Washington officials was the establishment of the carrier service at Woodland. The establishment of this route was also practically assured Mr. Eaton. An inspector will visit Duluth during March, and he will investigate the needs of the Woodland residents for the carrier service.

Mr. Eaton said this afternoon that he believes Duluth stands a good show of getting the new boat "Isle of Cuba" for the local naval militia in exchange for the Gopher which will probably be transferred to the Wisconsin militia. The navy department officials seem to favor this idea, said Mr. Eaton, and promised to investigate.

"We need the united support of the people of Duluth if we want to get this fine boat for the Head of the Lakes," said Mr. Eaton. "The Isle of Cuba has just been thoroughly overhauled and is a beauty. New engines have been installed, and a better boat for our use could not be found."

"The Isle of Cuba was originally a Spanish warship and was one of the prizes captured by Admiral Dewey at Manila. She was built by a committee of the city of Manila, and will accommodate about 125 men."

THE STORY BY BROTHER

Tells of the Shooting of Bywaters to Prevent Escape.

Says Brother-in-Law Used Vildest Language to Sister.

Culpepper, Va., Feb. 28.—When court opened this morning for the Strother trial, Mrs. Nellie Gaines, the sister of Mrs. Bywaters, was recalled for a brief cross-examination. She was on the stand but a short time when James A. Strother, one of the defendants, was called as a witness.

He was permitted to tell the story of his sister's wrong with only occasional questioning by his chief counsel, John L. Jeffries.

Although at times visibly affected by the strain under which he has labored since the night of Dec. 12 last, when Bywaters was killed, he related the relations between the dead man and his sister in a straight forward manner.

He stated that his presence in Culpepper on the night of the tragedy was due to information sent him by Mrs. Gaines, his sister, concluding her suspicions as to Viola's condition.

"How did you regard Bywaters?" he was asked.

"He had always enjoyed our full confidence," he replied. "We knew that Viola loved him and regarded him as practically engaged." His reply continued with statements concerning the demand he made on Bywaters to marry Viola.

"You are responsible for her condition," you must marry her," he said, referring to his conversation with Bywaters, after Viola's condition became known to the family.

"I know," he stated Bywaters said, "and I want to marry her." "We then arranged with Rev. Dr. Ware to come to marry them, and I thought then that everything would end all right. After the ceremony Bywaters' whole manner changed. He became indifferent to Viola and insolent to Mrs. Gaines."

MEMBERS OF BLACK HAND

Engage in a Deadly Fight in a New York Saloon.

One Man Killed and Two Others Seriously Hurt.

New York, Feb. 28.—One man is dead, two others have serious bullet wounds, and three men are under arrest as a result of a free fight in a Third Avenue saloon today. Michael Gallo, the dead man, is said by the police to have been prominent in the Black Hand society, and their theory is that his murder was in the nature of an act of reprisal for a breach of confidence on his part. The men under arrest are Louis Indorf, the bartender in the saloon, Louis Zimmerman, a contractor, and Lorenzo Condessa, who lives in the vicinity of the saloon. Indorf and Zimmerman are wounded. Zimmerman was the only prisoner who would talk. He told the police that he had gone to the back room of the saloon with a woman about 4 o'clock this morning. There were many other persons in the place at the time, much loud talk and a great deal of confusion. Suddenly there was a shot, followed by a regular fusillade, and in a moment the room was so filled with smoke that it was impossible to see anything. When the police reached the place they found Gallo lying dead on the floor with four bullets in his body. Five more bullet holes were found in the walls of the back room. Zimmerman and Indorf were arrested soon afterwards. They went to the hospital to have their wounds dressed.

PROTEST MADE BY MOORHEAD

Commercial Club Against Indiscriminate Attacks on the Railroads.

Moorhead, Minn., Feb. 28.—(Special to The Herald.)—At the meeting of the Commercial club of this city Tuesday night a resolution was adopted protesting against the indiscriminate attacks upon railroad corporations. The resolution is as follows:

"To the legislature of the state of Minnesota: Believing that it voices the sober judgment of the people of this locality, the Commercial club of the city of Moorhead respectfully represents that abundant and prompt transportation of its products and its people is a vital need of the state, and that the railroads are in a formative state, needing more tracks, double tracks, terminals and equipment, better grades, lesser curves, steel and stone bridges and culverts in the place of wooden ones so generally used now. That without these improvements so necessary for the protection of the people and the prompt shipment of our products to market and the timely transportation of fuel and the necessities of life to the teeming prairie country, disaster is imminent. We recognize that these facilities can only be provided by a vast expenditure of capital and credit, and we earnestly urge by drastic legislation and by unnecessary and hostile litigation."

"Therefore, be it Resolved, That we earnestly urge moderation in legislation and stimulation rather than discouragement for capital and enterprise. That safety for life and limb in travel and reasonably prompt shipment of our products is greatly to be preferred to any cheapness of service. That while thousands may be saved by rate reduction, untold millions may be lost by stocking enterprises and by discouraging improvement and driving capital to move to other states. Resolved, That copies of these resolutions be forwarded to the state senator and the state representative for this district. The Commercial club also endorsed the bill now before the legislature to provide $1,000,000 for the semi-centennial exposition in 1908, providing one to be followed by measures authorizing early commissioners to appropriate from $200,000 to $500,000 for county exhibits at said fair."

WALKER ON THE WESTERN COAST
Portland, Or., Feb. 28.—The fact that William F. Walker, the absconding New Britain, Conn., banker, had occupied apartments at the Hotel Portland was unknown to the hotel people until they were shown the Associated Press report from New York. Some three or four days ago the early arising employees at the hotel were questioned by detectives regarding a man named Seft. The man registered at the hotel late at night and left early the next morning. It is believed by the detectives that Walker came to Portland and for some reason became afraid to take one of the trans-Pacific lines there and that he came to Portland in hopes of leaving the country from there. Finding this impossible, he would have here for three or four days they think Walker either returned north or continued on to San Francisco. They are confident, he is not in Portland.

The police of Seattle are on the lookout for the fugitive and are watching outgoing vessels closely.

New York, Feb. 28.—A local detective agency engaged to trace William F. Walker, the missing bank treasurer of New Britain, Conn., announced yesterday that Walker stopped at the Portland hotel and was seen by the hotel people.

An acquaintance, who knew Walker but slightly, recognized him while he was in Portland. At the Portland hotel where he registered at Sether, the employees identified a photograph of Walker as the man who had registered and remained there over night. When he left Portland at 8 o'clock the morning of Feb. 19, he was bound for Vancouver, B. C., and probably thence for the Orient.

MORAL: DON'T PEEP.
West Lafayette, O., Indicator: The other day Ward Higgins let fly a big broadside of detection at a flock of sparrows on their old hen house, and after the smoke cleared away he discovered that he had also shot the turkey his father won at the Chili shooting match. It seems that the red bird had been looking out of a hole in the roof, which is a very dangerous thing to do.

Cure Piles*Before Too Late

Pyramid Pile Cure Will Quickly Do It in the Privacy of Your Own Home.

Free Trial Package To Prove It

Pile sufferers in the past have looked upon an operation as the only remedy, but they have not considered even an operation as a sure cure. Operating has not rooted out the disease, and sufferer has looked forward with shrinking to the sure day when the same horrible ordeal must be passed through again.

The Pyramid Pile Cure cures. Why? Because it gets down beneath the surface. It helps nature, relieves the swelling, stops the congestion, heals the ulcers and fissures. There is no case of the form of piles which these little pyramids are not made to rectify.

The Pyramid Pile Cure is not a hospital cure, but is to be used at home. There is no loss of time or detention from business. It has been used for years and has the sanction of the profession as a remedy for piles of all forms and no matter in what stage of development. There is no case of piles so severe that the Pyramid Pile Cure will not bring relief, and there is no man or woman too poor to get this relief.

It is for sale at all reliable druggists at 50c per box, or if you prefer a trial package before purchasing, it will be sent to you by return mail upon your request. The bonafide testimonials of patients cured will show you what these little pyramids really do.

"I suffered untold misery for four months when my wife begged me to send for a 50c box. When it was half gone I knew I was better and it didn't take any longer to get me to send for a second box. I think I am about well now, but if I feel any symptoms of a return I will order at once. Tell all about this fine remedy for piles. Yours, J. J. McElwee, Honey Grove, Texas, R. R. 3."

"P. S. I only used two boxes and don't think I need any more. Piles of seven months' standing."

PAYS TAX 17 YEARS OLD.*Sioux City Man Eases Conscience by Squaring With County.

Elk Point, S. D., Feb. 28.—An interesting case of conscience money has just come to light in this county. County Treasurer Webster recently received an inquiry from a man in Sioux City, asking him to refund the amount of his personal tax. He added that in 1899 he lived in Virginia township, and left the county without paying his taxes, and that now, though poor, he wished to be honest. Mr. Webster replied that the tax amounted to $9.33, with interest of $1.21. The treasurer suggested that if he would pay the tax he believed the commissioners would remit the interest for the whole amount.

LONE SETTLER A SUICIDE.*Body of Fiesch Found in Chair With Bullet Hole in Head.

Roseau, Minn., Feb. 28.—The coroner has been notified that Albert Fiesch, a homesteader living on a claim in the town of Huss, committed suicide by shooting. The man had lived alone and his neighbors, not seeing him about for several days, started an investigation. He was found seated in a chair, with a bullet hole through his head. A small revolver lay on the floor beside him. No reason for the act is known.

GRAIN WAREHOUSE BURNS.
Herald, S. D., Feb. 28.—With a report like a cannon, the large but grain warehouse belonging to J. G. Brady slipped off its foundation and burst from the great pressure of 3,000 bushels of wheat it contained. Hundreds of bushels of wheat were scattered over the ground, and the loss will be a heavy one.

The regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. of West Duluth, which was postponed from last Friday evening on account of the absence of the principal speaker, will be held tomorrow evening at the home of Mrs. C. R. Keyes, 705 Fifty-seventh avenue west.

The subject for discussion at the meeting will be "Patriotism," and an interesting program has been arranged. Rev. John W. Powell will be the principal speaker. Rev. Powell was in the Twin Cities last Friday evening, and the meeting was postponed on this account.

Besides the address by Rev. Powell, a reading will be given by Mrs. G. E. Budd, and there will be a short musical program. Messrs. Appelgren and Brocklehurst will each give a solo, and Mrs. David Adams and George Jewell will sing a duet. After the program refreshments will be served.

ON LA VERGNE'S LAND.*Gold Strike Near Skibo Not on Gauthier's Homestead.

Joseph LaVergne of 2120 West Second street, says that it was upon his claim near Skibo that the valuable gold strike was made last week. He and Joseph Gauthier have been working together near Skibo, and both have homesteads there, but the samples which were assayed by C. P. Joyce were obtained upon LaVergne's property.

Mr. LaVergne said this morning that the work on the homestead where the gold has been located is being continued. A test pit has been sunk, and it is claimed that a good vein has been struck. As the blasting progresses Mr. LaVergne says this vein is growing wider and the prospects seem to be good.

Both LaVergne and Gauthier have been active for several years and are well acquainted with the conditions of the country.

WITH THE CURLERS.*Method Wins From Boutin, and Meldahl Defeats Keyes.

Two games were played last evening at the Western rink in the West Duluth Commercial club trophy and were won by Method and Meldahl. The game between Method and Meldahl was a close one, but Method won by a 10-9 score. The game between Boutin and Keyes was also a close one, but Boutin won by a 10-9 score.

The line-up last evening was as follows:

CROSS-EXAMINATION OF DR. EVANS IS LONG

of the environment of wealth and luxury in which he had been reared. Dr. Evans also said some of the letters were addressed to the girl for whose hand the writer was suing. "Would the fact that the writer had been traveling through Europe with the young woman as man and wife, though not married, have any effect upon your opinion?" "No," replied Dr. Evans, "for a man under those circumstances may love the woman just as much as though she were bound to him by holy ties." "Does that letter, taken alone and entirely separate from everything else in the case, show a pathological condition on the part of the writer?" asked Mr. Jerome. "It took nearly half an hour and many questions to secure the wished for answer. Dr. Evans finally said that if the letter had been handed to him without his knowing who the sender was, he would, under the circumstances, be unable to form any opinion regarding the pathological condition of the mind." Dr. Evans was asked to describe the term "pathology of the mind," and after fifteen minutes, declaring that generally speaking it was a diseased condition of the brain, Dr. Evans was explaining the effect of "mental medicine," when District Attorney Jerome interrupted. "It will be short," said the expert. "If we can get anything short," said Dr. Evans, "I will be glad to do so." Dr. Evans went on at some length and Mr. Jerome asked the stenographer to read the previous question. "In a loud voice the stenographer read: "Not that one," said Mr. Jerome, and general laughter. The question had to do with which pathological conditions were suggested by certain of the defendant's letters. Mr. Jerome then handed a letter, handed it to the witness and asked: "Does that letter, excluding all else, show that the writer was insane?" "I am of the opinion that he was mentally unbalanced when he wrote that letter," was his answer. "Was he insane?" "It took a dozen repetitions of the question to secure an answer which satisfied Mr. Jerome, but Dr. Evans finally answered in the affirmative. "What is there in that letter that leads you to make that conclusion?" "In the first place a breaking in the continuity of thought. Then there are further indications in the writing on the margins and the curving at the ends of the lines," continued Dr. Evans, "the underlining on another page is a very common sign of mental disorder. None of these things is in itself of great importance, but taken together they lead to my conclusion." In the letter the word "Bakergard" appears and Mr. Jerome and the witness had a little talk over it. Mr. Jerome attempted to induce the doctor to express an opinion as to whether cultivated people used that spelling, but did not succeed in getting an answer. Two other letters were shown Dr. Evans in one of which he found evidence of an unbalanced mind. The other, he said, did not, taken by itself, show such evidences. Of another he said: "In my opinion there are evidences here that the writer was not mentally balanced." Thaw said little attention to the testimony today, but sat in his usual place reading letters and chatting with his lawyers. Mr. Delmas sat close to the witness box wrapped in a large overcoat and spoke only once or twice during the morning. Dr. Evans was still on the stand when the luncheon recess was taken.

that he was preparing a statement. His action attracted the attention of his lawyers, who apparently wished to dissuade the defendant from making a formal statement public. However, the following, written upon a scrap of paper, finally reached the press table. "This is the second statement Mr. Thaw has made since Aug. 10, last. 'With chances a million to one against her, it is wonderful that Mrs. Thaw's testimony prevailed against the district attorney and his blacklegs.'" ceived from the South asking the president to name W. J. Oliver, whose bid for the construction of the canal was rejected, as a member of the canal commission. Secretary Taft said that he did not believe the president was considering such an appointment and Mr. Oliver said that he would not accept the place if it were tendered him. When he has been officially notified that the bid of the Panama Canal Construction company has been rejected, Mr. Oliver will give out a statement for publication. "Only last Thursday," he said, "the president assured my friends that I would be given the contract, and went so far as to say that he would be down in Panama next November, and were confident by that time we would have the work well under way." Mr. Oliver says that he has spent $40,000 in the preparation of his bids and in the organization of the construction company. John B. McDonald of New York, president of the Panama Canal Construction company will arrive here soon, and will assist Mr. Oliver in the preparation of a statement, including all the official correspondence between Mr. Oliver and his associates and the president, secretary of war and isthmian canal commission regarding the canal contract.

THE BYWATERS CASE

terial features, to that already presented to the jury by their two sisters, and George French Strother, the lumberman, who, before the tragedy, came from his home in Welch, W. Va., to consult with his brothers regarding his sister's condition, and was eagerly anticipated, in the hope it would throw a clear light on certain pertinent points. The exact position of the principals in the tragedy, when the shots were fired, and other points bearing on what happened immediately preceding the killing, when, as they have declared, Bywaters was attempting to desert his bride, is expected to be made more clear as the result of their testimony. Mrs. Bywaters, who lay ill in bed when the shooting occurred, in her pathetic story on the stand yesterday, said her recollection of some of the events connected with the tragedy was hazy. Mrs. Gaines, her sister, testified that she saw Philip fire the first shot at Bywaters, which statement Philip Strothers has corroborated. Mrs. Bywaters has already sworn in court that her betrayal was under promise of marriage, that she pleaded with Bywaters to make honorable reparation, and she has told the story of their trips to Washington for the criminal operation which she dreaded; his indifferent treatment of her, the forced marriage, his attempted flight, and, in a general way, the shooting that followed. He, the sister and brother, French Strother, have contended on the stand that there was no thought of shooting until their brother-in-law attempted to desert his wife. The brothers charged with the shooting were expected to supplement all this testimony with a clear, complete story.

Save for the clearing of the courtroom for the testimony of Mrs. Bywaters, the pale, wan figure about whose wrongs the story of the trial is woven, the seating capacity of the building has been taxed to its utmost. The spectators are not only from among Clapper's citizens but from the neighboring countryside and from adjacent towns. This has been due largely to the prominence of the parties, the social standing of Bywaters, the position of the Strother family, and their hosts of friends on both sides throughout this section of the state, and the circumstances of the tragedy have made it one of the most notable causes before the courts of the state in many years. Early today these anxious for admission into the little courtroom at the opening hour at 9:30 a. m., were astir and the usual crowd was in evidence when Judge Harrison convened the court.

PROTECTION FROM HUSBAND

Youthful Wife Asks Police to Come to Her Aid.

Desiring protection against the visits of her husband, Benjamin F. Custer, Mrs. Mildred Custer, an 18-year-old girl last evening visited headquarters and requested the assistance of the police. The pair have not been living together since last Christmas and last evening Mrs. Custer said that her husband visited her room in the United States hotel in the West end, and upon her refusal to return to him, raised an awful rumpus and disturbed the occupants of the building. Mrs. Custer stated that as soon as she had lived in Minnesota a year she would take steps to secure a divorce but said she desired to have some protection from her husband during that time. She was afraid Mr. Custer would return last evening and have another scene so two police officers were detailed to watch the premises and arrest Custer on a trespass charge if he appeared. He failed to show up, however, and no arrest was made. Mr. and Mrs. Custer were married a year ago last January.

Occurs at Eagle Lake Owing to Insanity Caused by Frost Bites.

Battleford, Saskatchewan, Feb. 28.—A double tragedy with exciting details is reported from Eagle Lake. A German named Kucher, half demented with frozen feet, went to the house of a man named Ryder. After attending to the frost bites Ryder dozed by the fire, but suddenly awoke when attacked by Kucher with a red hot iron bar. Kucher was overpowered and bound, a man named Schubert being left to watch him. Toward daybreak Schubert became weary of the lonely vigil, so cut the bonds of the demented man and went home. Later, it was discovered, he had shot himself in the head. Both Kucher and Ryder are dead.

SAVE LIVES OF THREE.

South Dakota Ranchers Drown Drowning Trio to Dry Land.

Murdo, S. D., Feb. 28.—Clarence Thomas and Hugh Mullen, young ranchers residing on Horse creek, have placed themselves in line for Carnegie hero medals by saving the lives of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Warrick and their little baby.

Warrick is a homesteader, and with his wife and baby, was attempting to cross a draw near the Mullen ranch, when the horses drawing the wagon got beyond their depth and were foundering in the great volume of water from melting snow, which was rushing through the draw like a mill race. Thomas and Mullen chanced to be near at hand and rushed to the rescue. After desperate efforts they succeeded in drawing the homesteader and his wife and baby to dry land. Had Warrick attempted where there was a deep hole, it is doubtful if even the efforts of Thomas and Mullen could have saved them.

TOT OF THREE A WONDER.

Reads Paper and Rivals Children of 12 in Other Things.

St. Francisville, Ill., Feb. 28.—Charles Buchanan, who was 3 years old last Thursday, is a prodigy. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Buchanan of this place. His mother was a school teacher in Vincennes before her marriage.

When only 10-months-old the child listened intently to conversations between adults. A month later, when he heard people talking he interrupted them with such interrogations as "Why?" "Who?" "What?" and "When?" Soon afterward he knew the alphabet perfectly. At the age of 18 months he had read and memorized the third and second readers used in the Illinois schools. He now reads the newspapers, and with the aid of a dictionary is able to understand all the words he sees. The boy can name each color correctly and can do almost anything that requires brain power—at least anything that boys of 12 or 15 years of age can do.

WIFE SHOWS DEVOTION

Mrs. J. J. Sheltrey Would Save Her Husband From Penitentiary.

Discovers Evidence in His Favor After Sentence is Imposed.

Defensible in her efforts to unearth new evidence that might have a bearing on the move that has been made to secure for her husband, James J. Sheltrey, a new trial, following up every clue that might result in showing that he was guilty of the charge of grand larceny, for which he has been sentenced to a term of one year and eight months in the state penitentiary. Mrs. Agnes Sheltrey has secured from an eye witness of the crime an affidavit that seems to disclose important evidence in Sheltrey's favor.

Filled with the affidavit in question are two others. In one of these Mrs. Sheltrey tells the court that she has employed every means in her power to secure different persons who were in Sheltrey's saloon the night he is accused of taking some $20 from Frank Stasul, an intoxicated workman, and that she learned for the first time, Feb. 21 last, that William Mahoney, a better maker in the Clyde Iron works, confessed the trouble. Mrs. Sheltrey claims that she searched for and found Mahoney and that after considerable talk during which she urged him to keep up the supply, the surplus to be turned over to the biological department of the college, he finally consented for the reason he "did not want to see an innocent person go to jail."

The second affidavit is from a local teacher who was talking about the case to Mahoney when the latter was alone and had explained that he was wrong to send Sheltrey to the penitentiary, that he was innocent of the crime with which he was charged, and that Mahoney knew it. Mahoney's affidavit is considered by Sheltrey's attorneys as one of the most important pieces of evidence yet discovered in his behalf, is to substance, as follows:

On the evening of Feb. 21, 1906, Mahoney while sitting for a friend, James J. Sheltrey, at a table in the saloon on Superior street just below the seventh avenue incline railway. He saw Sheltrey talking to Stasul in an angry manner. Stasul pulled off his coat and threw it on the floor, and taking from his pocket a blue handkerchief and some loose change, he Stasul, threw them on the floor.

"I kept silent," says Mahoney, "because I had no interest in the case and was not acquainted with any of the parties. I make this affidavit because I know Mr. Sheltrey is not guilty and I don't think it right that

NEW CARS TO BE DELAYED

Ore Roads Will Get Rolling Stock Later Than Expected.

A Record-Breaking Mining Season is Expected This Year.

Despite the fact that the contracts stipulated that shipments from the factory were to begin in February, the chances are that the ore roads will not receive their first consignment of their new ore cars until the last of April or in May.

The Pressed Steel Car company of Pittsburgh, which is making the new equipment, has notified the Duluth & Iron Range that shipments from the works will be delayed from ninety to 120 days. The first of the new cars were to have been delivered this month.

However, since the notification came, a representative of the Pressed Steel Car company has been in the city and he declares that his company has been much more fortunate in securing materials and labor since the last month.

Both roads will add considerably to their carrying rolling stock before the coming season of navigation is over. Deliveries of the new cars will continue all summer.

The officials of the ore roads and the well informed mining men of the opinion that this coming season will see greater ore shipments than has any previous year. Many new properties are being opened up and the mines on the Western Mesaba, which were to have shipped in the last year, will send ore to the docks this summer. The delay in the completion of the ore roads on the Mesaba was responsible for the quiet on the Western Mesaba during 1906.

In addition to the new ore cars, the Duluth & Iron Range is to receive several new locomotives this season. They are being built at the Baldwin works and they will probably be delivered later than was anticipated as a bad fire at the Baldwin works some time ago caused a great inconvenience.

So Boy Elopers States in Note to His Father.

Herbert, Nels, Feb. 25.—Willie Herbert, 19 years old, son of a ranchman, William Herbert, living southwest of here, is in a love affair with a girl named Jessie Whitehouse, 15 years old, daughter of a farmer, who lives on the farm of his father, who lives on the farm of his father, who lives on the farm of his father.

Young Herbert sent his father a note after he had left home telling him that he and his aunt were going to elope and had gone away together to live.

Herbert is a good-looking, intelligent young man, and his father had sent him to school with the idea of preparing him for a professional life.

SEEK RELIEF IN DIVORCE.

Nervous Man Objects to Wife's Strenuous Love-Making.

Portland, Feb. 25.—Charles B. Anderson, formerly an attorney of Lanesboro, Ind., has begun suit for divorce from his wife, Mrs. Anderson.

He made her to him in a violent way and she was injured. She says she was forced him to love her and was not free to attend to any other men try to pay her.

SIX-FOOT CHILD WIFE IS ACCUSED OF THEFT.

New York, Feb. 25.—Officers of the Children's society will take to court the "biggest child" that has been handed over to them as a prisoner for safe keeping, and she is a girl at that.

In the children's court with her arranged, Mrs. Angelina Carvattelli of No. 410 East Fourteenth street, who, though only 14 years old, is 6 feet 1 inch in height and weighs 150 pounds. Her father, Joseph Carvattelli, charges her with stealing jewelry valued at $32.

At the stationhouse the police were in a quandary. The law forbids a girl 14 years old being locked in a police cell, yet the police thought the girl was also too large for the children's court.

They decided, however, to stand by the letter of the law and Detective Smith left the girl with the Children's society until her case comes up in the children's court. The girl was married a year and a half ago. Her husband refused to keep her, according to the police, she confessed to having stolen the jewelry.

EYELIDS OF CORPSE Moved as Undertaker Was About to Embalm the Body.

Pottstown, Pa., Feb. 25.—Cremes had been put on the floor and other arrangements for the funeral made, when Undertaker Curran came to embalm the body of a daughter of Nicholas Presagne, who died at Pottstown, Pa. Curran was startled when he saw the eyelids of the supposed corpse move and he hastily summoned a physician.

Stimulants were applied and the girl soon began to breathe and she was put back to bed. The doctor says she will recover.

MORTALITY STATISTICS

Show Half Million Deaths in Two-Fifths of Population.

Death Rate, However, is Lower Than the Preceding Year.

Washington, Feb. 25.—Out of only two-fifths of the population of the United States, more than 500,000 lives were offered up in 1906 as a sacrifice to disease. Startling as this death rate may seem, it was less than that for the preceding year, but was in excess of the number of deaths registered for any other year. This death rate is lower than that of Ireland, Germany and Italy for the same period, but higher than that of England and Wales, Scotland and the Netherlands.

The death rate from nephritis and Bright's disease, apoplexy, cancer, diabetes and appendicitis is increasing, while that from old age, bronchitis, convulsions, peritonitis and scarlet fever is decreasing.

The greatest death rate recorded for any one disease in 1906 was that from pulmonary tuberculosis, amounting to 56,750, while pneumonia followed closely with a death rate of 28,003, exclusive of bronchial pneumonia.

The much-declined death rate shows a growing death-rate, the figures being 24,320.

The above are the most interesting facts brought out in a recent report issued today by the census bureau, giving the statistics of mortality for 1906, together with revised figures for the years 1901 to 1904, inclusive for the registration area of the United States. The statistics in this report are restricted to states in which the laws requiring the registration of deaths have been accepted as giving practically complete returns.

GRAY CHOOSES UNIQUE THEME

"Four Famous Fools" Subject of Speaker's Address Sunday.

Secretary Lippold of the religious department of the Duluth Y. M. C. A. announces that the big men's meeting at the Lyceum theater will be resumed Sunday afternoon, when Dr. Ora Samuel Gray of Amherst, Mass., will deliver his lecture, "Four Famous Fools."

Dr. Gray is a great favorite with the audiences at the Y. M. C. A. meetings in the East, where immense crowds have turned out to hear him. Fifteen years ago he was working in a sawmill in Northern Vermont for $15 a month. Being inspired to do his best, he later put himself through the university, getting a Ph.D. degree at Drew in 1900. He has been on the lecture platform for four years and has spoken 650 times, traveling 200,000 miles in the United States and Canada.

As he himself is a prominent member of the Y. M. C. A., Dr. Gray has sent a personal request that all members of this order turn out to the meeting Sunday. One point in his lecture is illustrated by Dr. Gray by the use of a pair of handcuffs, which have been around the wrists of many of the worst criminals in the South. The Chicago Central Y. M. C. A. recently used Dr. Gray for an entire week for men's meetings, while at Indianapolis a gathering of 1,200 men listened to his address.

Dr. Gray has chosen for his subject, "Four Famous Fools." The concert by the orchestra will begin as usual at 3:10, and will continue until 3:30. Miss Frances Woodbridge will sing several selections and the invocation will be pronounced by Rev. Baxter Waters. W. I. Prince will preside over the meeting.

The meeting is exclusively for men and is the last, although there will be a collection taken.

JAGS AT $1.50 PER JAG.

Illinois Legislature Is Asked to Reduce Court Costs.

Chicago, Feb. 28.—A bill for the relief of the unlucky persons who, "the morning after," face a police magistrate has been introduced in the legislature. Before the vote of the present municipal courts the court costs for the most spectacular "jag" was but $1.50. The new law makes the costs $7.

While the rich men may go along as usual and keep "his house" in order without fear of the $7, his poor but "stewed" brother is plunged into bankruptcy and "ragged" into the workhouse by the court costs.

Therefore Judge H. T. Gilbert and Representative Church have submitted an amendment to the law which allows the poor man to get drunk with the maximum costs at the old price of $1.50.

DOG WAKES MASTER AND SAVES TWELVE AT FIRE.

Pittsfield, Feb. 28.—A Scotch collie saved the family of Robert B. Henderson of King street. Shortly after 4 o'clock Henderson was awakened by the loud barking of his dog, which tried to drag him out of bed. Henderson kicked off the covers, came back and howled frantically.

Believing something was the matter, Henderson then rushed out to the kitchen and found the room in flames. He and Mrs. Henderson had just time to get out their children from the second floor and escape from the building, which went up like a flash in flames.

SPORTS OF THE DAY

ALL RINKS OCCUPIED

Five Games a Night
Are Played by the Curlers.

in Various Trophy Contests.

With all the curlers on hand again, play at the Duluth Curling rink, the Meador St. Louis and Manley-McLennan events is progressing more rapidly than for some time past, and weather permitting the club will be almost ready to close its trophy season by the end of next week. The absence of numbers of the curlers at St. Paul and in Superior the last few days of last week, hung up the play seriously at that time, but five games a night are being played regularly this week, and the final rounds in the Meador and St. Louis events are rapidly looming up on the horizon.

It is the St. Louis events the McGilvray, McLeod, Oldham, A. H. Smith, Bradley and Anneke rinks are in the eighth, with Myron and Ron Smith and Rev. Milne and Fred Smith matched to decide which pair completes the draw. Ron Smith's old four has broken up and John Tresise, the only member in the city, has organized a new four which he will endeavor to lead to victory.

Tresise is also skipping the Dinham rink in the Novice event, and this four is way to the good, with a record of no games lost so far. The Herald trophy is practically conceded to the Dinham rink in this event.

In the "Talk With Meador" event, play is slow, and one or two rinks are holding back all the others from the completion of the event. If delays are much more persistent, the committee in charge have threatened to declare several forfeits, which there will be no appeal. Dinham, Whyte and Nichols are in the second round in this contest, but Phelps, A. H. Smith, Woodruff, Dunlop, Bradley and Hurdon are still in the preliminaries.

The Manley-McLennan trophy event, thirty-two games remain to be played before the high average rinks in the two squads are ready to play off the finals and the trophy will be decided. Squad No. 1 is the most backward of the quartet, and the majority of the unplayed games are in this section.

The ice has been in the best of shape all this week, and should this cold weather keep up, it will be the finest curling of the season is yet to be witnessed.

NORTHERNS WILL SEE BIG GAME

Locals Will Leave in Time to See Calumet-Soo Contest.

In order to be enabled to take in the professional game between the Calumet and American Soo sevens at Calumet Monday night, the Northern Hardware hockey team will leave here Sunday night for the Copper country.

The prospect of taking in a big game in addition to supporting the home team is expected to draw a good crowd of rooters to accompany the team, and at least twenty will make up the delegation from Duluth.

Instead of playing the Houghton high school, two games will be played with the Houghton amateurs on Tuesday and Wednesday nights. The two teams are identical with the exception of two players, and the Houghton team have decided to play their best men in both contests.

DRAFTING OF TOPEKA.

Is Being Considered by the National Baseball Commission.

New York, Feb. 28.—The application of the Western Baseball league for permission to draft the Topeka club from the Western association, which is in a lower class, was taken up by the National commission here today. The commission is composed of Augustus Herrmann of Cincinnati and Presidents Johnson and Sullivan. They declined unanimously not to pass upon the question at present, but declared that section 4 of article 27 in the by-laws of the National association of minor leagues, which prohibits drafting from a lower class, is in effect, and asked the National board to adjust the section and so obviate any necessity for the commission to take action.

President O'Neill appeared for the Western league, while President Powers and Secretary Farrell represented the National association. J. H. Murnane and Mr. Hart of the National board were also present. Members of the National board took up the matter without delay, and a meeting of the full board probably will be held in Chicago within two weeks.

AFTER MORE MATCHES.

Watson Will Wrestle Anything in Sight in Lightweight Class.

Anything under 128 pounds is Charley Watson's rather all-inclusive challenge to lightweight wrestlers, and he is willing to take on anything that knows a nut from a feather bed. Ernie Coughlin is especially mentioned in Watson's challenge, and if the West Duluthian cares to meet himself for $50, Watson is ready for a go at any time.

While it may be possible to enjoy oneself in Duluth this summer without being a member of the Duluth Boat Club, one's chances of finding plenty of amusement for the spare hours will be greatly increased by a membership in that organization.

Progressiveness is certainly the dominant feature of the officers of the club members. When the new branch house at O-at-ka and the new cafe building were completed last year, many thought that the club would rest on its oars for several years to come, but this spring new and even more improvements are planned.

The Spirit Lake branch house has been an inspired thought. Going out to the branch on Saturday afternoon and returning Monday morning, or going out early in the evening and spending the night there, will give the members all of the delights of camping in the woods, and no loss of time from business.

It will be the case more than ever this year, that the young man who is not a member of either the boat or yacht club will be somewhat "out of it."

It is noted in today's sporting dispatches that the members of the national baseball commission are handling the Topeka question with the most careful consideration. It is a bungling there, or it means another baseball war. The minor leagues of the higher class, such as the Eastern league, the American association, and the Western league, will not stand for much trifling with their interests, and if any disposition is shown to give them the worst of it, the association will have a team in Chicago this summer.

The two sides are in consideration will not be any too much.

ANOTHER FIGHT IN PROSPECT?

Tom McCune Training in Duluth and Sports Are Guessing.

Twelve rounds with "Philadelphia Jack" O'Brien was the most recent contest in the record of the latest star in the pugilistic world at the Head of the Lakes, the right honorable Thomas McCune, who struck town this week. Just what McCune will do next is hard to say, but he has not been definitely announced as yet, but considerable advertising has been given the fact that Benjamin Tremble is in town and it rather looks as if Tommy had a scrap in view with the big pug who is to go up against Schreck next month.

In fact it is rumored that Tom was brought here by a prominent athletic club of this city for a boxing exhibition in which he and Tremble are to take leading parts. Ben says he has heard nothing about it and in fact didn't know McCune was in town, but says that he has heard that he was wanted for a fight at any time, as long as the date is not too close to the date for the Schreck fight.

"I certainly want to be all to the good and I'll take any chances on a bad rap or a sore hand by mixing up with any of the fellows in town," says McCune. "Two weeks would be long enough though."

McCune, as stated before, is a scrapper, with a record. Young Peter Jackson took him on in a ten round fight in 1904, and McCune also stayed two matches of ten rounds each with Tommy Burns, although he lost the decision on both occasions.

HARD TRIP FOR MDICINE.

Ship Captain Walks Thousand Miles
Over Snows of Alaska.

Seattle, Wash., Feb. 28.—Unable to procure the medicine necessary for his sick son aboard his vessel, the Quicksilver, in winter quarters on the Kuskokwim, Alaska, Capt. W. E. Geiger left the boat on November 15 last and "mashed" to Nome to get the medicine. In the effort to secure transportation from Esquimaux and others, he traveled 300 miles, arriving December 7. While the most arduous part of his trip was in a field between the Kuskokwim and Yukon rivers, which was being scarcely touched, and where he was nearly frozen, he was not the only one to suffer. Capt. Geiger will make the return trip over the same route, carrying back the medicine to the sick boy, and also establishing his claim to the land on which he found the gold.

JOHNSON FOR FREE CARS.

Would Make the Street Cars as Free as the Air.

Cleveland, Feb. 28.—"I am pleased with the virtual victory the 3-cent fare has obtained," said Mayor Johnson, "merely because it is a big step toward what I really want—that free street cars. Eventually I hope to see them as free to the passengers as the air they breathe."

"I have fought for 3-cent fares because it is 2-cent nothing but a mere pittance. Street cars ought to be as free as elevators. Tolls used to be collected on bridges and turnpikes. Now such tolls have a medicinal sound now. So will street car fares some day."

"A proper system of taxation would yield sufficient funds to operate street car lines without burden to the people. And the conductor—he wouldn't have to spend his time looking through the car. All he'd have to do would be to stand at the rear and help ladies up and down the steps."

New York, Feb. 27.—W. A. Garrett today was elected president of the Seaboard Air line to succeed Alfred Volz, who died recently at his home in this city.

PLANS NEW ACTIVITIES

Boat Club Will be Center for Outdoor Sport
This Year.

Prospects Should Redouble the Enthusiasm of the Members.

With a total membership of 600, a new branch boathouse at Spirit Lake, in addition to the Oatka branch, and the comfortable new clubhouse near the canal, with new racing equipment and new pleasure boats and canoes, the Duluth Boat Club will this year be the center of attraction as far as outdoor sports are concerned, and will offer inducements unequalled by probably any boat club in the West.

At the invitation of President Julius H. Barnes, about twenty-five of the most active members of the club sat down to dinner last evening at the Commercial club to hear, in an informal way, the plans which the officers of the club have in view for the coming season.

In the first place the membership will be increased by 100 new names. This will bring it up to about the limit, and will probably not be allowed to go much beyond that mark for some time to come. The club now has 300 active members and 300 members, making a total of 600 members. It is planned to bring this up to 600 in all, with 500 active members.

These new members will be carefully selected. Any young man of good character will be considered, but it is hoped that most of the new members will be good material for the crews. During the next few days the twenty-five guests who were present last evening, and who were practically all active in rowing, will each try to secure one new man for the club, who will prove good material for the crews. There will be no difficulty about securing the 100 new members, but there will be difficulty in getting good men for the crews, and that is what the club is after.

The plans for the new branch house at Spirit Lake were briefly outlined by Mr. Barnes. The club has secured the lease on a choice piece of property on the shore of the river just above Spirit Lake. The bank is high and slopes beautifully to the river, giving a magnificent view. A dock will be built so that the Newsway can go in to and out of the river station will be built on the railroad track, which runs just in the rear of the property. It will only be a little over three miles from the end of the West Duluth car line, so that walking is not out of the question.

On this choice site a branch clubhouse will be erected just as soon as work can be begun, and it will be ready for use this summer. There will be a house for storing boats of all kinds, and a dancing pavilion, where informal dances can be held, and where the members can seek shelter in stormy weather. The clubhouse will contain sleeping quarters which will be rented at a moderate cost to members who desire to spend the night there. A dining room and kitchen will be added, where meals will be served to the members for bridge work, amounting to $8.00 tons. In the steel market the most interesting development is the purchase by the leading interest of what tonnage was offered in the market by a new open heart steel plant, in the Buffalo district, about to begin production.

A sale of 50,000 tons of steel rails to the Manchurian road, some weeks since, has been followed by contracts for bridge work amounting to $8.00 tons. In the steel market the most interesting development is the purchase by the leading interest of what tonnage was offered in the market by a new open heart steel plant, in the Buffalo district, about to begin production.

The pressure in the wire and tube trades for an advance in prices has been persistent recently. It is thoroughly understood, however, that the most powerful interests are averse to any raising of prices.

Some disquieting reports come from Pittsburgh with reference to the attitude of the puddlers, who may secede from the Amalgamated association and make demands independently. The Eastern bar iron markets are strong and makers are now quoting on the basis of their own mills rather than on the Pittsburgh base.

The pig iron markets are feature-less. The spot markets are controlled entirely by local and temporary conditions, with a tendency towards lowering of premiums. Middleborough iron has been offered in cargo lots at $20.50, at tide water, but buyers and sellers seem too far apart. Prompt basic is scarce, although the mills have a good deal of tonnage due them, on old contracts. A leading Scotch iron producer sold, in the St. Louis district, one lot of 18,000 tons in January and one lot of 15,000 tons in February, of basic pig for delivery during the second half of the year. The iron netted $19 at Birmingham.

Tonopah Gambler Fights the Tiger for Tonopah, Nev., Feb. 28.—Last Friday morning Abe Brown, part owner of the Tonopah club, a famous gambling resort, lost $300,000 at one sitting.

While Brown lost $300,000 in less than twenty-four hours, he is actually losing only $300,000, as he is one-third owner in the game in which he lost his fortune.

The Tonopah gambling club is by Brown, Kennedy and Wingfield, rich mine owners of Goldfield, Thursday night Brown started in to play faro and lost $25,000. He wanted the limit off, and was accommodated.

Brown started in to bet $5,000 on single cards. Luck was with him at first and in a short time he was nearly $100,000 ahead. The fortune switched and Brown lost heavily. After twenty hours Brown had $300,000 in markers against him. He wanted to play $50,000 more, but the dealer persuaded him to quit. Brown settled the debt with 11,000 shares of Mohawk and other securities.

EXCELLENT BUSINESS

Developing in Finished Branches of Iron and Steel Industry.

New York, Feb. 28.—The Iron Age says: So far as the finished branches of the iron and steel industry are concerned business is developing in a very satisfactory manner. The mills are full of work and specifications are coming in steadily. During the first three weeks of the current month the new orders for one of the largest manufacturers have come in at a daily rate, which is practically equivalent to the full capacity of the plants. Even this month there will be usually quiet, as February is this concern has not been gaining on its extraordinary accumulation of orders. Shipments during the first half of February were, for obvious reasons, not quite up to the output of the mills.

A sale of 50,000 tons of steel rails to the Manchurian road, some weeks since, has been followed by contracts for bridge work amounting to $8.00 tons. In the steel market the most interesting development is the purchase by the leading interest of what tonnage was offered in the market by a new open heart steel plant, in the Buffalo district, about to begin production.
